For Public Release

as well as the recent announcement of a public inquiry on foreign interference in anada.  HMCS Ottawa:  BEJING/Chargé/ recalled that Canada will continue to work with partners and allies to romote peace and security in the Indo-Pacific as well as the rules-based international order. She inderscored that Canada has always been transparent about the purpose of our military activities in the Indo-Pacific which aims to monitor the UNSC sanctions on North Korea and which are fully consistent with international law and the UN Convention on the Law of Sea (UNCLOS). BEJING/Chargé insisted that uch transits in the Taiwan Strait are not actions directed against China, do not disturb the peace and accurity in the Indo-Pacific and are not signals to Taiwan's independence forces as claimed by the PRC. EJING/Chargé also reiterated our willingness to engage with high-level officials from the PRC's Ministri f Defense about Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to neeting with the PRC's Minister of Defense on the margins of Shangri-La Dialogue).  Foreign Interference: DDG Yao the PRC's strong protest following the announcement of a	was requested by BEJING/Chargé/ recalled that Canada will continue to work with partners and allies to romote peace and security in the Indo-Pacific as well as the rules-based international order. She inderscored that Canada has always been transparent about the purpose of our military activities in the Indo-Pacific which aims to monitor the UNSC sanctions on North Korea and which are fully consistent with international law and the UN Convention on the Law of Sea (UNCLOS). BEJING/Chargé insisted that uch transits in the Taiwan Strait are not actions directed against China, do not disturb the peace and ecurity in the Indo-Pacific and are not signals to Taiwan's independence forces as claimed by the PRC. EJING/Chargé also reiterated our willingness to engage with high-level officials from the PRC's Ministry of Defense about Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to neeting with the PRC's Minister of Defense on the margins of Shangri-La Dialogue).  Foreign Interference: DDG Yao the PRC's strong protest following the announcement of a ublic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs of other countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in BEJING/Chargé/recalled that Canada will continue to work with partners and allies to romote peace and security in the Indo-Pacific as well as the rules-based international order. She inderscored that Canada has always been transparent about the purpose of our military activities in the dod-Pacific which aims to monitor the UNSC sanctions on North Korea and which are fully consistent with international law and the UN Convention on the Law of Sea (UNCLOS). BEJING/Chargé insisted that such transits in the Taiwan Strait are not actions directed against China, do not disturb the peace and ecurity in the Indo-Pacific and are not signals to Taiwan's independence forces as claimed by the PRC. EJING/Chargé also reiterated our willingness to engage with high-level officials from the PRC's Minister of Defense about Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to neeting with the PRC's Minister of Defense on the margins of Shangri-La Dialogue).  Foreign Interference: DDG Yao  the PRC's strong protest following the announcement of a ublic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada	`anada	as were as the recent announcement of a public inquity of foreign interference in
BEJING/Chargé/recalled that Canada will continue to work with partners and allies to romote peace and security in the Indo-Pacific as well as the rules-based international order. She nderscored that Canada has always been transparent about the purpose of our military activities in the ndo-Pacific which aims to monitor the UNSC sanctions on North Korea and which are fully consistent vith international law and the UN Convention on the Law of Sea (UNCLOS). BEJING/Chargé insisted that uch transits in the Taiwan Strait are not actions directed against China, do not disturb the peace and ecurity in the Indo-Pacific and are not signals to Taiwan's independence forces as claimed by the PRC. EJING/Chargé also reiterated our willingness to engage with high-level officials from the PRC's Ministry of Defense about Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to neeting with the PRC's Minister of Defense on the margins of Shangri-La Dialogue).  Foreign Interference: DDG Yao	ourida.
