Ottawa, Ontario

--- Upon commencing on Wednesday, April 3, 2024 at 9:32 a.m.

THE REGISTRAR: Order, please.

This sitting of the Foreign Interference Commission is now in session. Commissioner Hogue is presiding.

The time is 9:32 a.m.

COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Good morning, everyone. Welcome, Mr. O'Toole.

HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Good morning.

COMMISSIONER HOGUE: So I understand it's Me Rodriguez this morning.

MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Good morning, Mr. O'Toole.

HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Good morning.

MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: If we can have the witness sworn, please.

THE REGISTRAR: Good morning, Mr. O'Toole. May I please have your full name for the record, and spell your last name, please.

HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Erin Michael O'Toole, O apostrophe, T-O-O-L-E.

--- HON. ERIN O'TOOLE, Sworn:

--- EXAMINATION IN-CHIEF BY MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ:

MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Good morning again, Mr. O'Toole. As you know, I'm Natalia Rodriguez, Commission Counsel.

And we're going to start with some

1 preliminary matters. On February 23rd, 2024, you had an 2 interview with Commission Counsel, and a follow-up interview 3 on March 1st, 2024. Is that right?

4 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: That's correct.

5 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And an interview
6 summary was generated from that -- from those interviews; is 7 that right?

8 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Correct.

9 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Ms. Rodriguez, can you 10 just speak a bit louder?

11 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Oh, sure.

12 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Or closer to the mic.

13 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Yes.

14 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Thank you.

15 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: All right, just 16 checking.

17 Okay. So I will call up the witness summary
18 at WIT 24.EN.

19 --- EXHIBIT No. WIT 24.EN:

20 Stage 1 Interview Summary: Erin

21 O'Toole

22 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And Mr. O'Toole, what 23 you're seeing there is the interview summary that was 24 generated from your interviews with Commission Counsel. Is 25 that right?

26 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Yes.

27 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And you've reviewed 28 the summary for accuracy?

1 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: I have.

2 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And do you have any 3 corrections, additions, or deletions to make at this time?

4 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: I do not.

5 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And do you adopt the 6 contents of this witness summary as part of your evidence 7 before the Commission today?

8 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Yes, I do.

9 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Great. So we'll have 10 that entered into evidence. And for the record, a French 11 translation of the summary is at WIT 24.FR.

12 --- EXHIBIT No. WIT 24.FR:

13 Résumé d'entrevue de l'étape 1 : Erin
14 O'Toole

15 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Now, just to go over 16 a little bit of your background. I understand you were a 17 Conservative Member of Parliament for Durham from 2012 to 18 2023. Is that right?

19 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: That's correct.

20 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And you served as 21 party leader and leader of the official opposition from 2020 22 to 2022. Is that right?

23 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Yes.

24 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And under Prime 25 Minister Harper, you were Minister of Veterans Affairs.

26 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: I was.

27 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And you were named 28 Foreign Affairs Critic in the Conservative Shadow Cabinet of 1 party leader Andrew Scheer.

2 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: I was, yes.

3 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Now, can you tell us 4 a little bit about your background before politics, and how 5 that may have shaped your views as a politician?

6 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Well, my time in the 7 military shaped my views on national security, on foreign 8 affairs, defence. These issues, as far back as the early 9 nineties, we were looking at the NATO and NORAD alliances 10 that Canada had, but also potential flashpoints in the 11 future, including at the Taiwan Strait. Things like this I 12 was learning about as a young officer cadet at the Royal 13 Military College. And so security issues and the need to be 14 prudent and serious, with respect to influencing these sorts 15 of things, we're all cultivated during my time as an officer 16 in the Canadian Armed Forces, and so that coloured my time in 17 politics. I'm a lawyer as well, so you know, that background 18 was also very important to me as an MP on these issues of 19 national security.

20 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Thank you. Now, I
21 understand you received a briefing by CSIS concerning foreign 22 interference on May 26, 2023, in which you received 23 classified information. Is that right?

24 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: That's correct.

25 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Now, I'm going to 26 take you to a document, CAN.DOC 22.

27 --- EXHIBIT No. CAN.DOC 22:

28 Summary information on briefing to

1 Erin O'Toole

2 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And this is entitled 3 Commission Request for Summary Information On Briefing To 4 Mr., or to Erin O'Toole, rather.

5 And so you've -- you understand that the 6 Commission requested from CSIS an unclassified summary of the 7 briefing that you received in May of 2023?

8 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Yes.

9 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And this is a summary 10 that was generated. Have you had a chance to review this 11 summary?

12 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: I have.

13 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And now, I would ask 14 that you not disclose any of the classified information you 15 received in this briefing, but in general terms, does this 16 summary accord with the general topics and information that 17 you were provided with in that briefing? Without getting 18 into specifics, obviously.

19 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: It does. In a very 20 general way, it touches on themes. I also, in one of my 21 final speeches in the House of Commons, referenced my 22 briefing in a very careful way that I wasn't revealing any 23 intelligence information or information that would reveal 24 sources to ensure that on the public record we could have 25 some sharing with the public because I think transparency is 26 important.

27 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Thank you. And 28 again, without giving any details of the content of that

1 briefing, did you find the briefing to be useful in the sense 2 that you were given information that you could put into 3 action or you could do something with in order to better 4 protect yourself from foreign interference?

5 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: I would have appreciated 6 the briefing a few years earlier, but yes, it was very 7 helpful in understanding what was happening.

8 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Thank you. So moving 9 now to the 2019 election. I understand that your primary 10 role in that election was one of candidate. Is that right?

11 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: Yes, and in Ontario I did 12 help a range of other candidates as kind of a prominent 13 member of caucus, but I didn't have any national tour 14 responsibilities as I had had in 2015.

15 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. So you weren't 16 part of the national campaign in 2019.

17 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: I was not.

18 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. And were you 19 made aware of concerns in your role as candidate and 20 assisting other candidates, as you said, regarding foreign 21 interference during that election in 2019?

22 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: I wasn't aware of any 23 concerns in that election. As I've said in my statement, the 24 leadership that predated the 2019 election, I did see for the 25 first time the influence of platforms like WeChat and the 26 ability to organize cultural communities based on specific 27 social media channels like WeChat.

28 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. Thank you.

1 And I'm being advised just for the sake of 2 the translators that both of us need to speak a little bit 3 more slowly in order to help them in their work.

4 Thank you.

5 And were you aware of any concerns regarding 6 foreign interference prior to the 2021 election any time 7 between 2019 and 2021?

8 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: Yes, in limited fashion.
9 Certainly the Chinese Ambassador made negative comments
10 towards the Conservative opposition and myself, but in terms 11 of seeing any orchestrated foreign interference, that was not 12 really on our radar prior to the election.

13 We had taken pretty strong positions with 14 respect to the Uyghur genocide, with respect to the Two 15 Michaels, with respect to Belt Road initiative, a range of 16 policies that we thought were not in our national interest 17 that the Trudeau government was pursuing or supporting, but 18 we didn't see evidence of foreign interference. There was 19 just a sense that stronger positions with respect to China 20 was probably being tracked closely by China.

21 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And just to take you 22 back to 2019 for a second, were you aware of the security and 23 intelligence threats to Elections Task Force, which we've 24 been calling the SITE Task Force, in 2019 and were you aware 25 of who the representative from the Conservative Party would 26 have been to that entity?

27 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: I was not aware of who 28 our representative was and I only knew that a task force to 1 look at the issue was formed. I did not know its structure, 2 nor did we get any briefings or background information on it.

3 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. So you knew of 4 the existence, but nothing more than that. Is that fair?

5 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: That's correct.

6 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. So I want to 7 take you now to the 2021 election, and maybe you can tell us 8 a little bit about the discourse that was happening in 9 Parliament before it ended for the summer in 2021, some of 10 the issues that dominated the debate that, in your view, may 11 be relevant to the issues that we're dealing with today.

12 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Certainly.

13 I referenced the genocide towards the Uyghur, 14 Muslim and Turk populations in China. We had taken a very 15 careful and deliberate approach to bringing the issue and the 16 vote to declare it a genocide. I had waited until I saw 17 evidence through both U.S. sources and UK sources that made 18 me satisfied that we weren't being cavalier with the use of 19 the term "genocide", and I think discourse today is far too 20 cavalier with very, very important terms like that.

21 So that drew a lot of attention both in 22 Canada and internationally. We were the second -- the first 23 Parliament, the first assembly after the United States to 24 make such a declaration. And we knew that there was negative 25 commentary in China as a result of that.

26 But right before the election was the 27 Winnipeg lab situation which we had very, very serious 28 concerns with and, quite frankly, the Trudeau government's

1 handling of that entire episode was quite troubling. A 2 senior civil servant was called to the bar of the House of 3 Commons, something not done in a century. They were taking 4 the Speaker of the House of Commons to Court in order to not 5 comply with the Speaker's direction. So very, very 6 concerning right on the eve of the election.

7 So the Winnipeg lab scandal, as we called it 8 at the time, was probably the most pressing issue in the 9 House of Commons before the summer break and, of course, 10 there was not supposed to be an election that summer.
11 Parliament had voted to say that the will of Parliament was 12 that there should be an election only after COVID, the crisis 13 was over.

14 So the Winnipeg lab controversy came just 15 before the election.

16 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. Thank you.

17 And I understand some Conservative MPs in 18 Parliament raised issues, concerns related to China-related 19 issues. And can you tell us a bit about what the response 20 was when these issues were raised in Parliament?

21 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: Yes. You know, I should 22 add, too, that the Private Members Bill from MP Kenny Chiu in 23 terms of a foreign agent registry was also generating some 24 headlines and some debate in the House of Commons.

25 The troubling thing we found was that -- and 26 I remember this is the case on several occasions in the House
27 in my questioning of the Prime Minister is that the spectre 28 of any questions on the Winnipeg lab or an issue like that

1 was somehow contributing to anti-Asian discrimination or 2 anti-Asian hate in the pandemic. I thought those responses 3 were unfair at the time.

4 And then in the runup to the election, those 5 responses inadvertently echoed propaganda from China with 6 respect to any questions about the origin of COVID-19 or any 7 questions about the -- our biological laboratory in Winnipeg 8 were somehow fomenting hate and discrimination. And that was 9 not only wrong and unfair, it set a bad tone heading into the 10 election.

11 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: So what effect, if 12 any, do you think that those comments in Parliament may have 13 had? What's the connection that you're making there between 14 those comments and then the subsequent messaging that was 15 being circulated during the election?

16 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Well, certainly any time, 17 you know, the Prime Minister or Ministers of the government 18 use the term "racism" or "discrimination", there's an 19 intention to create chill so that we wouldn't ask questions.
20 We were being very, very careful about how we talked about 21 these issues during a public health emergency, COVID-19.

22 My concern now, particularly in retrospect,
23 is that approach the government was taking complemented 24 indirectly narratives that were being advanced by, you know, 25 China and its agents in Canada. And I think in the election, 26 we saw that explode into a campaign of misinformation on 27 social media, but also in in-person miscommunication to 28 intimidate voters, to mislead voters with respect to me, with

1 respect to certain candidates, and to our policies in 2 general. And I think it was an accidental connection, but it 3 was something that, looking back, set the tone before the 4 election. And it should have been something looked at a 5 little closer by SITE, in my view.

6 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Right. And by SITE, 7 meaning the SITE Task Force.

8 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Yes.

9 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: So turning now to the 10 campaign, I understand that in 2021, you were obviously the 11 leader of the official opposition and so you were very much 12 involved in the national campaign. And I understand the 13 national campaign was using something called predictive 14 modelling instead of polling data for the projections.

15 Can you tell us a little bit about your 16 understanding of what the difference is between predictive 17 modelling and polling?

18 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: The predictive modelling
19 really identifies groups of individuals, groups of Canadians, 20 and then generally, if you really do the data and the 21 research to understand those groups, you can be predictive of 22 their reaction to certain questions or how they might vote or 23 behave on certain issues.

24 We used it very extensively to prepare for 25 the election and to see how to best communicate our policies.

26 The Conservative Party -- I wanted to 27 modernize and use the same tools that the Liberal Party under 28 Mr. Trudeau had adopted, and they had followed the lead of 1 what the Obama campaign had done on behavioural predictive 2 modelling. Once you created the model, it was, in my 3 experience in the runup to the election and during the 4 election, extremely accurate and much more accurate than 5 polling because you saw those behaviours and those attitudes 6 in those voting blocks over time.

7 So we were -- we were intensely focused on 8 four groups within this model of I think eight or nine groups 9 that we felt if we did well enough with those four that were 10 open to our message, we could win the election.

11 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: So I want to take you 12 now to a document, EOT 4.

13 --- EXHIBIT No. EOT 4:

14 Annex B to Briefing Package -
15 Election Interference Review

16 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And if we can scroll 17 down to the second page? Okay. So this is a document that 18 you produced.

19 And if we go to page three of that? Right.

20 So it says -- it's dated August 16, 2021 and 21 it says "CPC model". Is this an example of the modeling -- 22 the output of what that modeling would have generated?

23 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: Yes. In terms of the 24 results aggregate, yes.

25 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. Thank you.
26 And who produced this chart or this information that we see 27 here?

28 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: It would have been my

1 campaign team, which included Dan Robertson was one of our 2 leads on creating and working with the modelers. We went to 3 a firm based out of the United Kingdom for this type of 4 specialized work. Although now I see it's -- it has come to 5 Canada.

6 So Dan Robertson, Justin Bumstead, a number 7 of people that were kind of my modeling and my numbers 8 people.

9 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: M'hm. And I
10 understand that you provided this modeling information to the 11 independent Special Rapporteur David Johnston. Is that 12 right?

13 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: I did. I wanted to give 14 him some of the context for why, on election night, we were 15 very startled by a handful of ridings that fell completely 16 outside of the ranges for the model.

17 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Right. And in fact, 18 you did put a package together that included not just this 19 information, but some memoranda as well that had been 20 prepared for you and for the party related to what you say 21 were irregularities in certain ridings? Is that right?

22 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Yes. I gave Mr. Johnston
23 basically the same package that my team had given to the SITE 24 Taskforce after the election. We were very forthright in 25 sharing what limited information we had, because we didn't go 26 into the campaign thinking that we needed to create an 27 intelligence dossier on what we saw in the field. But as 28 instances of interference were being flagged by the

1 campaigns, my campaign team said, "Well, let's raise this 2 with the SITE panel, but near the end, let's try and keep 3 track of some of this information that our organizers are 4 seeing."

5 I wish now that we'd had a much more careful 6 approach and had documented everything, but we shared with 7 the SITE Taskforce after the election what we did assemble, 8 and I shared all of the information I still had and could 9 share, I shared with Mr. Johnston.

10 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. So we'll go to 11 that now. It's EOT 1_R. If we go to the second page? Okay.
12 That's great right there.

13 --- EXHIBIT No. EOT 1 R:

14 Briefing Package - Election
15 Interference Review

16 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: So this is the 17 briefing package that you prepared for the Special 18 Rapporteur, and it looks like it was prepared by your office, 19 and it's dated May 17, 2023. Is that right?

20 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: Yes. And I gave Mr.
21 Johnston and Ms. Block copies when they arrived. And my deep 22 concern with the Special Rapporteur was I was giving him this 23 package, and later in the meeting, he told me that his 24 interim report was already in translation. So you could see 25 how I did not feel the Special Rapporteur took the process 26 seriously when an evidentiary package that my office took 27 time to prepare was a supplement to what they had already 28 sent off as a report. I did not respond well to that.

1 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: So we'll go to page 4 2 of this document just to see some of the information that was 3 included in here.

4 So this is a memo. It's dated May 17, 2023.
5 It's prepared by Justin Bumstead, who you referenced earlier.

6 And if we go to page 10?

7 This is another memo. It's to Jim Ross. And 8 it's from Sadiq Valliani. And again, it's a memo, the 9 subject line "Foreign Interference in our Election" and it's 10 dated three days after the election, September 24th, 2021.
11 Maybe four days.

12 And if we go to page 14?

13 This is the modeling that we saw earlier.
14 And we'll look at this a little more closely in a little bit.

15 So we can take that down now.

16 So what was your understanding then, based on 17 the modeling, on election day, of where the Conservatives 18 would end up in terms of seats that day?

19 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Yeah, reliving those last 20 few days of the campaign. Our -- we went from winning the 21 seat count a week before the election, with a small modest 22 minority, to, on election day, losing the seat count and 23 still winning the popular vote. We saw the vote changing 24 largely on the vaccine and the vaccine mandate issue.

