

Public Summary of Evidence – Person C

Person C was interviewed on a confidential basis by Commission Counsel. Following that interview, Commission Counsel prepared a summary of that interview. Person C reviewed the summary for accuracy. Person C affirmed an affidavit whereby they adopted the contents of the interview summary as part of their evidence before the Commission.

This summary discloses the evidence contained within the interview summary that, in the opinion of the Commissioner and Person C would not be injurious to Person C. The confidential interview summary indicates for all information provided by Person C whether the information is based on first-hand personal knowledge, or information and belief. The information and events described in the interview summary occurred over many years.

Section 1

Person C provided some personal and professional background information. This information served to contextualize the subsequent sections.

Section 2

Person C provided some additional professional and employment history. In this section, Person C also described ties between private individuals and PRC officials in Canada.

Section 3

Person C described a suspected attempt by an individual with ties to (a) PRC official(s) in Canada to generate compromising information.

Section 4

Person C described an instance of (a) PRC consular official(s) providing support to a candidate for office by leveraging local community associations. The information contained in this section indicates the level of government at which this occurred.

Section 5

Person C described the relationship between a politician and (a) PRC consular official(s), as well as a particular instance in that relationship. The information contained in this section indicates the level of government at which this occurred.