BEJING/Chargé/recalled that Canada will continue to work with partners and allies to romote peace and security in the Indo-Pacific as well as the rules-based international order. She nderscored that Canada has always been transparent about the purpose of our military activities in the ndo-Pacific which aims to monitor the UNSC sanctions on North Korea and which are fully consistent vith international law and the UN Convention on the Law of Sea (UNCLOS). BEJING/Chargé insisted that uch transits in the Taiwan Strait are not actions directed against China, do not disturb the peace and ecurity in the Indo-Pacific and are not signals to Taiwan's independence forces as claimed by the PRC. EJING/Chargé also reiterated our willingness to engage with high-level officials from the PRC's Ministry of Defense about Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to neeting with the PRC's Minister of Defense on the margins of Shangri-La Dialogue).  Foreign Interference: DDG Yao	. HMCS Ottawa:
romote peace and security in the Indo-Pacific as well as the rules-based international order. She inderscored that Canada has always been transparent about the purpose of our military activities in the indo-Pacific which aims to monitor the UNSC sanctions on North Korea and which are fully consistent vith international law and the UN Convention on the Law of Sea (UNCLOS). BEJING/Chargé insisted that uch transits in the Taiwan Strait are not actions directed against China, do not disturb the peace and ecurity in the Indo-Pacific and are not signals to Taiwan's independence forces as claimed by the PRC. EJING/Chargé also reiterated our willingness to engage with high-level officials from the PRC's Ministry of Defense about Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to neeting with the PRC's Minister of Defense on the margins of Shangri-La Dialogue).  Foreign Interference: DDG Yao the PRC's strong protest following the announcement of a ublic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs of other countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in romote peace and security in the Indo-Pacific as well as the rules-based international order. She inderscored that Canada has always been transparent about the purpose of our military activities in the indo-Pacific which aims to monitor the UNSC sanctions on North Korea and which are fully consistent vith international law and the UN Convention on the Law of Sea (UNCLOS). BEJING/Chargé insisted that uch transits in the Taiwan Strait are not actions directed against China, do not disturb the peace and ecurity in the Indo-Pacific and are not signals to Taiwan's independence forces as claimed by the PRC. EJING/Chargé also reiterated our willingness to engage with high-level officials from the PRC's Ministry of Defense about Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to neeting with the PRC's Minister of Defense on the margins of Shangri-La Dialogue).  Foreign Interference: DDG Yao the PRC's strong protest following the announcement of a ublic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs of other countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in romote peace and security in the Indo-Pacific as well as the rules-based international order. She inderscored that Canada has always been transparent about the purpose of our military activities in the indo-Pacific which aims to monitor the UNSC sanctions on North Korea and which are fully consistent vith international law and the UN Convention on the Law of Sea (UNCLOS). BEJING/Chargé insisted that uch transits in the Taiwan Strait are not actions directed against China, do not disturb the peace and ecurity in the Indo-Pacific and are not signals to Taiwan's independence forces as claimed by the PRC. EJING/Chargé also reiterated our willingness to engage with high-level officials from the PRC's Ministry of Defense about Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to neeting with the PRC's Minister of Defense on the margins of Shangri-La Dialogue).  Foreign Interference: DDG Yao the PRC's strong protest following the announcement of a ublic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs of other countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in romote peace and security in the Indo-Pacific as well as the rules-based international order. She inderscored that Canada has always been transparent about the purpose of our military activities in the indo-Pacific which aims to monitor the UNSC sanctions on North Korea and which are fully consistent vith international law and the UN Convention on the Law of Sea (UNCLOS). BEJING/Chargé insisted that uch transits in the Taiwan Strait are not actions directed against China, do not disturb the peace and ecurity in the Indo-Pacific and are not signals to Taiwan's independence forces as claimed by the PRC. EJING/Chargé also reiterated our willingness to engage with high-level officials from the PRC's Ministry of Defense about Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to neeting with the PRC's Minister of Defense on the margins of Shangri-La Dialogue).  Foreign Interference: DDG Yao the PRC's strong protest following the announcement of a ublic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs of other countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in romote peace and security in the Indo-Pacific as well as the rules-based international order. She inderscored that Canada has always been transparent about the purpose of our military activities in the indo-Pacific which aims to monitor the UNSC sanctions on North Korea and which are fully consistent vith international law and the UN Convention on the Law of Sea (UNCLOS). BEJING/Chargé insisted that uch transits in the Taiwan Strait are not actions directed against China, do not disturb the peace and ecurity in the Indo-Pacific and are not signals to Taiwan's independence forces as claimed by the PRC. EJING/Chargé also reiterated our willingness to engage with high-level officials from the PRC's Ministry of Defense about Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to neeting with the PRC's Minister of Defense on the margins of Shangri-La Dialogue).  