25 But on election night, when we knew we were 26 going to lose, my campaign manager had said, "Our models and 27 how the vote goes, you should end up with about 127/128 28 seats, which will be a historic level for opposition." And

1 when you consider it was a pandemic election, we were largely 2 on the wrong side of public opinion on the vaccine mandate
3 issue, which is, in my view, why the Prime Minister called 4 the election. That was being briefed to me to say, "Calm 5 down. You did okay. You'll be able to live to fight another 6 day and stay on as leader."

7 So I went in that night feeling, "Okay.
8 We're going to end up with 127/128 seats." And as returns 9 were coming in, that night, not that I asked for any detail, 10 but that night, there was already clear indication that a 11 number of ridings were vastly outside of our modeling window 12 and the ridings were the same ridings that we had been 13 complaining about with respect to foreign interference.

14 We'd never connected the two, and even months 15 after when I spoke about ranges, I always used to say, you 16 know, between five and nine, six and nine, I would never be 17 precise. But ---

18 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Sorry, in terms of 19 five and nine, in terms of what?

20 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: Five to nine seats that I 21 think were possibly changed as a result of foreign 22 interference. Narrower margin seats where we had large 23 numbers of people not voting and suspicions about voter 24 suppression in those specific seats.

25 Certainly nowhere near enough to change the 26 results of the election, but for people in those seats, if 27 they were undergoing intimidation or suppression measures, 28 their democratic rights were being trampled on by foreign

1 actors.

2 So certainly it was serious. And that's how 3 I formulated that rough view in my mind, based on the 4 modeling and from our anecdotal reports from the ground in 5 the campaign about various forms of foreign interference.

6 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And is that your view 7 today? That six to nine ridings were lost due to foreign 8 interference in 2021?

9 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: I believe it's in that 10 range, yes.

11 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. Thank you.
12 Now, you believe that the Conservative Party became a target 13 for the PRC in 2021 in the election? Is that right?

14 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: Yes.

15 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And in your view, 16 what made the Conservative Party a target for the PRC?

17 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: I believe our policies 18 where were more in line with allies like the United States 19 that were starting to take more aggressive trade positions 20 with respect to the export of Chinese steel and aluminum, 21 things like that, our positions on human rights issues, the 22 Uyghurs in particular, but also Hong Kong and Tibet. Our 23 positions were much stronger, and I believe reflected our 24 values and interests as a country better than the policies of 25 Mr. Trudeau.

26 The Trudeau Government was viewed by our 27 allies, and I would hear this regularly from diplomats, we 28 were seen as being offside with respect to a very ambitious

1 agenda with China at a time that particularly the Five Eyes 2 Allies were being far more cautious with respect to China.

3 So I think this recognition that had the 4 Conservatives won, and if I was Prime Minister, we would have 5 had a much more wide-eyed view and realistic view from a 6 foreign policy perspective on China, that drove the interest 7 for Beijing, certainly that status quo, that the Liberal 8 Government was probably preferrable in their view to a change 9 in government to Conservatives, given the vast difference in 10 our policy positions.

11 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And so just to 12 clarify, the Uyghur Motion was brought by Mr. Chong, who is a 13 member of the Conservative caucus, and the Foreign Agent
14 Registry was also a Conservative Party member's -- member's 15 bill; is that right?

16 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Yes, the Foreign Agent 17 Registry, which other allies like the United States and 18 Australia use such a registry in a similar way to a lobbying 19 registry, that people have an obligation to register. That 20 was Kenny Chiu's private member's bill. Michael Chong was 21 the shadow minister for Foreign Affairs, so the issue on 22 recognizing that the weaker genocide was under his mandate.
23 And I would add that when I appointed Michael to become the 24 shadow minister for Foreign Affairs, at the speech where I 25 unveiled the caucus positions, I talked about how proud I was 26 that someone whose father immigrated to Canada from Hong 27 Kong, Hong Kong having been defended by Canadian soldiers 28 during World War II, it was truly the Canadian story that he

1 could then take strong positions in Canada's interest and 2 come from a diaspora community of China. I think that shows 3 our country at its best and Michael continues to do a great 4 job.

5 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: The 2021 CPC
6 platform, the Conservative Party platform for 2021 did 7 include numerous references to China. You accept that;
8 right?

9 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: Yes.

10 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And it did take quite 11 a hard stance against China's, it could be argued some would 12 say?

13 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: I wouldn't say against 14 anything. It was an expression of our economic interest as a 15 country and of our values as a country on issues like the 16 treatment of the weaker population on issues related to Hong 17 Kong or Tibet. As I said, I think -- and I think most of our 18 allies thought at the time, the current government was a 19 little offside on these issues. We were trying to course 20 correct the country. It was not intended to be anti 21 anything. It was intended to be a reflection of what our 22 foreign policy should be.

23 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: So I'll take you to 24 that now. It's EOT 12.

25 --- EXHIBIT No. EOT 12:

26 Secure the Future Magazine - Summer
27 2021

28 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And this is the 2021

1 platform. And so I'll just take you to page 54 of this 2 document. If we go down? Okay. So under number four there 3 you can see "Standing Up to China's Aggression". And there's 4 a section there on China. And it's been reported, and I have 5 confirmed, that there's 31 mentions of China in this 6 platform. I'm sure you've heard this reported before.

7 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Yeah, the -- how the 8 western world addresses the rise of China, the positives and 9 negatives from that is the foreign policy challenge of our 10 day, so it was quite comprehensive, but you do notice, right 11 at the beginning we say our quarrel is not with the people of 12 China and we talked about the incredible contributions China 13 has made to the world. We always tried to make sure that 14 that was part of our narrative, so that people could see our 15 concerns were interest and values based, not anti anything.
16 It was an expression of what we think we should be as a 17 country.

18 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: So when you said -- 19 when it says China's aggression there, what were you 20 referencing? What was the platform referencing?

21 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Well, certainly, 22 treatment of minorities in China is a very concerning 23 aggression towards religious groups, and we list most of them
24 there, or groups like Hong Kongers, conduct in the South
25 China Sea as well, there's lots of tensions there, the Taiwan 26 Strait. We thought that during the -- particularly during 27 the pandemic when Taiwan was giving us N95 masks and other 28 things, we have to have strong relations with Taiwan,

1 recognizing their democratic rights and have a mature 2 approach to that relationship, which is hard when China was 3 being quite aggressive with respect to Taiwan.

4 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: So given the emphasis 5 that appears to be in the platform and the other issues that 6 you mentioned with respect to the motion for the Uyghur 7 genocide and the foreign registry, what is your response to 8 the suggestion that, you know, perhaps the Conservatives lost 9 in ridings with high concentration of Chinese Canadians not 10 because of foreign interference but because of the platform 11 and how that position with respect to China may have been 12 viewed in those communities?

13 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Well, many of these 14 positions were positions that we previously had. You know, 15 the support for Hong Kong, you know, Conservative MPs have 16 been meeting and advocating for Falun Gong practitioners and 17 Tibetans going back to my time in the Harper government. So 18 some of these policies were almost a reassertion of our 19 foreign policy from the Harper government era, and we won 20 those impacted seats quite handily, even in 2015 when Alice 21 Wong held onto her seat. So particularly waves of 22 immigration from China that were Hong Kongers, or were folks 23 that were seeking religious freedom and things like this, 24 there was a recognition that it was positive to have concerns 25 with some of the positions of congress China. And that had 26 never been a problem until more recent years, and I think 27 there's been a bit more of an aggressive foreign policy 28 approach taken by China.

1 It's also why I think this inquiry is so 2 important because it is hard to determine how much foreign 3 interference will impact one person's voter intent. If one 4 person is intimidated in this country with respect to 5 exercising their democratic rights, that is concerning. The 6 results of the election itself and how many seats are in the 7 House of Commons, that's very important as well, but we 8 shouldn't look past ridings that could be impacted. And I 9 think in recent years there's been a ramping up of foreign 10 interference operations. And that's why I think -- I don't 11 think some of those seats were turned because we had a more 12 traditional or a more aggressive foreign policy posture with 13 respect to China. I think a lot of people did not vote 14 because they were intimidated.

15 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: So you believe then, 16 just to kind of summarize, that this was not -- that the 17 ridings that were lost in those areas where the modelling was 18 off was not due to some grassroots kind of Chinese community 19 distaste perhaps for the platform. It was instances of 20 foreign interference perpetrated by the PRC?

21 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: I think that's a fair 22 summary. And my position prior to being leader was the 23 shadow minister for Foreign Affairs, so I had been talking 24 about many of these policies for many years, several years
25 before I became leader, and there had never been a ground 26 swell of concern. In fact, in many cases, the Chinese 27 Canadian community wanted to make sure that the plight of the 28 Uyghurs, Hong Kong, or other things were highlighted. And

1 Kenny Chiu, a very prominent voice on these issues, was 2 elected for the first time in 2019. So I think that's how I 3 form my opinion on this, that the foreign interference was 4 much more determinative than a policy platform that had 30 5 references to China in it.

6 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: So I'll take you now 7 to some of the documents we now have on the government side 8 on some of these issues. CAN-5824. And so this is dated 9 September 13, 2021, so it would be a week before the 10 election. It's a SITE threat assessment. It's called "SITE 11 Task Force Update on Foreign Interference Threats to Canadian 12 Democratic Institutions 2021". So under the section 13 "Information Environment", it says there,

14 "RRM Canada has observed what may be 15 a Chinese communist party information 16 operation that aims to discourage 17 voters from voting for the 18 Conservative Party of Canada." (As 19 read)

20 And I understand you've now had a chance to 21 see this document. You did not see it at the time ---

22 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: No.

23 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: --- is my 24 understanding?

25 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: No.

26 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Were you ever -- were 27 you made aware at the time -- so this is again to situate us 28 in time, a week before the election that RRM Canada, which is

1 a Rapid Response Mechanism Canada had made this observation.

2 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: No, this was not raised 3 to our attention. And in fact, we were raising instances of 4 foreign interference that we witnessed, and the SITE 5 Committee tended to downplay them, and we were given the 6 impression that there were no concerns about foreign 7 interference, which is why these documents now are -- 8 contradict that.

9 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And so when you say, 10 "tended to downplay them", what do you mean by that?

11 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: Well, I appointed one of 12 my most trusted and accomplished friends to be my designate, 13 Mr. Soliman, and when he was briefed at the outset, after 14 having gotten security clearance to participate in the task 15 force work, he said it started off with a briefing that there 16 were no real problems from 2019, and they didn't expect any 17 serious problems in '21, was how that task force started.

18 It -- we were kind of lulled into a sense of 19 complacency, that everything should be fine, there was no -- 20 there were no problems in 2019. We now know that not to be 21 the case. We now know from the Globe and Mail reporting, and 22 Sam Cooper, that there were issues in 2019 of financing and 23 other things.

24 So our impression is that the SITE process 25 was not as complete, not as professional, and not as 26 transparent as it should have been when there were reports by 27 this and CSIS-generated intelligence warning of attempts to 28 interfere.

1 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: So I'm going to turn 2 now to one of the RRM Canada daily briefs for the period of 3 time during the campaign.

4 It's at CAN 124. And -- thank you, that's 5 good.

6 --- EXHIBIT No. CAN 124:

7 RRM Canada Daily Brief - September
8 12, 2021

9 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And if you look at 10 where it says, "Scan performed", or sorry, "Scan covers", 11 rather, it looks like it covers the time period between 12 September 10 and September 12, 2021, so about 10 days before 13 the election. And the last bullet point there:

14 "A Global Times WeChat article that 15 suggested [that] CPC 'almost wants to 16 break diplomatic relations with 17 China' is now being actively shared 18 among Canadian WeChat news accounts.
19 The Canadian versions resemble the 20 Global Times article in format and 21 tone, and question whether Canadians 22 of Chinese heritage should vote for 23 the CPC."

24 So again, this is talking about a Global 25 Times article that seems to be spreading some misinformation 26 about the CPC campaign.

27 Did you see this article that's being 28 referenced here at the time?

1 13, 2021

2 --- EXHIBIT No. CAN 130:

3 RRM Canada Daily Brief - September

4 14, 2021

5 --- EXHIBIT No. CAN 132:

6 RRM Canada Daily Brief - September

7 15, 2021

8 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And you have seen 9 these; correct?

10 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Yes.

11 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: They cover the period
12 from September 13 to September 15, 2021, and they reference 13 different articles from Chinese state media taking an 14 interest in the perceived China policies in the Conservative 15 Party, an embassy spokesperson quoting some CPC related 16 issues, saying that "The political party leaders have made 17 unwarranted attacks on China's human rights", and others.

18 So you've had a chance ---

19 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Ms. Rodriguez, can we go 20 back to the document, please? I would just to see the origin 21 of the document.

22 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Oh, sure. I wasn't 23 going to put those up in the interest of time, but I can.

24 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: No, but just the one 25 that we looked to ---

26 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: That we looked at; 27 124. So the last bullet point there.

28 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Okay. Thank you.

1 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And so the three 2 other dailies also talk about misinformation being circulated 3 in Chinese state media, and in Canadian media, Chinese 4 language media.

5 And so my question to you is you've had a 6 chance to review those. I've put the doc IDs on the record.
7 Was any of that information conveyed to you by any official 8 within the government?

9 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: No, it was not.

10 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And did anybody let 11 you know that RRM Canada was flagging or had flagged this 12 kind of online content?

13 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: No, we were not informed 14 of that. And around the same time, because these documents 15 are dated, our participant, Mr. Soliman, and my chief of 16 staff, Tausha Michaud, were raising reports we were getting 17 from the field, so from various ridings in British Columbia 18 and in Ontario. These type of reports we were sharing and 19 getting no communication the other way. Clearly, they knew 20 some of the instances we were reporting were actually 21 occurring, but that was never confirmed to us in the campaign 22 ---

23 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. And ---

24 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: --- or after.

25 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And so to be clear, 26 during the campaign some candidates and some ridings and some 27 campaign staff saw disinformation circulated on social media
28 regarding the Conservative Party, is that right, and you

1 specifically as leader as well?

2 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Yes. Yes.

3 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And ---

4 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: And in some cases in 5 person. Social media, and in some cases of in-person 6 advertising and voters' intimidation.

7 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. And so those 8 concerns were then raised during the campaign period, so 9 during the writ period, to SITE through Mr. Solomon and 10 Ms. Michaud; is that correct?

11 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: That's correct, and as I 12 said, we weren't actively preparing a dossier during the 13 campaign, we did when it concluded because we wanted the 14 cases looked into, but we were reporting anecdotal instances 15 throughout the campaign.

16 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And I understand you 17 were also hearing from certain candidates about issues that 18 they were receiving during their campaigns. Can you tell us 19 a little bit about who you were sharing concerns from and 20 what those concerns were?

21 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Yes. The one I remember 22 the most is Kenny Chiu. The level and volume and tone of the 23 misinformation towards Mr. Chiu was horrendous, and he was 24 fearful for his own wellbeing and that of his family. And it 25 -- it was a personal attack, as I said, of a racially 26 motivated nature, suggesting that he was a race traitor and 27 that the simple thing of a foreign registry with some start 28 of a plan to really hinder the ability for Chinese Canadians

1 to visit family, to remain in family, it was.... So we 2 heard, and I heard directly from him during the campaign, a 3 little bit from the campaign of Mr. Bob Saroya in Ontario, 4 and I think that wasn't through Bob but through one of his 5 campaign workers. But we -- some of our organisers were on 6 WeChat and also saw instances.

7 So we knew it was happening, we just weren't 8 able to get a sense that the SITE and the government knew it 9 was happening. And there was no -- there was no desire to 10 put out a public warning about misinformation, and that's 11 what I think needed to happen. Because I was informed in the 12 run up to the campaign that there are 600,000 WeChat account 13 users in British Columbia alone. And these are Canadians 14 that don't want the evening news, and don't read the Globe
15 and Mail or the National Post. So they're getting almost all 16 of their information from channels that cannot be trusted.

17 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: So you mentioned 18 right now about wanting to give a warning. Can you expand on 19 that notion?

20 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: We wanted a caution, a 21 public notice to voters to be wary of information that they 22 were obtaining from social media, particularly foreign 23 controlled, foreign language social media. The SITE process 24 has a threshold and, you know, was the threshold met for 25 there to be some notice? We believe there was.

26 At times I thought about making some sort of 27 statement, but I was fearful of that being perceived, or 28 opponents in the campaign using that as some sort of wedge in

1 a narrative that we were being discriminatory.

