We are available for an unclass chat today if others have an analysis they'd like to share. Tomorrow afternoon also works, including classified, if required, between 2 and 3:30.

Just to add, for our response to PCO, my team would find it helpful to be able to reach out to the person who captured the screen grabs. There are a couple things we could still learn from these wechat group messages:

- We were not able to find a time and date from the metadata of the wechat message screengrabs. If the messages began circulating around Sep 8 or 9, the date when the first op-eds about Chiu and C-282 appeared, it might give us some more clues about what level of coordination.
- Did the person who took the screengrabs receive these messages in a group message chat? We assume this is case, based on the appearance of the interface in the screengrab, but it would be good to confirm. If possible, it would be great if we could learn more about what kind of group chat this is (a group chat started by a WeChat news account, or a personal one for family/friends, etc.).

Thanks,

Gallit

Thanks Gallit,

And huge thanks to [redacted] for providing this analysis. Would welcome a discussion early in the week.

Unfortunately, I will be in court all day tomorrow (s.38 process) and therefore unavailable - probably until Tuesday afternoon. However, please proceed without me if you want to get together to discuss and I can catch up later.

Best,
L

SITE colleagues,

Please find attached [redacted] analysis of the information provided by PCO. We'd be happy to discuss early in the week. We'd prefer an unclass discussion so that [redacted] might join ([redacted] clearance is still in train) but understand if others need to discuss this in a class setting.

Hi [redacted]

My team will take a look at this ASAP. Any further detail you can provide with respect to your discussion with CPC reps would be super useful to us as well.

Howdy SITE friends,

Just received the attached from CPC claiming it shows FI by PRC in 9 ridings during the election.

As you know, we have been engaged by CPC in an ongoing dialogue around these issues. If you could take a look, and let [redacted] and I know if there is anything in here it would be appreciated.

Cheers,