Foreign Interference: DDG Yao the PRC's strong protest following the announcement of a ublic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs of other countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in romote peace and security in the Indo-Pacific as well as the rules-based international order. She inderscored that Canada has always been transparent about the purpose of our military activities in the indo-Pacific which aims to monitor the UNSC sanctions on North Korea and which are fully consistent vith international law and the UN Convention on the Law of Sea (UNCLOS). BEJING/Chargé insisted that uch transits in the Taiwan Strait are not actions directed against China, do not disturb the peace and ecurity in the Indo-Pacific and are not signals to Taiwan's independence forces as claimed by the PRC. EJING/Chargé also reiterated our willingness to engage with high-level officials from the PRC's Ministry of Defense about Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to neeting with the PRC's Minister of Defense on the margins of Shangri-La Dialogue).  Foreign Interference: DDG Yao the PRC's strong protest following the announcement of a ublic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs of other countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in romote peace and security in the Indo-Pacific as well as the rules-based international order. She inderscored that Canada has always been transparent about the purpose of our military activities in the indo-Pacific which aims to monitor the UNSC sanctions on North Korea and which are fully consistent vith international law and the UN Convention on the Law of Sea (UNCLOS). BEJING/Chargé insisted that uch transits in the Taiwan Strait are not actions directed against China, do not disturb the peace and ecurity in the Indo-Pacific and are not signals to Taiwan's independence forces as claimed by the PRC. EJING/Chargé also reiterated our willingness to engage with high-level officials from the PRC's Ministry of Defense about Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to neeting with the PRC's Minister of Defense on the margins of Shangri-La Dialogue).  Foreign Interference: DDG Yao the PRC's strong protest following the announcement of a ublic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs of other countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in romote peace and security in the Indo-Pacific as well as the rules-based international order. She inderscored that Canada has always been transparent about the purpose of our military activities in the indo-Pacific which aims to monitor the UNSC sanctions on North Korea and which are fully consistent vith international law and the UN Convention on the Law of Sea (UNCLOS). BEJING/Chargé insisted that uch transits in the Taiwan Strait are not actions directed against China, do not disturb the peace and ecurity in the Indo-Pacific and are not signals to Taiwan's independence forces as claimed by the PRC. EJING/Chargé also reiterated our willingness to engage with high-level officials from the PRC's Ministry of Defense about Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to neeting with the PRC's Minister of Defense on the margins of Shangri-La Dialogue).  Foreign Interference: DDG Yao the PRC's strong protest following the announcement of a ublic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs of other countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in romote peace and security in the Indo-Pacific as well as the rules-based international order. She inderscored that Canada has always been transparent about the purpose of our military activities in the indo-Pacific which aims to monitor the UNSC sanctions on North Korea and which are fully consistent vith international law and the UN Convention on the Law of Sea (UNCLOS). BEJING/Chargé insisted that uch transits in the Taiwan Strait are not actions directed against China, do not disturb the peace and ecurity in the Indo-Pacific and are not signals to Taiwan's independence forces as claimed by the PRC. EJING/Chargé also reiterated our willingness to engage with high-level officials from the PRC's Ministry of Defense about Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to neeting with the PRC's Minister of Defense on the margins of Shangri-La Dialogue).  Foreign Interference: DDG Yao the PRC's strong protest following the announcement of a ublic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs of other countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in romote peace and security in the Indo-Pacific as well as the rules-based international order. She inderscored that Canada has always been transparent about the purpose of our military activities in the indo-Pacific which aims to monitor the UNSC sanctions on North Korea and which are fully consistent vith international law and the UN Convention on the Law of Sea (UNCLOS). BEJING/Chargé insisted that uch transits in the Taiwan Strait are not actions directed against China, do not disturb the peace and ecurity in the Indo-Pacific and are not signals to Taiwan's independence forces as claimed by the PRC. EJING/Chargé also reiterated our willingness to engage with high-level officials from the PRC's Ministry of Defense about Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to neeting with the PRC's Minister of Defense on the margins of Shangri-La Dialogue).  Foreign Interference: DDG Yao the PRC's strong protest following the announcement of a ublic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs of other countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in romote peace and security in the Indo-Pacific as well as the rules-based international order. She inderscored that Canada has always been transparent about the purpose of our military activities in the indo-Pacific which aims to monitor the UNSC sanctions on North Korea and which are fully consistent vith international law and the UN Convention on the Law of Sea (UNCLOS). BEJING/Chargé insisted that uch transits in the Taiwan Strait are not actions directed against China, do not disturb the peace and ecurity in the Indo-Pacific and are not signals to Taiwan's independence forces as claimed by the PRC. EJING/Chargé also reiterated our willingness to engage with high-level officials from the PRC's Ministry of Defense about Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to neeting with the PRC's Minister of Defense on the margins of Shangri-La Dialogue).  Foreign Interference: DDG Yao the PRC's strong protest following the announcement of a ublic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs of other countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in