2 So the -- in my view, the process failed in 3 this case, because a notice would have been helpful to 4 Canadians that were being targeted, because these sites, with 5 algorithms that are controlled by foreign governments, those 6 are the people that are vulnerable and that are at risk, and 7 that I think were failed by our system.

8 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: So to be clear, did 9 you request that a warning be issued or was it your 10 expectation that one would be issued?

11 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: It was our expectation 12 that one would be issued because it was in the sort of 13 originating documents for the taskforce itself.

14 It was only afterwards, in the Rosenberg 15 Report that I saw a discussion that they did not feel the 16 threshold was met. But of course, my views on the Rosenberg 17 Report was that it was not a proper report. But it was 18 available to be used if there was evidence of misinformation.
19 We now know there was evidence of misinformation, but there 20 was no caution -- or no notice, no warning given.

21 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. And you
22 considered doing that yourself. Why didn't you, in the end?

23 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: I remember the last time
24 I was in British Columbia during the campaign, I thought 25 about it, because I was hearing from some of our organizers 26 saying, "We've got to do something about this. This is out 27 of control. I heard from Kenny and his team just how 28 targeted and how everyone was tense." Like, people were

1 fearful with the amount of misinformation in the Richmond 2 seats.

3 But our -- we were doing well at that point 4 in the campaign, and so, you know, you're consciously -- they 5 say in politics, don't get off message. So I would have 6 thought that that might have seemed a little bit off message.
7 And it might have contributed, if I started talking about 8 foreign interference from China, portrayals of me being 9 obsessed with China and mentioning 31 times in the platform, 10 these sort of narratives, I might have been accidentally 11 reinforcing that, which is why I think some of these 12 safeguards for our system need to be out of the hands of 13 politicians who are in the midst of a campaign. We need 14 structural, and professional, and independent impartial 15 organizations to determine safeguards to protect people's 16 franchise.

17 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: So I'll take you to a 18 document, CAN3781. So this one's -- this is a Security and 19 Intelligence Threats to Election Taskforce summary. It's 20 dated September -- December 17, 2021. And so this is now 21 some months after the election. And if we go to the "Summary 22 of Key Observations" at the bottom there, the first bullet -- 23 sorry, just up a bit more. Thank you. It says:

24 "The People's Republic of China [...]
25 sought to clandestinely and 26 deceptively influence Canada's 2021
27 federal election."

28 So just to stop you there, was this something

1 that after the election was conveyed to you?

2 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: No.

3 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And the next bullet 4 point says:

5 "SITE [Taskforce] also observed 6 online/media activities aimed at 7 discouraging Canadians, particularly 8 of Chinese heritage, from supporting 9 the Conservative Party of Canada [...], 10 party leader Erin O'Toole, and 11 particularly former Stevenston-12 Richmond East candidate Kenny Chiu
13 [in] GE44."

14 And then it goes on to say that they have:

15 "...observed indicators of potential
16 coordination between various Canada-
17 based Chinese language news outlets
18 as well as PRC and CCP news outlets."

19 So again, was this ever confirmed to you, 20 relayed to you, at any time during your time as leader, which 21 was until February of 2022?

22 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: No. And in fact, as I 23 mentioned earlier, we were always -- these issues were always 24 downplayed, essentially, when we raised them with the SITE 25 Taskforce. And you know, these conclusions so quickly after 26 the election show that some people within intelligence and 27 within government knew what we were raising were valid and 28 real issues and shows why we're here today.

1 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Right. And so if I 2 understand your evidence earlier, you believe, or it's your 3 understanding, that the party lost some seats in 2021 due to 4 foreign interference? Is that right?

5 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: It's my view ---

6 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Yes.

7 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: --- that a certain number 8 of seats were lost. Yes.

9 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: But it is not your 10 view that the election was lost by the Conservative Party due 11 to foreign interference? Is that fair?

12 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: That is fair. And I've 13 always stated that as well.

14 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. And so what 15 impact, if any, do you consider that foreign interference had 16 with respect to your ouster as leader of the Conservative 17 Party?

18 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Well the small number of 19 seats would not have impacted the minority government that 20 Canada has right now. But the difference of two, three, five 21 seats, may have allowed me more of a moral justification to 22 remain as leader. There were other forces at play that may 23 not have done that. But when I fell two seats below the 24 threshold met in 2019, that became a very compelling 25 narrative. And in fact, a petition was started within a day 26 and a half of the election results, and the lower result than 27 2019 was raised, as was the turning away of Chinese Canadian 28 voters from me were raised as reasons for launching the 1 petition to force my removal as leader.

2 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Is there anything you
3 would have done differently in 2021, either as leader or as a 4 candidate, if you knew then what you know now?

5 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: I wish I could have a do 6 over. What I certainly would have done is made sure that we 7 had a much more sophisticated approach to WeChat in 8 particular, but Mandarin and Cantonese advertising 9 publications and campaign workers to counter what was a 10 deluge of misinformation against us. We were just not 11 prepared on that platform period. You know, our social media 12 strategies and our policy development was all still primarily 13 focused at traditional media and the what you might call 14 Silicone Valley platforms, like Facebook, and Twitter, and 15 things like this. We did not have the capacity to really 16 even understand what was going on on WeChat and some of the 17 other, and I would have prepared in a very significant way 18 had we known.

19 The other thing, I probably would have 20 demanded a public warning of some sort. Now that I've seen 21 both the reporting that, in many ways, led to this inquiry, 22 but even some of the limited disclosures here, folks within 23 the government knew that there was a level of foreign 24 interference occurring. And I think we owe it to the tens of 25 thousands, hundreds of thousands of Canadians that it was 26 targeted at, we owed it to them to warn them and to perhaps 27 give them alternative sources for unbiased news or the 28 ability to report instances of intimidation.

1 This is -- you know, one vote matters in our 2 democracy, and I think we have to do a little bit more, 3 particularly for the Chinese/Canadian population, but also 4 some other diaspora organizations to make sure that they're 5 not being intimidated to exercise their full rights here.

6 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Now, you have said, 7 and you've expressed the view that there was a failure of 8 SITE to meaningfully consider the evidence of foreign 9 interference that your party brought forward during the 10 election and after the election. Can you expand on that?

11 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: Yes. You know, the 12 reporting, particularly from the Global Mail that revealed 13 the financial and the problems in the 2019 election, in my 14 view, that should have been the starting point for the 2021
15 SITE Task Force and our participation in it, to say there 16 were some problems of foreign interference in the last 17 election; therefore, we have to do even more to safeguard our 18 parliamentary democracy this time. Actually, the opposite 19 happened. Our SITE Task Force, and my participants in it, 20 were given a sense that everything was fine, that there were 21 no significant problems from 2019, and that the -- we were 22 very confident in the fact that there would be minimal to no 23 foreign interference in the 2021 election. And as I said, as 24 we were raising issues, driving towards the need for public 25 notice and a caution of some, our concerns were always 26 downplayed by the task force. And, you know, Mr. Soliman has 27 been on the record with having that concern. I have that 28 concern. Even in the days after the election, we continued

1 to work with the SITE Task Force and with the Public Safety 2 and Intelligence officials on it, and we kept doing that 3 right up until Mr. Trudeau formed his cabinet and the 4 caretaker period ended, and then we were just cut off.

5 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: So I'll take you to 6 CAN 6739.

7 --- EXHIBIT No. CAN 6739:

8 Email September 30, 2021 - Fwd:
9 Follow up

10 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And just to pick up 11 on that notion that it was not just during the election but 12 afterwards. If we go to the bottom of the page, so it looks 13 like it's an email from Tausha Michaud and it's dated 14 September 30th, 2021, so this would be about a week after the 15 election, or 10 days rather.

16 "As promised, I've attached a 17 document that outlines some key
18 concerns and includes a dropbox link
19 to screenshots from WeChat."

20 And it looks like she sends it there to 21 somebody with a PCO email address. And if we go up, so we 22 have some individuals there, I believe, members of SITE.

23 "Howdy SITE friends,
24 Just received the attached from CPC
25 claiming it shows FI [foreign 26 interference] by PRC in 9 ridings 27 during the election.

28 As you know, we have been engaged by

1 CPC in an ongoing dialogue around
2 these issues. If you could take a
3 look, and let [blank] and [me] know 4 if there is anything in here it would 5 be appreciated."

6 And so this is what you were referring to,
7 that after the election, more information was provided to 8 SITE. Did you receive a formal response to this submission 9 that was done by Ms. Michaud on September 30th? Any -- a 10 letter, some sort of concluding report or anything of that 11 nature?

12 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: No, we did not. It was 13 generally a one-way communication. And as I said, we 14 prepared this impromptu dossier the last few weeks of the 15 campaign. I asked that we share that with the SITE process, 16 even after we lost, to make sure that we could look into 17 these things to safeguard our system.

18 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And I will conclude 19 with an opportunity to see if there's anything else that we 20 have not covered today that you would like to tell us about 21 the issues that we've been discussing, foreign interference 22 in the 2019 or 2021 elections.

23 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: I think my witness 24 statement goes into a few of the other experiences and 25 perspectives I have from my time in public life. The one 26 thing I would just add at the end is we did not raise any of 27 this on election night or in the weeks after because our 28 democratic result was clear, and it was more important to me

1 to safeguard our institutions and our democracy rather than 2 to express disappointment in the loss of a few seats. But as 3 I said, I've seen enough to know that the process last time
4 failed and failed a lot of Canadians, and so I really hope 5 that we look to safeguard these institutions in a non-6 partisan way, and I really hope this inquiry can do that 7 because I think this problem will only get worse, and so we 8 have to create the tools to really have a robust system that 9 values every single voter.

10 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Thank you, Mr.
11 O'Toole. Those are my questions for you.

12 Thank you, Commissioner.

13 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: I have one question for 14 you Mr. O'Toole. Am I right in understanding that actually 15 all the discussion that took place between any of your team 16 members about foreign interference were with SITE and no 17 direct -- no discussion took place with CSIS, or with the 18 Panel of Five, or with any other agencies, or it was always 19 with SITE and only with SITE?

20 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: I believe so, yes. My 21 challenge here is I had designates, I had two designates for 22 the SITE process, Mr. Soliman and Ms. Michaud, who would then 23 report to me and I would share things I was hearing. I 24 believe the SITE panel and task force did have a designate 25 from CSIS involved, and I do believe from time to time some 26 of the Group of Five may have been involved, but I don't know 27 how frequently. And I know that most of the calls and the 28 meetings were done with a group, and so you'd have to ask.

1 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Okay. But it would have 2 been through SITE?

3 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Through SITE, yes.

4 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Okay. And you were not 5 provided with any names, or phone numbers, or agency that you 6 may call upon if you were encountering any foreign 7 interference problems or nothing of that sort?

8 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: No.

9 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Thank you.

10 So we'll start the cross-examinations. The 11 first one on the list today, let me see, is -- I think it's 12 counsel for Michael Chong. Am I right, yes?

13 MR. GIB VAN ERT: Thank you, Commissioner.

14 --- CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. GIB VAN ERT:

15 MR. GIB VAN ERT: Good morning, Mr. O'Toole.

16 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Morning.

17 MR. GIB VAN ERT: You expressed the view in 18 your testimony this morning that you fear a lot of people 19 didn't vote in the 2021 election because they felt 20 intimidated. In evidence yesterday, the National Director of 21 the Liberal Party, Mr. Ishmael, addressed that point in 22 response to a question from counsel for the Human Rights 23 Coalition, one of the parties to these proceedings. And her 24 question was specifically around coercion of international 25 students. And Mr. Ishmael expressed the view, I think I'm 26 being fair to him, that that was not an urgent concern
27 because of the secrecy of the ballot. He emphasized ballot 28 secrecy. And I take it from your evidence that you don't

1 share Mr. Ishmael's confidence that ballot secrecy is enough 2 to encourage people to go to the polls without fear of 3 foreign coercion. Would you just tell the Commissioner what 4 your thoughts are about it? To what extent does the secrecy 5 of the ballot in this country give us some reason to feel 6 confident that foreign coercion of diaspora communities isn't 7 going to be a problem here?

8 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: It's a very good question 9 and something that I think needs to be well understood by the 10 inquiry. How someone votes is completely secret, and thank 11 goodness for that. That's an essential element of our 12 democratic right to vote. But whether you did vote in an 13 election is publicly available, and so the political parties 14 know whether a household has voted in all of the last four 15 general elections federally or in none of them. So sometimes 16 extra door knocking, extra literature can be directed towards 17 people that they know vote. And so if you don't know if 18 they're leaning your way or leaning to the other team's way, 19 you may not spend the extra time to try and communicate with 20 that voter. But if you know that they're a constant always 21 voting, parties spend time on them, that fact that whether 22 you've voted or not, I believe, is something that has caused 23 some concerns within diaspora communities, particularly the 24 Chinese Canadian community because I heard anecdotal reports 25 from some of our MPs that lost that voters said, "I didn't 26 think you needed my vote. I thought you were fine. I'm 27 sorry I didn't get out to vote." And in some cases, they 28 were told that people didn't want to be seen on the voters'

1 list if that riding stayed Conservative.

2 If people had family in China, business or 3 economic interests that depended on favourable treatment.
4 You know, I'm not sure that factored into how many people's 5 decision, but some voters, from what I've been told, thought 6 it was best to just not vote. That way if the vote -- if the 7 riding stayed conservative no one could suggest that they 8 were a part of voting for the Conservative.

9 So there is -- this fact that it is well
10 known if people vote or not, I don't think is well understood 11 because the secrecy is what everyone knows about voting. The 12 secrecy is just who you mark the X by, it's not whether you 13 showed up or not.

14 MR. GIB van ERT: Thank you. Also, in your 15 statement, and I think you repeated it in your oral evidence 16 this morning, you expressed concerns that the SITE but also 17 the Critical Election Interference Public Protocol Panel, 18 sometimes known as the Panel of Five, failed in their duty to 19 inform and warn Canadians.

20 I anticipate that later in these proceedings, 21 the Commission will hear evidence of a meeting of the panel 22 on the 9th of September 2019, where the panel decided that in 23 its future deliberations it would assess potential 24 interference activities for their impact on a single national 25 election as opposed to potential impacts on 338 individual 26 elections across the county. There will be evidence before 27 this Commission that the panel decided to approach foreign 28 interference as a national matter, rather than as a riding by

1 riding basis.

2 Would you tell the Commissioner what you 3 think of that approach to assessing whether there has been 4 foreign interference in elections?

5 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: Yeah. I think that was 6 an improper decision to make because it doesn't recognise our 7 first past the post system where a general election is 338
8 individual elections, and our system is structured to support 9 that, and that the composition of the House of Commons is 10 separate from the election itself.

11 And what I think their decision did was 12 discounted some ridings in the Lower Mainland and in the GTA 13 as rounding error ridings, and I think that's unfair to those 14 voters. And to suggest that an election is free and fair 15 from foreign interference is not accurate if some people are 16 impacted. Whether or not it flipped the result in a riding 17 or in a few ridings, each vote matters.

18 So I do think that was a decision that was 19 incorrect to make. I also think it doesn't reflect our 20 history as a parliamentary democracy first past the post 21 system with its pros and cons. They should have taken the 22 approach that if they knew several ridings were being heavily 23 targeted, that that was sufficient under the protocol to have 24 a public notice and warning. You could have constrained to 25 media and the Lower Mainland of British Columbia or GTA 26 or....

27 You know, there was a lot of ways to actually 28 address this in a way that wasn't making it seem like the 1 entire election in all ridings were at risk, but I think 2 targeted warnings and messaging, particularly in Mandarin and 3 Cantonese, and in the case of 2021, was warranted, and it was 4 a mistake to not raise the alarm.

5 MR. GIB van ERT: Thank you, Mr. O'Toole.

6 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Thank you.

7 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Thank you.

8 Next one is counsel for the Sikh Coalition.

9 Mr. Singh.

10 MR. PRABJOT SINGH: Thank you, Commissioner.

11 Again, for the record, it's Prabjot Singh as counsel for the 12 Sikh Coalition.

13 --- CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. PRABJOT SINGH:

14 MR. PRABJOT SINGH: Thank you, Mr. O'Toole.

15 I just have a few questions for you.

16 Based on the testimony you've given so far,
17 it sounds like your experience in terms of understanding 18 foreign interference was mostly after the fact. After the 19 election is when the briefings happened and you were informed 20 about potential targeting of yourself and your party. Is 21 that correct?

22 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: About how the targeting 23 was done? Yes. The fact that, you know, there was the risk 24 and potential of it, I was aware of for several years before 25 becoming leader.

