Briefing to SECRET Cleared Federal Political Parties:
Introduction to the SITE TF

(U) The Security and Intelligence Threats to Elections Task Force (SITE TF) consists of members from the Communications Security Establishment, the Canadian Security Intelligence Service, Global Affairs Canada, and the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. SITE TF was established in 2018 as part of the Government of Canada's efforts to safeguard Canada's democratic processes from foreign interference (FI).

(U) SITE TF defines FI as: "activity conducted or supported by a foreign state/actor that is detrimental to Canadian national interests and is clandestine, deceptive or involves a threat to a person."

(U) Mandate

- To provide a clear point of engagement with the security and intelligence community for Government partners engaged in related work.
- To review and focus intelligence collection, assessment, and open-source analysis related to foreign interference in Canada's democratic process in a coordinated manner.
- To provide situational awareness for Government partners, senior public servants, and other relevant partners.
- To promote the use of intelligence, assessment, and open-source information analysis in the protection of democratic processes through sharing with partners or, when respective mandates permit, take action to mitigate the threat.

(U) I would like to turn to each of my SITE colleagues to say a word on the roles and responsibilities of their respective agencies bring to the Task Force. I will begin with CSE (recommended key points taken from 'SITE TF Roles' document):

CSE

- Information Technology Security: Providing advice, guidance, and services to help ensure the protection of electronic information and of systems of importance
- Foreign Intelligence: Collection of foreign intelligence for Government of Canada on threat actors
- Supporting CSIS and RCMP: Providing assistance on technical operations\
- Foreign Cyber Operations: Defensive and Active Cyber Operations to mitigate foreign threats

CSIS