romote peace and security in the Indo-Pacific as well as the rules-based international order. She inderscored that Canada has always been transparent about the purpose of our military activities in the indo-Pacific which aims to monitor the UNSC sanctions on North Korea and which are fully consistent vith international law and the UN Convention on the Law of Sea (UNCLOS). BEJING/Chargé insisted that uch transits in the Taiwan Strait are not actions directed against China, do not disturb the peace and ecurity in the Indo-Pacific and are not signals to Taiwan's independence forces as claimed by the PRC. EJING/Chargé also reiterated our willingness to engage with high-level officials from the PRC's Ministry of Defense about Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to neeting with the PRC's Minister of Defense on the margins of Shangri-La Dialogue).  Foreign Interference: DDG Yao the PRC's strong protest following the announcement of a ublic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs of other countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in	DEM	10/01 / 11 11 10 1 11 11 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 Inderscored that Canada has always been transparent about the purpose of our military activities in the do-Pacific which aims to monitor the UNSC sanctions on North Korea and which are fully consistent with international law and the UN Convention on the Law of Sea (UNCLOS). BEJING/Chargé insisted that uch transits in the Taiwan Strait are not actions directed against China, do not disturb the peace and ecurity in the Indo-Pacific and are not signals to Taiwan's independence forces as claimed by the PRC. EJING/Chargé also reiterated our willingness to engage with high-level officials from the PRC's Ministry of Defense about Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to neeting with the PRC's Minister of Defense on the margins of Shangri-La Dialogue).  Toreign Interference: DDG Yao  the PRC's strong protest following the announcement of a willic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada.  that non-interference in the internal affairs of other countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in Ando-Pacific which aims to monitor the UNSC sanctions on North Korea and which are fully consistent with international law and the UN Convention on the Law of Sea (UNCLOS). BEJING/Chargé insisted that uch transits in the Taiwan Strait are not actions directed against China, do not disturb the peace and ecurity in the Indo-Pacific and are not signals to Taiwan's independence forces as claimed by the PRC. EJING/Chargé also reiterated our willingness to engage with high-level officials from the PRC's Ministry of Defense about Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to neeting with the PRC's Minister of Defense on the margins of Shangri-La Dialogue).  Toreign Interference: DDG Yao	romote peace an	nd security in the Indo-Pacific as well as the rules-based international order. She
with international law and the UN Convention on the Law of Sea (UNCLOS). BEJING/Chargé insisted that uch transits in the Taiwan Strait are not actions directed against China, do not disturb the peace and ecurity in the Indo-Pacific and are not signals to Taiwan's independence forces as claimed by the PRC. EJING/Chargé also reiterated our willingness to engage with high-level officials from the PRC's Ministry of Defense about Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to neeting with the PRC's Minister of Defense on the margins of Shangri-La Dialogue).  Toreign Interference: DDG Yao  the PRC's strong protest following the announcement of a ublic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada.  that non-interference in the internal affairs of the Countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in	nderscored that	Canada has always been transparent about the purpose of our military activities in the
with international law and the UN Convention on the Law of Sea (UNCLOS). BEJING/Chargé insisted that uch transits in the Taiwan Strait are not actions directed against China, do not disturb the peace and ecurity in the Indo-Pacific and are not signals to Taiwan's independence forces as claimed by the PRC. EJING/Chargé also reiterated our willingness to engage with high-level officials from the PRC's Ministry of Defense about Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to neeting with the PRC's Minister of Defense on the margins of Shangri-La Dialogue).  Toreign Interference: DDG Yao  the PRC's strong protest following the announcement of a ublic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada.  that non-interference in the internal affairs of the Countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in uch transits in the Taiwan Strait are not actions directed against China, do not disturb the peace and ecurity in the Indo-Pacific and are not signals to Taiwan's independence forces as claimed by the PRC. EJING/Chargé also reiterated our willingness to engage with high-level officials from the PRC's Ministry of Defense about Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to neeting with the PRC's Minister of Defense on the margins of Shangri-La Dialogue).  Foreign Interference: DDG Yao the PRC's strong protest following the announcement of a ublic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs of other countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in ecurity in the Indo-Pacific and are not signals to Taiwan's independence forces as claimed by the PRC. EJING/Chargé also reiterated our willingness to engage with high-level officials from the PRC's Ministry of Defense about Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to neeting with the PRC's Minister of Defense on the margins of Shangri-La Dialogue).  Foreign Interference: DDG Yao the PRC's strong protest following the announcement of a sublic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs of other countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in EJING/Chargé also reiterated our willingness to engage with high-level officials from the PRC's Ministry of Defense about Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to neeting with the PRC's Minister of Defense on the margins of Shangri-La Dialogue).  Foreign Interference: DDG Yao the PRC's strong protest following the announcement of a sublic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs of other countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in	such transits in the	e Taiwan Strait are not actions directed against China, do not disturb the peace and
f Defense about Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to neeting with the PRC's Minister of Defense on the margins of Shangri-La Dialogue).  Foreign Interference: DDG Yao the PRC's strong protest following the announcement of a ublic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs of other countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in	security in the Ind	o-Pacific and are not signals to Taiwan's independence forces as claimed by the PRC.