26 MR. PRABJOT SINGH: Okay. And it's your 27 understanding that you have been targeted specifically 28 because of the Conservative Party platform and positions

1 taken around China and some of the messaging around that 2 position; correct?

3 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Correct.

4 MR. PRABJOT SINGH: Do you recall the first 5 time that you first heard about the threat of Indian foreign 6 interference in Canadian elections?

7 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: It has been a live issue.
8 I'm trying to think of.... The first time was probably in 9 relation to the Prime Minister's state visit to India. I was 10 the Foreign Affairs shadow minister for the Conservatives at 11 the time. There was a lot of discussion on how we needed to 12 prosecute his trip in the House of Commons, and there was -- 13 there was debate on the issues where foreign interference and 14 electoral, and even in the case of Mr. Atwal, who was on the 15 trip, and had been convicted in a -- in an attack on an 16 Indian politician in Canada. That was the first time I 17 really heard of the subject in the case of the Indian 18 diaspora.

19 MR. PRABJOT SINGH: And in that case, was it 20 your understanding that members of the intelligence community 21 believed that state or non state actors from India engaged in 22 a disinformation campaign against the Prime Minister at the 23 time?

24 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Yes. That was -- that 25 was the issue that I wanted to raise following the Prime 26 Minister's trip. The National Security Advisor, Daniel Jean, 27 did side briefings with the media with respect to the Prime 28 Minister's trip. And his suggestion to some of the members

1 of the media that the reason the trip had such terrible media
2 coverage was a result of interference by the Indian 3 Government.

4 And I took very serious issue with the fact 5 that that sounded more like the job of a director of 6 communications and not the job the national safety -- public 7 safety and security advisor of the Prime Minister. I don't 8 feel they should be spinning the media, and you know, I said 9 that publicly with respect to Mr. Jean.

10 Mr. Scheer at the time, you know, took -- 11 wanted to bring another vote in the House of Commons on the 12 United India, and we didn't raise the Daniel Jean issue, and 13 I think that was a bit of a mistake because it upset many 14 diaspora groups in Canada, that vote. It was -- as Foreign 15 Affairs shadow minister, it was on my motion that was tabled.

16 Ultimately, the Daniel Jean issue came out
17 and was prosecuted at the committee, but that whole issue I 18 think was a bit misplayed and caused more tensions within 19 diaspora communities rather than looking at the role of the 20 national security advisor and how the Prime Minister 21 approached that state visit from invitation to prominent 22 Canadians to attend these sorts of things.

23 So you know, the intersection of potential 24 foreign interference and diaspora politics in Canada is 25 something that I think this Inquiry really needs to dive into 26 to make sure that regardless of how you came to Canada and 27 where you worship, where you work, you should be able to 28 exercise your franchise free from interference from other

1 states or from coercion in Canada by a group.

2 MR. PRABJOT SINGH: I don't want to dwell on 3 this for too long. You earlier gave testimony that your 4 suggestion that non partisan bodies should advise about 5 potential foreign interference activity potentially while 6 it's happening in order to actually warn communities, but it 7 sounds like you take issue with a public servant at a senior 8 level within the intelligence community providing that kind 9 of live intervention at that time.

10 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: Well, his -- Mr. Jean's 11 intervention was based on stopping the bleeding from media 12 stories that were very negative on the Prime Minister.
13 That's not the role of a National Security Advisor. That's 14 the role of a Director of Communications.

15 I do think that the parties both in the House
16 of Commons and their electoral parties that run nominations 17 and that run general elections do need linkages directly with 18 our security agencies so that issues can be flagged like the 19 financing issue from 2019 and so that parties can be aware if 20 there's a security concern of any type before a nomination is 21 completed, before someone gets elected to Parliament, before 22 -- before that potential interference goes right into our 23 Parliament.

24 And so I think how these agencies have the 25 ability to properly, professionally and discretely brief the 26 House of Commons and the political parties is something I 27 hope the Inquiry provides some recommendations on.

28 MR. PRABJOT SINGH: So you provided some

1 evidence about how you believe that China or the PRC targeted 2 yourself because of policy positions your Party took and you 3 didn't learn about these until after the fact.

4 Is it possible that yourself or your caucus
5 may have been targeted for Indian foreign interference 6 because of policy positions that may have aligned with Indian 7 interests without your knowledge, of course? Is that 8 something that's possible that could have happened?

9 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: It is possible. I will 10 say that when we did table the motion to vote on a united 11 India and this was -- as I said, I wanted to pursue the 12 Daniel Jean aspect of the Prime Minister's trip. That motion 13 and the mere tabling of it upset the Sikh community a great 14 deal. Several hundred of them called my offices in Ottawa 15 and Bowmanville.

16 And so I do know that these issues related to 17 the potential for foreign interference really strike diaspora 18 communities on an emotional level and so that the parties 19 have to be professional and mature about how they address 20 them because they can really make a community feel 21 marginalized or unheard. They can be seen to be ignoring 22 obvious attempts to interfere. So this is why I'm saying I 23 think the professionalization both for the House of Commons 24 and our Parliament is separate from the electoral machines of 25 the Party.

26 And I think there needs to be a responsible 27 way for both the electoral machines of the parties and the 28 House of Commons to get timely, discrete briefings on 1 intelligence issues in the hope that all parties will handle 2 it responsibly.

3 MR. PRABJOT SINGH: In the leadup to the 2021
4 election, were you ever made aware of a potential
5 disinformation campaign that targeted your Liberal and NDP 6 counterparts that was mutually amplified by Indian 7 disinformation networks as well as far right Canadian 8 platforms?

9 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: I don't know of any 10 specific campaign or any specific evidence. I do know that 11 the farmers' protests in India that occurred, I think, in 12 around 2020, 2021 drew quite a response politically in 13 Canada. And I tried to, you know, raise food security and 14 the issues of farming families in a way that was responsible 15 and wasn't trying to exacerbate tensions.

16 Each of the parties, I think, tried to 17 approach that issue responsibly, but obviously that was -- 18 because of the farmers' protests were largely in Punjab, it 19 was a natural issue that brought tensions between Sikh and 20 Hindu communities in Canada and so had no information on any 21 possible foreign interference, but certainly there was 22 diaspora concerns to approach the issue responsibly, and I 23 tried to do that.

24 MR. PRABJOT SINGH: And would it surprise you 25 if the -- some of these documents that you've mentioned from 26 the SITE Task Force that you weren't privy to prior, would it 27 surprise you if there was information that there was 28 coordinated disinformation emanating from India trying to 1 exacerbate potential tensions between communities in Canada?

2 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: I don't want to speculate 3 on what may or may not be there, but when I was living at 4 Stornoway in the lockdown of COVID, we couldn't really go out
5 much, I did notice at one point in the farmers' protest
6 period of time the RCMP put close protection on the Higher 7 Commissioner from India, who was my next-door neighbour. And 8 I know that we only do that with diplomats if there's a 9 perceived threat and Canada has an obligation to safeguard 10 against threats. But I only saw that tensions were rising.
11 I don't have any knowledge of any information or -- and I 12 don't want to speculate.

13 But I am trying to share what I did see at 14 the time.

15 MR. PRABJOT SINGH: And during the relevant 16 electoral periods, were you ever briefed by security and 17 intelligence on the potential Indian threat to foreign 18 interference?

19 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: No.

20 MR. PRABJOT SINGH: Had you been adequately 21 briefed by security and intelligence, would that have 22 increased your situational awareness and your ability to more 23 carefully take precautions for yourself and understand the 24 possibilities of disinformation and the impacts on 25 communities?

26 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: I do think these 27 briefings should take place and I've said -- and I said this 28 to CSIS when I received my briefing. Particularly now that

1 Parliament has a permanent hybrid quality to it, there -- I 2 think each MP should have more secure means of having virtual 3 offices, whether it's VPNs or -- I think we need a far more 4 sophisticated approach to signals and communications 5 intelligence for Parliamentarians and more knowledge.

6 Electors trust them to go to Parliament to 7 represent their issues. We need to trust them to be able to 8 weigh information knowing that intelligence is not evidence, 9 but it's an indication that should help form smart decision-10 making.

11 I think we need to trust our Parliamentarians 12 more. That's why structures to allow for more of an 13 interface with intelligence services where needed is, I 14 think, prudent and important.

15 MR. PRABJOT SINGH: And so ---

16 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Mr. Singh, you already 17 exhausted your time, so I will ask you to conclude. You may 18 ask the last question.

19 MR. PRABJOT SINGH: This is my final 20 question.

21 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Thank you.

22 MR. PRABJOT SINGH: So in terms of your 23 suggestion or your observation and based on your experience, 24 what you would like to see is more timely non-partisan 25 briefings and information from the security and intelligence 26 community to be able to inform the decisions of Members of 27 Parliament. Is that fair?

28 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: Yes.

1 MR. PRABJOT SINGH: Thank you. Those are all 2 my questions.

3 Thank you, Commissioner.

4 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Thank you.

5 Mr. Sirois, counsel for the RCDA.

6 --- CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. GUILLAUME SIROIS:

7 MR. GUILLAUME SIROIS: Good morning, Mr.
8 O'Toole, madame la Commissaire.

9 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Good morning.

10 MR. GUILLAUME SIROIS: I'm Guillaume Sirois, 11 counsel for the Russian Canadian Democratic Alliance. I'm 12 going to ask you some questions regarding Russian 13 interference specifically.

14 In your witness summary, you say that in the 15 final days leading up to the 2021 election, the CPC saw its 16 projected seat count drop and you attribute much of this drop 17 to the COVID-19 issue but also to the gains by the People's 18 Party of Canada. Is that right?

19 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Yes.

20 MR. GUILLAUME SIROIS: And why would gains by 21 the PPC cause a drop in projected seats for CPC?

22 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Our experience in the 23 campaign and in our assessments afterwards was the seat 24 makeup of the House -- so we maintained a slight win in the 25 popular vote, but the seat makeup changed dramatically due 26 largely to the vaccine mandate issue. That issue caused 27 several repercussions for us.

28 In the final 10 days of the campaign, the 1 vaccine mandates provincially came into force in Ontario.

2 Premier Kenny in Alberta changed his view on vaccine mandates 3 when hospital ICUs were filling up. And what that did was 4 two things.

5 My position was I was very pro vaccine. I 6 was not in favour of a mandate that would lead to people
7 losing their jobs or their ability to travel. The splits
8 that emerged were the PPC vote went up for people that were I 9 might describe as vaccine hesitant or anti-vax. But the soft 10 suburban vote in Ontario, some of the vote that was going to 11 vote NDP went to the Government and to the Liberals in the 12 final days. So we lost in part because some of our vote bled 13 off to the right, and some of the centrist vote that we were 14 getting midway through the campaign was lost on the vaccine 15 issue in the final week.

16 It was a range of factors, but that's largely 17 why the dispersion of our votes was not sufficient to win the 18 seat count.

19 MR. GUILLAUME SIROIS: Okay. So you 20 attribute most of this loss of seat to the PPC due to the 21 covid -- your Covid-19 stance during the election. But in 22 your summary also I saw that one in two or one in three 23 voters for the PPC would have voted for the CPC. Is it 24 something that you agree? Is there, like ---

25 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: Yes. The PPC vote was a 26 live issue. I never mentioned Mr. Bernier at all in the 27 campaign. You know, I am very disappointed in his conduct 28 since leaving our party.

1 But in the final week, I did make an appeal, 2 in the last few days, to PPC voters that if they wanted to 3 see the Liberal Government replaced, we were the vehicle, and 4 that a vote for the PPC was actually indirectly helping Mr.
5 Trudeau. That was as far as I would go to appeal to ardent 6 PPC supporters.

7 But why I say it was a real issue is most of 8 the provinces, as I said, were the ones imposing 9 restrictions. And the restrictions and vaccine mandates 10 really caused that vote to go from two percent to six/seven 11 percent. In some parts of southwestern Ontario, the vote 12 went into double digits.

13 In some cases, we still held on to those 14 seats in Leamington and places like that. But in a lot of 15 more suburban/ex-urban centers, that split was enough for us 16 to lose.

17 So our modelling showed on Friday I was 18 winning the seat count, and on Monday I lost the seat count.
19 It was a tough weekend.

20 MR. GUILLAUME SIROIS: Understood. Thank 21 you. I'm going to -- I will now show you three reports from 22 the Rapid Response Mechanism of Canada, also known as the RRM 23 Canada. The first of which will be CAN000125.

24 --- EXHIBIT No. CAN 125:

25 RRM Canada Weekly Trend Analysis -
26 Report #3 Week of 2-8 September

27 MR. GUILLAUME SIROIS: And for the benefit of 28 the public, while the document is being pulled, RRM Canada

1 was responsible for monitoring the digital information 2 environment for foreign state sponsored disinformation during 3 the 2021 election.

4 So this document is report number three, so 5 the RRM Canada weekly trend analysis for the week of 6 September 2 to 8.

7 I would like to go to the second page,
8 please. The first full paragraph there under the two bullet 9 points. I will read some excerpts from that paragraph.

10 "Yonder monitoring identified 11 accounts that may be associated with 12 Russian state-sponsored actors who on 13 a very small scale have amplified 14 content supportive of accounts of two 15 candidates of the Peoples' Party of 16 Canada. [...] RRM notes that both PPC 17 posts involved anti-vaccine and anti-18 lockdown content."

19 Is this the first time you are hearing about 20 this?

21 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: Yes.

22 MR. GUILLAUME SIROIS: More generally, have 23 you witnessed amplification of PPC related content by a 24 foreign state during the 2021 election before today?

25 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: Yes. There was always a 26 fear that some of the troll farms and some of the Russian 27 influence was boosting some of the messages from the PPC, 28 both on anti-LGBTQ type messaging, for example. But

1 certainly when covid happened, the restriction/vaccine issue
2 I believe was amplified by those channels. But I wasn't 3 aware of any of the tracking of it.

4 MR. GUILLAUME SIROIS: Okay. And so I 5 understand correctly your statement that it was not only just 6 PPC related content, but also anti-vaccine and anti-lockdown 7 that you heard before today that was being amplified by 8 Russia?

9 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: Yes.

10 MR. GUILLAUME SIROIS: Okay. I will go now
11 to CAN000134,

12 --- EXHIBIT No. CAN 134:

13 RRM Canada Weekly Trend Analysis -
14 Report #4 Week of 9-15 September

15 MR. GUILLAUME SIROIS: Which is the 16 subsequent weekly report from RRM Canada for the September 9 17 to 15 period. As you can see from the first page, this is 18 the report for the week of September 9 to 15. I would like 19 to go to the second page again, please.

20 It's the same kind of paragraph. Similar 21 information. I will read again some excerpts from that 22 paragraph. The firm, being the Yonder firm that we 23 discussed, which I assume is a firm that the Government 24 contracted to conduct those analyses:

25 "The firm has seen less engagement
26 from accounts that generally amplify
27 Chinese state sources, but more 28 engagement from accounts that

1 generally amplify Russian state
2 sources. [...] In general, Yonder
3 reports that Chinese and China state-4 aligned accounts amplify messages by,
5 or are supportive of, the LPC while 6 Russia-friendly accounts amplify 7 Peoples Part[y] of Canada-related 8 content."

9 So according to this report, it's a bit like 10 you said at the beginning of your testimony with me today.
11 you have -- votes are being dragged on both sides. So the 12 China is supporting the Liberals, and Russia is supporting 13 the PPC. None of this helps the Conservatives; right?

14 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: Well from -- and this is 15 the first time that I've seen this document, but that was our 16 impression from the field, that the lockdown and the vaccine 17 issue had a support bleeding center-right and right, and you 18 know, I do think the Chinese FI has been more localized and 19 targeted, but it did affect some seats as well. This is 20 talking about a broader support of the Liberal Party.

21 The gain the party, the Liberal Party, had in 22 the final week, our tracking showed came a little bit at the 23 expense of the NDP and less us, but a little bit to us.

24 At the end of the day, it was close until the 25 end, and these splits, you know, are why I'm in the private 26 sector, largely now, and not in Parliament, but it was a 27 tough campaign. That's why I still believe we shouldn't have 28 had one in the confines of a vaccine over health-related and

1 restrictions of things that were necessary, but were going to 2 be challenging in a civil society.

3 MR. GUILLAUME SIROIS: And the report says 4 that the amplification from Russia increased during the 5 period of September 9th to September 15th. Could you clarify 6 if this timeframe aligns with the period during which the 7 Conservative Party experienced a decline in projected seats 8 at the final stages of the election?

9 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: I can't say on a day-to-10 day basis where we were. We had a surge early in the 11 campaign. Early in the campaign, covid was less of a 12 concern. There was slight opening up. You know, there was 13 the ability for the first time to publicly gather on limited 14 bases. So people weren't worried as much about the measures 15 and restrictions.

16 Later on in the campaign, it coincided with 17 the early part of what was the Delta wave. There were 18 pressures on the Alberta hospital system, a few provincial 19 vaccine mandates came into force, like in Ontario and New 20 Brunswick. So the second part of the campaign was much more 21 covid-centric, is when we lost our momentum. I can't track 22 it on a daily basis, but that's generally how we saw it 23 happening.

24 MR. GUILLAUME SIROIS: I understand, but does 25 that generally align, September 9 to September 15, where 26 September 15 is one -- approximately one week before the 27 election?

28 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: That's when our momentum

1 stopped and we then -- well there were a range of other 2 issues that we had, the gun issue and some other issues that 3 were issues in the media, issues with some of our opponents.
4 But generally, it's the same timeframe.

5 MR. GUILLAUME SIROIS: And so you said there
6 was a bunch of issues during that time period. But just I 7 want to make sure I understand properly. One of the 8 important issues was the anti-vaccine and anti-lockdown
9 content?

10 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: That was the most 11 important issue.

12 MR. GUILLAUME SIROIS: Okay. Thank you. And 13 I want to, just for the record, pull the last report from the 14 RRM on that point. It's CAN000141.

15 --- EXHIBIT No. CAN 141:

16 RRM Canada Weekly Trend Analysis -
17 Report #5 Week of 16-23 September

18 MR. GUILLAUME SIROIS: This one was issued 19 after the election. It's for the period of September 16 to 20 23. Again, I want to go to the second page, the same 21 paragraph. That starts with Yonder again.

22 So -- and this paragraph reads in part:

23 "In general, Yonder reports that 24 Chinese and China state-aligned
25 accounts continued to amplify
26 messages by or supportive of the LPC,
27 while Russia-friendly accounts
28 continue to amplify Peoples Party of 1 Canada...related content."

2 So I believe that means that since at least 3 September -- about September 2 to 8 period, until after the 4 election, this firm, Yonder, reported that there was a 5 foreign state, or at least Russia friendly accounts, 6 amplifying content related to the Peoples Party of Canada.
7 Is it information that would have been of interest to you had 8 it been communicated?

9 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: Yes. I think this is the 10 type of information that I thought was going to be shared on 11 a -- kind of a live rolling basis with my designate to the 12 SITE Committee Task Force, but it was not.

13 MR. GUILLAUME SIROIS: And I want to go
14 briefly on your -- so the Peoples Party of Canada did not win 15 a seat but as you explained earlier, they did perform quite 16 well during the election. They're -- they tripled their vote 17 share from 1.6 percent to 4.9 percent. And I want to know 18 what, if you remember, what was the Conservative's position 19 regarding Russia during the 2021 election?

20 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: Well, I was banned to go
21 to Russia, as was the previous leader, Andrew Scheer. You 22 know, I'm wearing my Ukraine pin today. You know, we were 23 very, very strongly opposed to the Putin regime going back to 24 Mr. Harper, who probably his most famous comment as prime 25 minister was confronting Vladimir Putin, asking him to get 26 out of Ukraine during the illegal occupation of Crimea. So 27 we were very, very strongly opposed to the Putin regime, as 28 was the Trudeau Government, I might add, despite early on

1 there was a -- Minister Dion wanted to warm relations with 2 Russia. Ms. Freeland and other members of that caucus pushed 3 to adopt a very strong position countering Putin's 4 aggression.

5 So this was one area where I think the 6 Liberals and Conservatives were generally on the same page, 7 but we were probably known as the slightly stronger tone 8 against -- in Operation Unifier and some of the missions in 9 Latvia and Crimea and Ukraine were all initiatives of the 10 Conservative Government, so we opposed the Putin regime and 11 Russia under his control.

12 MR. GUILLAUME SIROIS: And I know -- do you 13 remember the PPC's position regarding Russia or foreign 14 policy generally?

15 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: You know, I have a lot of 16 concerns of PPC and some of the far right narratives in the 17 United States, particularly with respect to funding the war 18 in Ukraine, being very influenced by Russian propaganda and 19 social media manipulation. I can't speak to, you know, the 20 degree of it during the 2021 campaign, but it's certainly an 21 issue that I've read about.

22 I've watched it unfold in the United States, 23 where the Republican Party has virtually changed their 24 original position, in my view, because of some of this 25 influence. I've seen it in Canada as well, and I've spoken 26 out against it. I do think Mr. Bernier tries to harness some 27 of these forces. Whether accidentally or whether it's 28 coordinated I can't speak to.

1 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: M. Sirois, your time is 2 exhausted. So if you have a last question, I'm going to 3 allow the last question, but after that, we'll take the 4 break.

5 MR. GUILLAUME SIROIS: Maybe just one last 6 question. Thank you, Madam Commissioner.

7 In your witness summary, you say that this 8 SITE Task Force and the CIEPP failed. After hearing this 9 evidence today, which I understand is the first time you are 10 hearing about that, do you still hold that same belief?

11 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: Yes, absolutely.
12 Clearly, my focus during the campaign in 2021, and post, when 13 we continued to work with the SITE Task Force, my concern 14 primarily focussed on foreign interference coming from 15 Beijing. I never really gave as much thought to the 16 potential for Russian interference or other forms of 17 interference, but that's what I think is a good thing about 18 the mandate of this Inquiry is it can look broader than just 19 the issue of China. Some of what I'm seeing now in the RRM 20 reporting is equally concerning about Russia.

21 MR. GUILLAUME SIROIS: Thank you.

22 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Thank you.

23 So we'll take 20 minutes break. So we'll 24 come back at 11:35.

25 THE REGISTRAR: Order, please.

26 The hearing is in recess until 11:45.

27 --- Upon recessing at 11:13 a.m./

28 --- Upon resuming at 11:43 a.m.

1 THE REGISTRAR: Order please.

2 This sitting of the Foreign Interference
3 Commission is back in session.

4 --- MR. ERIN O' TOOLE, Resumed

5 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: So next one is counsel 6 for the Human Rights Coalition.

7 --- CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MS. HANNAH TAYLOR:

8 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: Good morning, Mr.
9 O'Toole.

10 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: Good morning.

11 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: You mentioned this 12 morning that you had a sense that the Conservative Party's 13 stronger positions on China were probably being tracked 14 closely by the Chinese government prior to the 2021 election.
15 You would agree that it's likely these stronger positions as 16 well as the Conservative Party's support of targeted diaspora
17 communities such as the Falun Gong, Uyghur and Hong Kong
18 communities in its 2021 platform, support of the Uyghur
19 genocide motion and advocacy for the Foreign Influence 20 Registry that likely made it a -- that likely made the Party 21 a target of the Chinese government.

22 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: Yes, that's correct.

23 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: From your perspective,
24 has your treatment by the Chinese government in the 2021 25 election as well as the experiences of other politicians and 26 leaders who've supported targeted communities created an 27 environment in which other politicians, leaders and parties 28 may feel they cannot take a stance against China without 1 facing consequences?

2 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: There is a risk of that 3 chill, people not championing minority rights or human rights 4 because of fear of interference or, you know, electoral 5 challenge as a result. So I have more respect for people 6 that do despite some of those risks.

7 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: You mentioned this 8 morning that the CSIS briefing you received in 2023 was 9 helpful for understanding what was happening regarding 10 foreign interference issues but that you would have 11 appreciated getting the briefing a few years earlier.

12 Based on your interview summary, it's my 13 understanding that you believe that if an intelligence agency 14 develops a credible belief that a Party or candidate is the 15 target of foreign interference then the agency should brief 16 the Party or candidate even if the threat posed by foreign 17 interference is minimal. Is that correct?

18 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Yes. If they have some 19 sort of a risk towards them or their family as a result of 20 their public service and positions they're taking, I think if 21 an agency of the federal government is aware of that, that 22 Parliamentarian deserves to be notified and deserves support 23 to make sure that risks are minimized or mitigated.

24 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: And would you agree that 25 members of targeted diaspora communities should be similarly 26 briefed in a timely manner when an intelligence agency 27 develops a credible belief that they or their family members 28 are a target of foreign interference?

1 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: Yes, I believe they 2 deserve that same right.

3 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: Thanks, Mr. O'Toole.

4 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Thank you.
5 So government?

6 --- CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS:

7 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: Good morning, sir.

8 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: Good morning.

9 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: My name is Gregory
10 Tzemenakis. I'm counsel for the Attorney General of Canada
11 and I just have some clarification questions.

12 So your evidence -- in your evidence this 13 morning, you stated that the Conservative Party of Canada did 14 not lose the general election in 2021 due to foreign 15 interference activities, but they may have lost somewhere 16 between six to nine seats as a result of foreign interference 17 activities; correct?

18 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: That's correct.

19 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: And I also heard you 20 to say, sir, that those seats may have also been impacted by 21 other factors, such as the position taken by the party on 22 motions in the House of Commons; possibly an understanding in 23 relation to the party's platform, or a misunderstanding in 24 relation to the party's platform; and positions taken in 25 relation to vaccines and vaccine mandates. Is that a fair 26 summary?

27 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: All the issues that were 28 germane in the '21 election would have applied to all those

1 voters as well.

2 The modelling and the historic voting
3 patterns of the Chinese-Canadian diaspora, in particular, is 4 what helped formulate my opinion, but I've always said that 5 seat range, up to nine, is my opinion, based on all these 6 considerations.

7 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: Thank you.

8 I want to move to just a couple of questions 9 on information flow and, in particular, from the party to the 10 SITE Task Force.

11 So this morning -- and I'm going to start off 12 with a general question, to make sure I understood exactly 13 what you said this morning. I understood you to say that the 14 foreign interference activities that the party was monitoring 15 were raised by your representatives to the SITE Task Force 16 during the writ period in the 2021 election, is that right?

17 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: No. I wouldn't use the 18 term, "Monitoring"; we were not set up to monitor foreign 19 interference in the 2021 election. What I did say on a few 20 occasions was that we developed an informal dossier and 21 started sharing examples that our field organizers, our 22 candidates, and our party officials were seeing on an ad hoc 23 basis, but the monitoring we thought was being done and was 24 being done by RRM ---

25 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: So ---

26 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: What we were doing was 27 sharing kind of anecdotal reports to counter the sort of 28 impression being left by SITE that there were no issues of 1 concern. We were seeing issues of concern, and we were 2 flagging them.

3 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: So I'm going to 4 rephrase my question. The point that I'm trying to make is 5 your evidence this morning was that there was sharing of 6 information b the party to a SITE Task Force ---

7 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Yes.

8 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: --- during this 9 period. And would it surprise you to learn that this may not 10 actually have been done by the party during the writ period?

11 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Some of the sharing would 12 have been verbal in meetings that we were seeing cases. Some 13 of the evidentiary record, like photographs of the Foodmart 14 and things like that, were shared afterwards, yes.

15 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: To be fair, I expect 16 that the evidence that will come on Friday by the SITE Task 17 Force in 2021 will be that there were concerns shared, but 18 that they were only shared after the writ period and after 19 the election result. And so I want to give you the 20 opportunity to help us, if that accords with your 21 recollection or if your understanding -- you're still 22 confident in your position that some information was shared 23 during the writ period?

24 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Our party was raising 25 instances of what we believed was FI. In terms of 26 evidentiary sharing, that happened after the election.

27 I must specify that I was not directly 28 involved with the Task Force, my designates were, Mr. Soliman

1 and Ms. Michaud. From what I understand, in the tail end of 2 the campaign, we were raising reports from the ground that we 3 were hearing with respect to FI. We formalized those into 4 the dossier after.

5 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: Thank you. And I
6 heard you to -- just coming back to the point of formalizing 7 those activities into the dossier, and you were taken earlier 8 -- we don't need to pull this up -- to CAN 6739, which was an 9 email from Ms. Michaud forwarding information to the SITE 10 Task Force for consideration. Do you recall that discussion 11 you had ---

12 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Yes.

13 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: --- with Commission
14 counsel? And did I understand correctly, sir, you to say 15 that you did not receive a response to that inquiry? And I'm 16 just trying to understand, when you say, "You" is it you in 17 your personal capacity as leader, or are you suggesting that 18 the party did not receive a response to those inquiries?

19 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: I did not receive a 20 response, nor was I offered an opportunity to meet with the 21 Task Force or the group of five. And I'm assuming that my 22 chief of staff did not either, but she may have. I can't be 23 certain of that.

24 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: To be fair, the 25 evidence that will come a little bit later is that there was 26 a verbal briefing given to both Mr. Soliman and Ms. Michaud 27 on October 22nd, 2021 in response to the allegations. Does 28 that date ring a bell?

1 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: No. Because I think 2 we've -- our recollection is that on several occasions when 3 things were said, the National Security Advisor to the Prime 4 Minister told a Parliamentary Committee that she had 5 responded to Mr. Soliman, when she had not.

6 So I would love to see the evidentiary 7 record, but my own experience was that our communication with 8 the SITE Task Force was generally a one-way street.

9 And my concern when you use the term,
10 "Monitoring" our monitoring from the election, we weren't set 11 up to monitor the election for foreign interference, but the 12 SITE Task Force was. And the sharing we did with the Task 13 Force was, again, one way. We didn't get the rapid response 14 mechanism reports; we didn't get what I'm seeing now in real 15 time during the campaign, and I think that's a fundamental 16 failure of the system.

17 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: Let me just touch on 18 that point. So your evidence today is that there was a 19 failure in the system because the SITE Task Force or the 20 panel of five should have made an announcement during the 21 writ period, based on the alleged foreign interference 22 activities that were being shared with them; is that fair?

23 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: That's -- the protocol, I 24 think, warranted some sort of warning to diaspora communities 25 relying on WeChat, for example, yes. But as I said in my 26 earlier testimony, when my designates in the first meeting 27 regarding the '21 election were told that there were no 28 problems with the 2019 election, and a year after the

1 election I read that there were instances of problems in the 2 2019 election; in my view, that should have been the starting 3 point for the Task Force. We knew there were some problems
4 in 2019. We're going to be more vigilant in '21 to make sure 5 that the interference, whether it's significant or not, plays 6 no role in any of the ridings in the country.

7 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: And did I understand 8 correctly that as leader of the party you could have made a 9 public announcement yourself, but after careful consideration 10 you chose not to make an announcement, based on the foreign 11 interference -- alleged foreign interference activities that 12 were being brought to your attention?

13 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: I did make that decision 14 not to formally say anything because of what I perceived to 15 be negative ramifications of that. I also thought the system 16 was working and if there was knowledge of the reports we were 17 hearing that the protocol would indicate the need for some 18 sort of warning.

19 You know, looking back, I might have made a 20 different decision if I'd been seeing the RRM reports on a 21 daily basis.

22 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: And the question 23 that I have, sir, is when you say there was an alleged 24 failure in the system, is that your -- when did you formulate 25 that view? Did you formulate that view during the writ 26 period, or did you formulate that view with the benefit of 27 retrospection and further consideration looking back?

28 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: In the final week of the 1 campaign, when some of our candidates and volunteers were 2 very worried about the level of foreign interference and some 3 of the narratives on WeChat, including narratives about me, 4 that's when I determined that we were not prepared as a 5 country for the level and methods of foreign interference.

6 And I'll use an example. I don't believe our 7 agencies have adequate line of sight into WeChat. There are 8 two different platforms of WeChat; one for mainland China, 9 one for the diaspora globally. If you monitor it as a 10 foreign account, you may not get the same algorithmic flow 11 that some other users get.

12 Does CSE, do our intelligence agencies even 13 know what's really happening here? I don't think they do.
14 And what I do know is a lot of Canadians, hundreds of 15 thousands of Canadians, now rely on these channels. TikTok 16 is now included in that. That wasn't as big of a concern in 17 2021.

18 So I think that we have to make sure that 19 we're giving our intelligence agencies the resources to 20 properly monitor this, and if we don't have the ability to 21 properly monitor, perhaps there should be some restrictions 22 as we've been seeing with TikTok.

23 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: So I appreciate that 24 my time is coming to an end. Thank you for that answer.

25 I have just one more question and it's about 26 the public announcement. In hindsight, do you agree that an 27 announcement by yourself as leader might have afforded an 28 opportunity to address the concerns you discussed this

1 morning regarding misinformation, whether it be in the riding 2 of Mr. Chiu -- apologies, it's not my phone -- whether it be 3 in the riding of Mr. Chui or in the ridings in the lower 4 mainland or in the GTA?