f Defense about Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to neeting with the PRC's Minister of Defense on the margins of Shangri-La Dialogue).  Foreign Interference: DDG Yao the PRC's strong protest following the announcement of a ublic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs of other countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in	SEUNICIO
Foreign Interference: DDG Yao the PRC's strong protest following the announcement of a ublic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs fother countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in	st IING/Charge als	so reiterated our willingness to engage with high-level officials from the PRC's Ministry
Foreign Interference: DDG Yao the PRC's strong protest following the announcement of a ublic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs fother countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in
. Foreign Interference: DDG Yao the PRC's strong protest following the announcement of a ublic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs fother countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in	of Defense about	Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to
. Foreign Interference: DDG Yao the PRC's strong protest following the announcement of a ublic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs fother countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in	of Defense about	Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to ublic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs of the countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in	of Defense about	Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to
ublic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs of the countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in	of Defense about	Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to
ublic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs of the countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in	of Defense about of meeting with the I	Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to
ublic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs of the countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in	of Defense about of meeting with the I	Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to
ublic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs of the countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in	of Defense about of meeting with the I	Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to
ublic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs of the countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in	of Defense about of meeting with the I	Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to
ublic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs of the countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in	of Defense about of meeting with the I	Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to
ublic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs of the countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in	of Defense about of meeting with the I	Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to
ublic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs of the countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in	of Defense about of meeting with the I	Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to
ublic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs of the countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in	of Defense about of meeting with the I	Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to
ublic inquiry on foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs of the countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in	of Defense about of meeting with the I	Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to
f other countries is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in	of Defense about of Defense about of the last of the l	Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to PRC's Minister of Defense on the margins of Shangri-La Dialogue).
	of Defense about of Defense about of Defense about of the last of	Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to PRC's Minister of Defense on the margins of Shangri-La Dialogue).  rence: DDG Yao the PRC's strong protest following the announcement of a of Defense about of Defense about of Defense about of the left of	Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to PRC's Minister of Defense on the margins of Shangri-La Dialogue).  rence: DDG Yao the PRC's strong protest following the announcement of a ile internal arians of Canada.	of Defense about oneeting with the last of	Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to PRC's Minister of Defense on the margins of Shangri-La Dialogue).  rence: DDG Yao the PRC's strong protest following the announcement of a foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs of Defense about oneeting with the last of the second seco	Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to PRC's Minister of Defense on the margins of Shangri-La Dialogue).  rence: DDG Yao  the PRC's strong protest following the announcement of a foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in
	of Defense about oneeting with the last of	Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to PRC's Minister of Defense on the margins of Shangri-La Dialogue).  rence: DDG Yao  the PRC's strong protest following the announcement of a foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in
	of Defense about oneeting with the last of	Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to PRC's Minister of Defense on the margins of Shangri-La Dialogue).  rence: DDG Yao  the PRC's strong protest following the announcement of a foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in
	of Defense about oneeting with the last of the second seco	Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to PRC's Minister of Defense on the margins of Shangri-La Dialogue).  rence: DDG Yao  the PRC's strong protest following the announcement of a foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in
	of Defense about oneeting with the last of the second seco	Canadian military deployments in the Indo-Pacific (making reference to our request to PRC's Minister of Defense on the margins of Shangri-La Dialogue).  rence: DDG Yao  the PRC's strong protest following the announcement of a foreign interference in Canada. that non-interference in the internal affairs is a key principle of the PRC's foreign policy and that the PRC has never interfered in the outcomes of the public inquiry which has broad	d support from all parties. BEJING/Chargé also highlighted that the issue has not been "hyped up"	by the media.

For Public Release

COMMENTS:
	We will continue to call out such practices by the PRC and reach out to like-m undermine the rules-based international ord	inded and other countries to ensure that China's efforts to