5 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: I regret that I didn't 6 make a statement, because I do feel Mr. Chiu, Mr. Sirois, and 7 a few other candidates, were exposed to a level of 8 misinformation that I think was profoundly unfair.

9 I will say this. The Winnipeg lab 10 experience, which I talked about earlier, is how the House of 11 Commons wrapped up before the election. When we were 12 bringing up valid public policy questions about potential 13 espionage, potential partnerships with the Wuhan Virology 14 Institute, the Prime Minister and the Government would 15 respond by saying, "Make sure you're not perpetuating anti-16 Asian hate or discrimination."

17 It was that inadvertent chill around any 18 conversation of this that led me not to say anything publicly 19 and why I'm in favour of an inquiry and mechanisms so that 20 these decisions are taken out of the crucible of electoral 21 politics and are administered and delivered by trusted sort 22 of agencies and public officials so that the politics 23 doesn't, you know, stop or prevent a message from getting to 24 voters.

25 But it is a regret I have, that now that I 26 see everything, I didn't err on the side of making the 27 message, even if it was going to be construed as, you know, 28 our attempts to save the campaign or whatever the political

1 spin might have been. I regret not doing that for those 2 candidates that ended up losing, I feel because of the level 3 of foreign interference.

4 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: Thank you for your 5 time, Mr. O'Toole.

6 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Thank you.

7 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: Merci, Madam.

8 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: It's now for Mr.
9 O'Toole's counsel. Mr. Jarmyn.

10 --- CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. THOMAS JARMYN:

11 MR. THOMAS JARMYN: Mr. O'Toole, I've just 12 got one question. You finished off discussing with my friend 13 the impact -- or that the chill was one of the reasons you 14 didn't make a statement. Were there any other reasons that 15 factored into your choice not to make a statement with 16 respect to the potential foreign interference?

17 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: The strength of our 18 institutions and our democracy is something that's very 19 important to me, and the pandemic put a strain on a lot of 20 public confidence in institutions and I was very much worried 21 that if we were suggesting some seats were lost or that our 22 electoral fortunes were being impacted by a foreign actor, 23 that some people in the political realm would suggest I was 24 following the approach of the United States and that the 25 election was stolen and all these sorts of things. That's 26 why I never mentioned it period while I was leader of the 27 Party. We worked with the mechanisms, we worked with SITE, 28 worked with Mr. Johnston. And why I'm so hopeful that this

1 Inquiry can take a proper look at this, so that it doesn't 2 become politicized and that we can start restoring our trust
3 in some of these institutions. That's part of the reason I 4 was so cautious, but also part of the reason why I'm so 5 hopeful that this Inquiry really makes some strong 6 recommendations on how we can safeguard things going forward.

7 MR. THOMAS JARMYN: Thank you.

8 Thank you, Commissioner.

9 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Thank you.

10 Any re-examination, Maître Rodriguez?

11 --- RE-EXAMINATION BY MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ:

12 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Just very briefly.

13 Mr. O'Toole, I just want to clarify some of 14 the evidence that you gave in cross-examination in response 15 to my friend the counsel for the Attorney General's 16 questions.

17 I just wanted to understand your evidence.
18 Is it your evidence that you passed on concerns about what 19 you were seeing on the ground during the writ period to your 20 SITE designates? Is that accurate?

21 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: There was -- as we were 22 seeing instances and hearing reports on the ground from the 23 campaign, kind of our central campaign team was talking about 24 it: myself, my chief of staff, the national campaign manager.
25 And the national campaign chair, Mr. Soliman, was also my 26 SITE designate, as was Ms. Michaud. So it was these 27 discussions that I believe Mr. Soliman took to the Taskforce 28 meetings.

1 I was very proud of the professionalism and 2 approach of our team, so I have full trust that they would 3 raise these issues as the SITE process went on.

4 The dossier we talked about was after the 5 campaign, we still had a window when the Government was still 6 in caretaker mode, where we were wanting them to look at 7 things that I don't think they looked at during the writ. We 8 never mentioned publicly that this was going on, but that was 9 still being conducted by largely those four people, with data 10 people and modeling people providing input as well.

11 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Did you ask either 12 one of them to pass on those concerns to site? Or was it 13 simply your expectation that they would do so?

14 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: It was my expectation 15 from the commentary and what we were hearing and discussing 16 on the ground.

17 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And did you receive 18 any information from them that they had in fact passed 19 information on to SITE during that time?

20 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: It was only after the 21 fact, after I was leader, when some of the media reports were 22 coming out in the Globe and Mail, that I said we were 23 flagging these issues and was told, yes, we had been.

24 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And so to your 25 knowledge though, were those concerns in fact passed on to 26 SITE?

27 HON. ERIN O' TOOLE: I certainly know when we 28 prepared the dossier, we provided evidence of the WeChat,

1 evidence of some of the other instances of foreign 2 interference. But I don't know which ones were communicated 3 verbally during the writ itself. That'd be a question for 4 Mr. Soliman.

5 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. Thank you very 6 much.

7 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Just I have one question
8 for you. Can you tell me if, at the best of your knowledge 9 for sure, the terms of the Critical Election Incident Public 10 Protocol were discussed with the various political parties 11 before they'd be drafted and implemented?

12 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: No, not with me. They 13 may have been in 2019, but I wasn't part of that election 14 team. But there was no discussion of the protocol when I was 15 leader.

16 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: And have you been 17 consulted, when I say you, I mean your Party, have been 18 consulted about the composition of the panel of five?

19 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: No, we were not.

20 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Thank you. Thank you 21 very much for your time.

22 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Thank you.

23 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: And you're free to go, 24 or to stay if you wish.

25 HON. ERIN O'TOOLE: Thank you very much.

26 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: So do we have to break 27 for a few minutes for the five minutes? Just the time to 28 have the next witness with us.

1 THE REGISTRAR: Order. The sitting will take 2 a recess for five minutes.

3 --- Upon recessing at 12:05 p.m./

4 --- Upon resuming at 12:17 p.m./

5 THE REGISTRAR: Order please.

6 This sitting of the Foreign Interference
7 Commission is back in session.

8 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Good morning, Mr. Chiu.

9 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Madam Commissioner, 10 Matthew Ferguson for Commission Counsel. We call the next 11 witness, who is Kenny Chiu.

12 THE REGISTRAR: Mr. Chiu, would you like to 13 be affirmed for the record or would you like to be sworn?

14 MR. KENNY CHIU: (Off mic)

15 THE REGISTRAR: May I please have your full 16 name and state your -- spell your last name for the record.

17 MR. KENNY CHIU: My name, it's Kenny Chiu, 18 C-H-I-U.

19 --- MR. KENNY CHIU, Sworn:

20 --- EXAMINATION IN-CHIEF BY MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON:

21 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Good day, Mr. Chiu.

22 MR. KENNY CHIU: Hello.

23 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: You were interviewed 24 by Commission Counsel in person on February 26, 2024, and 25 again on March 5th, 2024, via video link. Do you remember 26 that?

27 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yes.

28 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: A summary of that

1 interview was prepared.

2 And Mr. Court Operator, I'll call that 3 document. It is WIT 14.

4 --- EXHIBIT No. WIT 14.EN:

5 Stage 1 Interview Summary: Kenny Chiu

6 --- EXHIBIT No. WIT 14.FR:

7 Résumé d'entrevue de l'étape 1 :

8 Kenny Chiu

9 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Now, I've called the 10 document on the screen. Mr. Chiu, have you reviewed this 11 document, which is the interview summary, for accuracy?

12 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yes, I have.

13 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. have you had an 14 opportunity to make corrections or changes to the summary?

15 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yes, I have.

16 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. Are there any 17 amendments or changes you would like to make at this time?

18 MR. KENNY CHIU: No.

19 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: And do you adopt this 20 interview summary as part of your evidence here today?

21 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yes.

22 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: I'll now enter the 23 witness summary into evidence, as well as WIT 14.FR, which is 24 the French translation of the summary.

25 I'll now call another document on the screen, 26 which is CAN.DOC 24, C-A-N-D-O-C 2-4.

27 --- EXHIBIT No. CAN.DOC 24:

28 Summary information on briefing to

1 briefing?

2 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yes.

3 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Then I will enter this 4 as well into evidence.

5 Now, Mr. Chiu, you are the former MP for 6 Steveston East Richmond?

7 MR. KENNY CHIU: Steveston-Richmond East.

8 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: I was going to ask you 9 to correct me if I got that wrong. So it's Steveston East 10 Richmond.

11 MR. KENNY CHIU: Steveston-Richmond East.

12 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Richmond East. Okay, 13 I'm going to make a note of that, not just a mental note.
14 Thank you.

15 From 2019 to 2021?

16 MR. KENNY CHIU: Correct.

17 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: You were born in Hong 18 Kong and raised there as well?

19 MR. KENNY CHIU: Correct.

20 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: You immigrated to 21 Canada in 1982 to complete Grade 12 as an international 22 students in Winnipeg?

23 MR. KENNY CHIU: Correct.

24 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: You are fluent in 25 Cantonese, English and Mandarin?

26 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yes.

27 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: And you hold a 28 Bachelor of Science from the University of Saskatchewan.

1 MR. KENNY CHIU: Correct.

2 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: You then returned to 3 Hong Kong after university and -- after university, and you 4 came back to Canada with your parents in 1989.

5 MR. KENNY CHIU: Correct.

6 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Can you briefly
7 summarise how, if we look at how you got into politics now.
8 I understand that at some point in time you became a 9 schoolboard trustee in Richmond.

10 MR. KENNY CHIU: June 4th Tiananmen Square 11 massacre in 1989 was the watershed moment for myself. That 12 is when I have decided that I'm not going to be one of those 13 Canadians who take advantage of Canada, while, after becoming 14 a citizen, continue to make better income by staying behind.
15 I have decided at that moment, '89, before I became the -- 16 landed immigrant, to be a full-fledged Canadian citizen. And 17 that's when I started my journey in Canada.

18 So when I came to Canada, I pay very close 19 attention to what happens, particularly to the national 20 political situation. I have had a very high regard of 21 Canada's political system, be it a democracy, and so I pay 22 very close attention to what's transpired, the discussion of 23 the Charlottetown Accord, Meech Lake Accord.

24 And then later on, when I -- on the day of 25 wedding, I was actually in Hong Kong doing the banquet
26 circuits, and -- but it was exactly the time when Quebecers 27 were deciding whether to leave Canada, the referendum. And 28 so I was so concerned that I actually have my colleague back

1 then in Richmond send me in an email, email was actually 2 quite, you know, not as popular as then, to let me know 3 whether I have a country to come back to. So that's the 4 level of concern that I have for Canada.

5 And when my wife and I had a family and then 6 the -- they enter into the public school system, we decided 7 that rather than sitting on the side, be a spectator, we 8 decided to move forward and be a contributor. And so I put 9 my name forward to be a Richmond Schoolboard trustee, and in 10 2011, I was elected one.

11 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. And you also, I 12 understand, have -- were a frequent commentator on Chinese 13 language TV and radio throughout the 2000s, giving a 14 conservative perspective on Mandarin and Cantonese language - 15 --

16 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yes.

17 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: --- TV and radio.

18 MR. KENNY CHIU: That is correct. And coming 19 from Saskatchewan, when I was living in Hong Kong, I became 20 very critical of the lack of welfare system. So I was a bit 21 of a Hong Kong socialist. But then when I came to Canada, I 22 realised the tax burden, on the middle class especially, had 23 mandated me to be a more right of centre person. So I have 24 decided then that I would support a right of centre political 25 thinking and party and philosophy, and at that time, I choose 26 that path, yeah.

27 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. And you then -- 28 after your tenure as the -- as schoolboard trustee, you ran

1 as a Conservative in Steveston-Richmond East ---

2 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yes.

3 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: --- in 2015, and at 4 that time you lost to the Liberal candidate. Is that 5 correct?

6 MR. KENNY CHIU: That is correct. I lost to 7 Mr. Joe Peschisolido. He was originally a Conservative MP 8 under Canadian Alliance. He changed to the Liberal caucus in 9 2002. I was the -- one -- I was one of them, the campaign
10 team that helped him get elected in year 2000. So it was a 11 yes to versus Peschisolido campaign in 2015.

12 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. And you had a 13 rematch in 2019; is that correct?

14 MR. KENNY CHIU: That is correct.

15 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. And you ran 16 again in Steveston-Richmond East, and this time you took the 17 seat. You were elected MP.

18 MR. KENNY CHIU: Correct.

19 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Now, Steveston-
20 Richmond East I understand is a riding with a large 21 concentration of Chinese Canadians which make up roughly 50
22 percent of the electoral district. Is that correct?

23 MR. KENNY CHIU: That's what I found, too, 24 yes.

25 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. Now, if we just 26 touch on the 2019 campaign, what I'd like to get to focus 27 more with you is the 2021 election campaign. But so we could 28 have maybe a point of reference or perspective of the 1 differences with 2021, can you briefly describe how that 2 campaign was run in 2019?

3 MR. KENNY CHIU: It was a little bit
4 different from 2015. In 2015, much like my 2011 school board 5 trustee campaign, around me I have many supporters and 6 friends who would come to help me campaign. I remember being 7 invited after I was elected as a school board trustee to a 8 Canadian Association or Alliance of Canadian Associations 9 gathering.

10 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Is that the acronym
11 CACA that we see in your witness statement?

12 MR. KENNY CHIU: I believe so, yes.

13 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay.

14 MR. KENNY CHIU: And in attendance are all 15 the ethnic Chinese elected officials, mostly our school
16 boards and city councillors. And they presented me a plaque 17 which I'm still keeping. And that was 2011.

18 In 2015, I noticed that a few of them has 19 faded off, but by and large they're still very supporting.
20 Through their connection, I was able to rent a campaign 21 office, for example. But that has dramatically changed in 22 2019.

23 I noticed that not too many of them had come 24 out in support of me any more. They would try not to be, you 25 know, seen as with me campaigning, going door knocking, 26 volunteering services, et cetera. I attribute that to my 27 commentary with media such as Radio Free Asia in support of a 28 more open situation in Hong Kong, but I didn't pay too much

1 attention to it. And that was 2019.

2 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: And in 2019, were you 3 talking about issues as related to the People's Republic of 4 China?

5 I understand there was the Hong Kong ---

6 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yeah.

7 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: --- anti-extradition 8 law protest in 2019 as well.

9 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yeah.

10 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Were you addressing 11 those things on the campaign trail?

12 MR. KENNY CHIU: No. It was intentional. We 13 are running a Canadian election in Canada in October 2019 and 14 it is not -- it's not -- the Chinese Communist Party, it's 15 not one of the parties that is running in Canadian election, 16 so I deliberately control myself to not to comment in 17 something that has happened in Hong Kong in 2019.

18 Even though there is a lot of pressure coming 19 from constituents of Chinese Hong Kong background advocating 20 and, you know, asking me to take a public stand, I decided 21 not to so, therefore, throughout the entire campaign, you 22 would not find any commentary that are proactively giving out 23 from me.

24 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: And what about your 25 access to the local media in Richmond or the Greater 26 Vancouver Area during the 2019 election campaign?

27 MR. KENNY CHIU: Unless they ask me for my 28 position and comment, I would honestly provide them, but

1 otherwise, I would not proactively -- Canada has ---

2 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Sorry. Perhaps my 3 question wasn't clear.

4 I'm not just speaking about China-related 5 issues, but what was your access like -- what was your access 6 like to the local media in Greater Vancouver Area in the 2019 7 year just at large?

8 MR. KENNY CHIU: It's pretty good, especially 9 I've, you know, developed a little bit of a rapport with the 10 local media, Richmond News, and also many of the Chinese 11 media, printed media, for example. They are still -- they 12 are aware of me and where I stand, so yes, I have a good 13 relationship with them.

14 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: So after -- as of 15 October 2019, you were elected to the House of Commons. Do 16 you remember the first thing you did after you were elected 17 to the House of Commons?

18 MR. KENNY CHIU: I received an invitation -- 19 again, I'm -- Madam Commissioner, I'm a very opinionated 20 person and so I have my ---

21 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: As a politician?

22 MR. KENNY CHIU: View on what happened and 23 what is the problem with Hong Kong. From my perspective, 24 it's because the government there was trying to resolve a 25 political problem using police brute force and not a 26 political solution. And that's why I had taken up the 27 invitation to join in international election observation
28 mission in Hong Kong because there is -- there was a

1 municipal election. It's called a district council election
2 in Hong Kong.

3 And in my view, the open and fair election 4 conducted there would have been a great testimony how they 5 can pacify, how can they resolve many of the political 6 problems.

7 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: And in Hong Kong at 8 the time, there was the protests, the demonstrations that 9 were occurring in relation to the anti-extradition laws. Is 10 that correct?

11 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yes. It's -- it entered 12 into a vicious cycle to the point that, you know, Molotov 13 cocktails were being used against police, you know, against 14 the police brutality, so yeah.

15 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: And when you came back 16 to Canada after that trip, did you receive any feedback from 17 your constituents with regard to your trip to Hong Kong?

18 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yes, I have.

19 I have volunteers, you know, only a month, 20 month and a half ago in my campaign telling me that they will 21 not volunteer for me in the next campaign. They will not 22 even vote for me. Whether they will vote for me or not, they 23 will have to have a deep thought about that.

24 It was because they believe, in their view,
25 that I was in support of rioters in Hong Kong.

26 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: When you use the term 27 "rioters", is that your term or is it the term that someone 28 else is using to describe the people that were demonstrating

1 to ---

2 MR. KENNY CHIU: I do not agree with that 3 term. That term is used by those who are pro Hong Kong
4 government, pro China seeing what happened in Hong Kong, 5 especially toward the later part of the protest. Yes, that's 6 the term that they have used.

7 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. And moving on 8 to some of your work in the House of Commons during the 43rd 9 Parliament, obviously there was the COVID-19 pandemic that 10 struck in March of 2000 (sic) but when things got up and 11 running again, I understand that at some point you became 12 involved in the subcommittee on International Human Rights of 13 the Standing Committee on Foreign Affairs and International 14 Development.

15 MR. KENNY CHIU: Correct.

16 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. Can you speak 17 to your time on that subcommittee?

18 MR. KENNY CHIU: Mr. O'Toole, the then 19 Conservative leader, appointed me after he became a leader.
20 And when I joined the subcommittee of International Human 21 Rights, it had already completed a thorough study, and the 22 study lasted over a year and a half. And they were ready to 23 publish a report on how the Uyghur Muslim has been treated in 24 Xinjiang.

25 And so I joined them at that moment and they 26 then released the report to the House of Commons to, I think, 27 Foreign Affairs Committee and committee tabled that to the 28 House of Commons. Yeah. And that's the background of it,

1 yeah.

2 We also study many other human rights issues, 3 of course, as that's the committee's mandate.

4 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: It wasn't just focused 5 on China.

6 MR. KENNY CHIU: No.

7 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. And on March 8 27, 2021, the People's Republic of China sanctioned Mr.
9 Michael Chong individually and the subcommittee generally.
10 As a member of the subcommittee, what did you take that to 11 mean, that you were sanctioned as a member of the 12 subcommittee?

13 MR. KENNY CHIU: I guess understandably that 14 is a very confusing signal because sanctions -- international 15 sanctions are very seldomly applied to a Parliamentary 16 committee. And I remember there were committee members who 17 actually stepped down officially as a community member, only 18 to be replaced by somebody else, but in all future committee 19 meetings, he would actually attend as a substitute of that 20 substitute. My reading of that is this is how fearful people 21 are. These are Canadian parliamentarian of the Chinese 22 sanction. And coming from Hong Kong and understanding the 23 Chinese Communist Parties, People Republic of China, I do 24 understand where they're coming from.

25 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: And did you take that 26 to mean as -- did you take that to mean that you could not 27 return or travel to China?

28 MR. KENNY CHIU: Only the Chinese state would 1 be able to answer your question in black and white.

2 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: But did you take that 3 to mean that you couldn't?

4 MR. KENNY CHIU: I -- yes. I -- that's how I 5 interpret it, yes.

6 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: I'd like to move on to 7 a piece of legislation that you tabled during the 43rd 8 Parliament. Bill C282, an Act to establish the Foreign 9 Influence Registry, that is at -- I'll call the doc ID KCH 10 finishing with 69.

11 --- EXHIBIT No. KCH 69:

12 Bill C-282 An Act to establish a 13 Foreign Intfluence Registry

14 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: And we could just 15 scroll through the document. So this is Bill C282 -- excuse 16 me, just go back to the first page. An Act to establish the 17 Foreign Influence Registry, the first reading on April 13, 18 2021. And we can go now to the next page. Okay, the next 19 page. Right. Thank you.

20 Now, Mr. Chiu, I understand that this was a 21 private member's bill that you tabled in the House of Commons
22 in April of 2021?

23 MR. KENNY CHIU: Correct.

24 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. Can you speak a 25 bit about this bill. What was it -- what was it designed to 26 do? What was the purpose of this particular bill?

27 MR. KENNY CHIU: This is actually the result 28 of a year-and-a-half study of my staff and myself. I believe

1 Canada needs transparency into foreign influencers ---

2 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: M'hm.

3 MR. KENNY CHIU: --- and to protect our 4 interest. So at first we were modelling a legislative 5 proposal under the U.S. FARA Scheme, but we noticed that, you
6 know, countries such as the Chinese Communist Party
7 controlled China, and also the general public in Canada has a 8 innate anti-Americanism built in. So we decided not to do 9 that. Besides the FARA Scheme perhaps is too thorough as a 10 lowest hanging fruit to deploy, so we decided to model, 11 switch ourselves and model after the Australian model 12 instead. In Australian, it's called the Foreign Influence 13 Transparency Scheme. And that's how we model what we propose 14 eventually after.

15 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. And what was 16 your particular goal or -- in bringing this bill?

17 MR. KENNY CHIU: My observation, you know, 18 having lived in Canada for several decades, is that there 19 have been a lot of shadowy activities happening under table.
20 And there has also been signs that I read that are increasing 21 foreign influence in our country. I do not want to deny 22 people's rights to carry out those political activity, mostly 23 our political lobbying. So that's why I think, you know, the 24 best would be -- some light would be the best disinfectant, 25 so, you know, keep on doing what you do, just as long as you 26 disclose it, then it's all fine.

27 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: So your bill wasn't 28 designed to prohibit lobbying ---

1 MR. KENNY CHIU: No.

2 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: --- on behalf of 3 foreign governments ---

4 MR. KENNY CHIU: Of course, I would not want 5 to do that.

6 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. And did your -- 7 does the bill mention any specific countries?

8 MR. KENNY CHIU: No, it was by design not to 9 mention any specific country, to remove politics from the 10 whole thing. I have to sign the bill to let the Privy 11 Counsel officers and also the bureaucrats, basically, to 12 define which countries that Canada are subjected to foreign 13 interference and the foreign influence; and, therefore, 14 mandate, you know, in that appendix the list of countries 15 that would -- they would add those name to it and it would 16 enforce the law against them.

17 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. And does your 18 bill make any reference or employ the terms foreign -- 19 hostile foreign state?

20 MR. KENNY CHIU: I don't remember that we 21 have.

22 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. And I
23 understand you brought this bill as a private member's bill?

24 MR. KENNY CHIU: Right.

25 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: And I understand when 26 you brought this bill your party was not the governing party?

27 MR. KENNY CHIU: Correct.

28 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. Did you have

1 the support of your party's caucus?

2 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yes.

3 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. And what 4 happened with this bill? It was tabled in April of 2021, and 5 went to first reading. What happened after that?

6 MR. KENNY CHIU: The dissolution of the 43rd
7 Parliament pretty much puts an end to it.

8 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: With respect to this 9 particular bill, did you solicit the views of your 10 constituents before or after you presented it?

11 MR. KENNY CHIU: It was the first reading, so 12 the initial proposal no, but I actually have a press
13 conference, a virtual press conference called when I tabled 14 that, and there have been very few feedback coming from, you 15 know, constituents on that.

16 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. Now if I move 17 to the 2021 general election, the writs of election were 18 dropped on August 15, 2021. And can you talk to us about 19 getting your campaign up and running and the experiences that 20 you encountered during that campaign in 2021?

21 MR. KENNY CHIU: Well, it was during the 22 pandemic.

23 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: M'hm.

24 MR. KENNY CHIU: And I remember it was just 25 months before that, before the Parliament rises or arose, we 26 started the discussion and the trying to find facts -- fact 27 finding on the Winnipeg National Microbiology Lab, what 28 happened, under what circumstances the scientists were

1 dismissed, their security clearance removed. And there were 2 a lot of talk about anti-Asian racism even coming from the 3 government MPs and even the Prime Ministers in response to 4 our questioning. And as I explained to you, Madam
5 Commissioner, I have a very high regard of Canada's democracy 6 and it was a very disillusion moment when I see that the 7 Parliament of Canada had asked four times for documents for 8 the National Microbiology Lab situations and the government
9 keep on ignoring it and even took the Parliament represented 10 by the speaker to court. And then when that didn't work, the 11 government decided -- or the governing party decided to pull 12 the plug and call an election on that in the midst of a 13 COVID-19 pandemic that we were suffering. So it was a very 14 chaotic moment. It was also a very polarized moment. People 15 -- you know, there have been supportive of a mandate, you 16 know, against mandates, masking and all that.

17 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. And when the -- 18 so if I go directly to the result and then we can maybe ---

19 MR. KENNY CHIU: Sure.

20 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: --- move back from 21 there, you ran for re-election in Steveston-Richmond East and 22 lost to the Liberal candidate by a margin of almost nine per 23 cent.

24 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yes.

25 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Obviously, you lived 26 through that campaign and have had time to reflect and 27 conduct a postmortem on the campaign loss.

28 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yeah.

1 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Can you speak to what 2 you believe are the factors that led you -- or led you losing 3 your seat by a 9 per cent margin only 23 months after you 4 were elected?

5 MR. KENNY CHIU: It was surreal. But when we 6 looked at the voter turnout rate and also in light of some of 7 the misinformation that has been grounding many of the 8 constituents, we understand what happened a little bit 9 better. The voter turnout rate in Steveston-Richmond East in 10 the past three elections has been continuously dropping; from 11 2015's 60.25 percent to 2019's 56.94 percent, to 2021's 52.77
12 percent. In other words, over 3,000 eligible voters did not 13 vote in 2021 when they had voted just a mere 23 months ago.

14 And my opponent garnered -- the number of 15 votes that he garnered was actually lower than the vote that 16 I had in the 2015 election.

17 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: The 2015 election
18 which you lost?

19 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yes, that's right.

20 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Right.

21 MR. KENNY CHIU: But I had 16,630.

22 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. So what you're 23 saying is you had a higher vote count in 2015 during an 24 election loss than your opponent had in 2021 for an election 25 victory?

26 MR. KENNY CHIU: Correct.

27 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay.

28 MR. KENNY CHIU: It was very unusual and

1 surreal, but, you know, given the polarized opinions in 2 China, Hong Kong, the Covid-19 pandemic and all that, and 3 also with my experience, my observation of China getting 4 involved, I wasn't surprised.

5 My staff, however, they were. My English-6 speaking staff, ---

7 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: M'hm.

8 MR. KENNY CHIU: --- campaign staff. They 9 were shocked.

10 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: And obviously we'll be 11 talking about the misinformation and disinformation, the 12 false allegations that were spreading on social media.

13 I will tender, at this time, I'll call up 14 documents -- well I'll tender at this time, KCH1 through 27.

15 --- EXHIBIT No. KCH 1-27:

16 Chat screenshots: Current Events
17 Discussion. News Coverage. (24/7)

18 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: And we'll go through 19 some of those. Those are essentially messages that you've 20 provided to -- or screenshots of messages you've provided to 21 the Commission.

22 And just for everyone's reference, there is a 23 document that translates much of these -- or all of these 24 Chinese language texts, and it's KCH 70.

25 --- EXHIBIT No. KCH 70:

26 Translation of KCH 1-27

27 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: So if we go to KCH1 to 28 start with? And can we just scroll -- maybe zoom out a

1 little bit so we can have a bigger -- okay.

2 And Mr. Chiu, obviously you've provided these 3 to the Commission. Can you -- I understand that these are 4 dated -- or there's no date on them, but you've indicated 5 that it was around September 3rd or September 5th that these 6 messages were captured?

7 MR. KENNY CHIU: Correct.

8 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. Now, if I look 9 at the first message -- and I won't impress anyone with my 10 Chinese reading skills. I'm referring to the translations at 11 KCH70. But that first message at top, it says -- it 12 translates to:

13 "It would be so ironic if the Chinese 14 elect an anti-Chinese political 15 party, wouldn't it?"

16 And then it goes on to say, the next message, 17 at -- by the individual Anthony -- no, just the next message:

18 "Conservative Party- anti-Chinese [...]
19 anti-China, a garbage political party 20 that discriminates against the 21 Chinese!!!"

22 When did you first start -- when did you or 23 your campaign staff first notice these messages circulating 24 on Chinese language social media?

25 MR. KENNY CHIU: At the beginning of 26 September. That's when I started receiving screenshots such 27 as this.

28 Understandably, of course, I would not be

1 privileged to be on the receiving end directly of these 2 messages. I'm not members of these chat rooms and groups.
3 So there's zero opportunity for me to counter, and disprove, 4 and argue.

5 I think that is by design, of course.

6 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: What do you mean by 7 you think it's by design?

8 MR. KENNY CHIU: Well I don't believe, you 9 know, people who would like me to present them evidence why 10 we are not, and why I believe there has been a lot of 11 disinformation being used against my Party leader then, Mr.
12 O'Toole, like, the Conservative Party, and also myself. So, 13 you know, if they give me a chance because I read the 14 language, I speak the language, I would be very effective in 15 countering this disinformation.

16 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. So you had no 17 line of sight into these chat groups?

18 MR. KENNY CHIU: Correct. And what I have 19 provided to the Commission, it's only a sample that has been 20 reported to me ---

21 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: M'hm.

22 MR. KENNY CHIU: --- by my campaign 23 volunteers, who happen to be also ethnic Chinese and were in 24 this group.

25 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Right. So it's beyond
26 the messages that -- the one to 27? There's many more 27 messages and this is just ---

28 MR. KENNY CHIU: That's right.

1 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: --- a sampling?

2 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yes.

3 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. If I continue 4 on to KCH4?

5 And at KCH4, the first message at the top,
6 and in the lighter text at 7:47 p.m. reads:

7 "What matters is [that] O'Toole
8 (vomiting) from Conservative Party is 9 just Trump's follower. Putting him
10 in power is detrimental to Chinese
11 Canadians and to the country's long-12 term interests."

13 Is that correct?

14 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yes. That's approximately 15 correct for the translation.

16 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. And it goes -- 17 if I go on to KCH18? I'm sorry, KCH11. And this text -- if 18 we just scroll out a little bit?

19 And it indicates near the top, "It is too 20 ironic..." And part of the text -- an excerpt of the text I'm 21 reading is:

22 "It is too ironic that in the federal 23 election, the Chinese vote for an 24 anti-Chinese Party (Conservative 25 Party), which is unacceptable to me
26 personally. China is the motherland 27 of the Chinese..."

28 What do you take that to -- how do you

1 interpret that, Mr. Chiu, as a Chinese Canadian?

2 MR. KENNY CHIU: That fits very well of a 3 global narrative that the Chinese Communist Party has been 4 using around the world.

5 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: M'hm.

6 MR. KENNY CHIU: Not just in Canada, but also 7 in Australia, the U.S., U.K., New Zealand, that they are the 8 only legitimate representative of the welfare of ethnic 9 Chinese around the world, regardless whether you're from Hong 10 Kong, Taiwan, or China, or South East Asia, other places.
11 People such as myself, who has not lived one day under their 12 rule, they still believe they are the legitimate 13 spokesperson, advocate, for our benefit. So it fits very 14 well with that narrative.

15 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: And then if I go to 16 KCH16? We'll start with KCH16. Just scroll out a little 17 bit. This message by a user named Patrick. And then through 18 17, 18, and 19. Go down to 18 -- 17. And I understand here 19 -- yeah, so it's at 17 -- or 18, rather.

20 This is -- the last two text messages were 21 referring to matters of Parliament and beginning to discuss 22 your Foreign Influence Bill. Is that correct?

23 MR. KENNY CHIU: That is correct.

24 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. And these -- 25 again, these are messages that are dated around September 3rd
26 or September 5th?

27 MR. KENNY CHIU: That is correct.

28 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. What -- if --

1 before I get into your attempts to counter or -- attempts to 2 counter the narrative, can you speak to your experience on 3 the ground? There obviously wasn't just an online campaign 4 against you. What was your experience like going door to 5 door, for example? Meeting with the constituents?

6 MR. KENNY CHIU: It was very confusing. Like 7 I said, the pandemic, COVID-19, masking mandates, all these 8 are polarising issues, but as an ethnic Chinese, I have no
9 problem wearing a mask myself. Even when go door knocking.
10 Doors that have been opened to me near 20-some months ago, as 11 soon as they heard my Chinese name, (speaking Chinese), they 12 would shut the door in my face.

13 And there have been families, a house I 14 vividly remember door knocking, and they were very supportive 15 in 2019, that they will vote for me, that they would actually 16 allow us to put a lawn sign on their property. This time, 17 when we knock on the door, the lady who opened the door, I 18 even remember her face, she had become emotional, with a deep 19 sense of hurt and hate, and she -- I mean, we didn't bother 20 asking for a lawn sign because she said she is not going to 21 vote for us "because we hate China, because we hate them."

22 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Now, if we could speak 23 a bit about how you attempted to counter the narrative and 24 respond to these allegations that surrounded your private 25 members bill and the maligning of you and your party as anti 26 China, I understand you reached out to media.

27 MR. KENNY CHIU: Correct.

28 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. And perhaps in

1 the interest of time, I won't call up the document on the 2 screen, but I'll reference it as CCC ending in 10.

3 --- EXHIBIT No. CCC 10:

4 Article: Conservatives face ugly
5 barrage over party's China policy
6 [Vancouver Sun]

7 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: It's a Richmond News 8 article titled Richmond Candidate Attacked on WeChat for 9 Proposed Foreign Influence Legislation, dated September 7, 10 2021.

11 And it cites one of the posts circulating on 12 WeChat as stating:

13 "'This bill is going to have 14 extremely negative consequences for 15 immigrants from mainland China. It 16 will also harm economic, cultural and 17 technological exchanges between 18 Canada and China...'"

19 And:

20 "'Although the bill [does not] list 21 which countries belong to the foreign 22 forces, considering the [sourced]
23 relationship between Canada and 24 China...(and Chiu's) anti-China 25 background, undoubtedly this bill is 26 targeting mainland Chinese 27 associations and aims to control or 28 monitor mainland Chinese speech and

1 behaviours...'"

2 Why did you reach out to the English language 3 media in regards to these social media posts on WeChat in 4 Chinese language?

5 MR. KENNY CHIU: It was a campaign
6 calculation because of lack of support, and also means to 7 counter foreign interference in our riding, particularly 8 targeting Mainland Chinese and also Hong Kong Chinese 9 Canadians, we have decided to appeal to the non Chinese 10 speaking population in Richmond. The more we exposed this, 11 we were hoping that we would be able to earn some votes that 12 would compensate what we have lost in the Chinese speaking 13 side that actually is subject to foreign interference.

14 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: In another article, 15 this time the Vancouver Sun, later on on September 14th, you 16 are reported as saying in relation to the social media 17 attacks that "The barrage and falsification, disinformation 18 and personal attacks, it's beyond" your expectation.

19 That's a document at -- I'm sorry, that was 20 CCCC010. I made a mistake in calling up the last document.
21 I'll just reference it. The Richmond News article was KCH 22 68.

23 --- EXHIBIT No. KCH 68:

24 Article: Richmond candidate attacked
25 on WeChat for proposed 'Foreign 26 Influence' legislation

27 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: So going back to the 28 Vancouver Sun article, you -- it's mentioned that you -- the

1 barrage and falsification, disinformation and personal 2 attacks was beyond your expectation. Why was it beyond your 3 expectation?

4 MR. KENNY CHIU: I -- my experience in the 5 House of Commons had led me to believe that the Government of 6 Canada has set up, you know, all these mechanisms to monitor 7 irregularities during the elections. I was a rookie MP, so 8 I'm not, you know, at -- an expert in SITE Task Force, in 9 CIEPP. You know, even the fact that I understand what NSICOP 10 means, NSIRA means, it's already, you know, top marks from my 11 perspective. So I have a very high expectation that I will 12 be protected. And when things come like a tsunami, to me, I 13 was caught by surprise that things like that would allow, and 14 the Government of Canada did not have any clarification to 15 clear my names.

16 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. I'm going to 17 get to some of that a bit later, but I just want to stay with 18 this article for a second. Because it -- in the article, it 19 goes on to cite you as refusing to speculate whether the 20 Chinese Government or its agents are behind the campaign.
21 And you are quoted as saying:

22 "By observation, the message is the 23 same...[b]ut I have no evidence....

24 They...'" (As read)

25 Referring to China:

26 "...and its agents) are the 27 most....'"

28 "But I have no evidence":

1 "'They (China and its agents) are the 2 most experienced infiltrators. They 3 have done it for so many years.
4 They're not going to get caught.'"

5 So I understand this, is that at this point 6 you're refusing to speculate whether there was a state-7 sponsored campaign, but in your interview summary, and 8 elsewhere, you have stated that foreign interference by China 9 was a significant factor in your election loss.

10 Has your view as to whether there was PRC 11 Government-sponsored disinformation campaign against you, has 12 that evolved?

13 MR. KENNY CHIU: Well, as we go into election 14 more and longer, and when I start collecting a collection of 15 these screenshots and see how some of the argument, how 16 ridiculous some of the argument is, how hurtful it is, yeah, 17 I understand that somebody is activating using emotion, 18 weaponizing emotions of our -- of my electorates. And my 19 understanding of the geopolitical situations that Canada is 20 in, by elimination it's unlikely that other country -- 21 hostile country would be doing that, and it would likely be 22 China. And you know, the fact that I stopped having 23 volunteers coming from that background, it's also a sign to 24 me that somebody behind the scenes has actually warned them.

25 If I may actually put on one point about the 26 Richmond News article.

27 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Sure.

28 MR. KENNY CHIU: You notice Richmond News

1 article was written by a reporter, her name is Nono Shen.
2 She is actually a Mainland Chinese, and she has also been 3 privy to many of this information. She even receives some of 4 them. That's why when I speak to her and I ask for 5 clarification opportunity, I do not have to explain any of 6 the background, and right away she would start interviewing 7 me and asking me valid and relevant questions.

8 Daphne from Vancouver Sun, for example, there 9 is a lot of background explanation that I have to go through.
10 And that highlights the difference of, and the powerfulness, 11 and effectiveness of segregated disinformation campaign.

12 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: In your witness 13 summary, there was a mention that while this -- these false 14 allegations maligning your bill and as well as maligning the 15 Conservative Party were circulating, you referred to sort of 16 a media shunning of you in the ---

17 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yes.

18 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: --- Greater Vancouver
19 area. Can you speak to that?

20 MR. KENNY CHIU: The distancing of my friends 21 and also former colleagues when I was a commentator at the -- 22 at these radio stations, newspapers, outlets, and also online 23 form TVs, did not start during the election, it was actually 24 started. You know, when the Uyghur votes was conducted, for 25 example, that had already happened. It -- you know, I was 26 not given a chance to go live on air to explain myself. So 27 during the election, when I -- when I call up on a press 28 conference, it was actually very poorly attended. Whoever

1 attended didn't come. I don't even know if they actually 2 have reported what we have asked.

3 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: So you tried to reach 4 out to Chinese language media in Canada, and they did not 5 pick up the story or give you a platform?

6 MR. KENNY CHIU: In Greater Vancouver. News
7 medias in Greater Vancouver. Ethnic news media in Greater 8 Vancouver.

9 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. I'm going to 10 refer you another -- now to a document, CCC 4.

11 --- EXHIBIT No. CCC 4:

12 Article [Today Commercial News]

13 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Do you recognize this 14 document, Mr. Chiu? Have you seen this before? This is a 15 ---

16 MR. KENNY CHIU: Can you slow down a little 17 bit, ---

18 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Yeah.

19 MR. KENNY CHIU: --- so that I can see the 20 title?

21 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: This is an article in 22 the Today Commercial News ---

23 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yeah.

24 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: --- that appeared on 25 September 9, 2021 titled, "Conservative MP Chiu introduced 26 the registration of foreign forces bill. The registration of 27 foreign forces bill to suppress the Chinese community." The 28 article states, as in the title, that you introduced this

1 bill to suppress the Chinese community in Canada.

2 Did you see this article at the time?

3 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yes, I have. It's hard not 4 to. Yeah, I have.

5 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: And can you tell us
6 what this bill gets wrong about -- sorry; what this article 7 gets wrong about your bill? Was your intent to suppress the 8 Chinese community?

9 MR. KENNY CHIU: Never. As a Chinese-10 Canadian, I understand how difficult it is to be involved, or 11 to involve with Canadian political activities. And I also 12 understand the close relationship with your birthplace, your 13 place of origin. It would not be morally correct to prevent 14 people from engaging in activities such as, you know, keeping 15 in touch with the former schools and the alumni association 16 and all that. So it was never my intent.

17 In fact, by not having a transparency scheme 18 for those special interest people who've been conducting 19 their business under table, it actually hurts the diaspora 20 community's reputation, you know, as a whole. So my thought 21 was by having transparency, by putting everything under the 22 sunlight, you know, we would be able to safeguard our future 23 in Canada.

24 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: The article also 25 mentions -- refers to you as being anti-China. How do you 26 respond to being called anti-China?

27 MR. KENNY CHIU: I do not believe I am anti-28 China. I do not support the Chinese Communist Party because

1 of the historical reasons since they got into power in 1949.
2 That is a matter of fact. But China, it's a country
3 representing many people. You know, billion -- over one 4 billion of them, 1.4, I believe. And you know, it's where my 5 cultural heritage is, and why would I be hating China?

6 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: I'd like to walk you 7 now through some of the Government of Canada directions we 8 received in the last days and weeks -- that the Commission 9 has received. I'll turn now to CAN 00144.

10 --- EXHIBIT No. CAN 144:

11 RRM Canada Open Data Analysis October
12 8, 2021

13 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: This is a document, 14 Mr. Chiu, that received a public release, and it relates to 15 the Rapid Response Mechanism of the Global Affairs Canada.
16 This is an Open Data Analysis report. It's titled, "Chinese 17 state media and Canadian WeChat News Accounts Spread False
18 Narrative about the Conservative Party and Former Candidate 19 Kenny Chiu." It states at page one, I think it's the second 20 bullet:

21 "We do not have clear evidence of a 22 PRC-directed operation, but we have 23 observed strong indicators of a 24 coordinated campaign as well as [the] 25 links between the campaign and the 26 PRC."

27 First of all, have you seen this report 28 before today?

1 MR. KENNY CHIU: No.

2 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: The fourth bullet on 3 the first page refers to:

4 "Three of the Chinese-language news
5 accounts that first circulated a 6 false narrative about Chiu are 7 members of a media partnership with 8 the Chinese state-run media agency, 9 China News Service..., which 10 [according to the RRM] may be under 11 the direct control of the United 12 Front Work Department..., [which is]
13 China's main department for gathering
14 intelligence and influencing diaspora
15 Chinese communities overseas."

16 Can I just stop here, at the small 17 parentheses, and refer to the document CAN 4821?

18 --- EXHIBIT No. CAN 4821:

19 SITE TF Analysis 25 October 2021

20 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Scroll down a bit to 21 -- keep going, please. Right. Now stop here at "For 22 example".

23 So if you see the -- yes, that bullet there.
24 "At least three of these Chinese..." Sorry; this is from the 25 SITE Task Force. It's the same month but from a different 26 entity:

27 "At least three of these Canadian 28 Chinese-language news sites that

1 first circulated a false narrative
2 about Chiu are very likely members of 3 a media partnership with the Chinese 4 state-run media agency, China News
5 Service..."

6 And here's the distinction:

7 "...which is under the direct control
8 of the CCP's United Front Work
9 Department..."

10 Were you aware of this, Mr. Chiu?

11 MR. KENNY CHIU: No.

12 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. I'll go back to 13 the last document, CAN 144.

14 We can scroll down to page -- I believe it's 15 page 2. And at page 2 -- keep going, please. Keep scrolling 16 down. Right.

17 Now it's a "Timeline of events," and I'll go 18 -- I'll jump, in the interests of time, to page 7. Here we 19 go. So on page 7 on -- it is mentioned in this report by the 20 RRM:

21 "On September 6, 105.9 Yes My Radio, a 22 Greater Toronto Area radio station
23 that broadcasts in Mandarin, 24 published an anonymous blog post on 25 the open web titled 'please pay
26 attention to Kenny Chiu's 'foreign 27 power registration act/'..."

28 Were you aware of this article of blog post

1 on 105.9 Yes My Radio?

2 MR. KENNY CHIU: No.

3 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. Do you have any 4 idea why a radio station or a media in the Greater Toronto
5 Area would be interested in you as a candidate in the Greater 6 Vancouver Region?

7 MR. KENNY CHIU: No, I don't understand that, 8 why they would have a focus on a candidate on Steveston-9 Richmond East in British Columbia.

10 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. The -- so you 11 were not aware of this at the time. It's mentioned in this 12 report -- if we keep going down the page, it's mentioned:

13 "The content of the 105.9 Yes My 14 Radio post bear some similarities to 15 the content of the third WeChat group
16 message reported by Glacier Media, 17 and they are likely one in the 18 same,..."

19 It then mentions a series of articles that 20 were circulating in Chinese-language media in Canada on 105.9
21 Yes My Radio, then another news site, another Chinese news 22 site, Global Chinese Convergence Media CGC TV. Are you aware 23 of CGC TV?

24 MR. KENNY CHIU: No, never heard of it.

25 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. And the last 26 one was the Today Commercial News, and you mentioned that 27 that you saw at the time.

28 MR. KENNY CHIU: Correct.

1 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. And so you 2 weren't aware of any of these reportings -- reports at the 3 time?

4 MR. KENNY CHIU: No.

5 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: It goes on to page 9, 6 that's page -- and it mentions at page 9 -- if you go down
7 there just a bit -- that there's also, "...a WeChat account 8 called "CouponKing54.ca [sic]," which had 60,000 subscribers, 9 that:

10 "...shared an anonymous article
11 titled 'Why should Chinese oppose 12 Conservative MP Kenny Chiu?'"

13 And it mentions that it contains:

14 "The content of the article is nearly 15 identical to the one published by 16 Today Commercial News,..."

17 I understand that CouponKing51.ca that's 18 something that you saw; is that correct?

19 MR. KENNY CHIU: I'm not aware of their 20 existence.

21 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. It's not a site 22 that you visit?

23 MR. KENNY CHIU: No.

24 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. I understand 25 you've had a chance to review this report today?

26 MR. KENNY CHIU: Correct.

27 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Is there anything in 28 the report that is news to you, besides these last mentions

1 of the media reporting around that time?

2 MR. KENNY CHIU: There's an observation that 3 I would like to draw your attention to.

4 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: M'hm.

5 MR. KENNY CHIU: In the Today Commercial 6 News, the official publication of that attack piece, you'll 7 notice that they have a link to the private member bill C-8 282.

9 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Right.

10 MR. KENNY CHIU: But there was a typo. There 11 was a missing dot, "ww." and the dot was missing.

12 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: So it was a broken 13 link.

14 MR. KENNY CHIU: It's broken link, so anybody 15 who's interested to find the truth, they would not find that.

16 Secondly, if you go back to some of the 17 screenshots that I provided you, similar lines of attack were 18 used with that same broken link that was embedded. Maybe 19 it's just a coincidence, but it's unlikely, from my 20 perspective.

21 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: I'm aware of the time.
22 I'd just like to cover two more grounds, maybe one-and-a-23 half. You also mentioned a meeting with seniors in your ---

24 MR. KENNY CHIU: Correct.

25 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: --- electoral district
26 in an attempt to counter the narrative of the false 27 allegations being spread against you on social media. Can we 28 speak to that?

1 MR. KENNY CHIU: Seniors have a very special 2 position in a family hierarchy.

3 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: M'hm.

4 MR. KENNY CHIU: Many Chinese family would 5 listen to and respect their opinion. And so we figured with 6 all these disinformation in around September 3rd, we decided 7 that we -- when I say "we" this time is MP -- former MP Alice 8 Wong and I, she's the candidate for Richmond Centre and I was 9 the Conservative candidate for Steveson-Richmond East. We -- 10 -

11 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Mr. Chiu, can you just 12 speak a bit ---

13 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Oh.

14 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: --- more slowly ---

15 MR. KENNY CHIU: Oh.

16 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Someone reminded me.

17 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Sorry. Sorry, it was 18 probably me ---

19 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Probably you.

20 MR. KENNY CHIU: Oh, pardon me. Sorry. So 21 the two of us have organized a meeting to meet up with these 22 seniors. They were very concerned. And in that two, three 23 hours meeting, they open up their heart. They express how 24 worried they is -- they are if Canada started persecuting 25 Chinese. And I totally agree. We -- I even shed some tears 26 with them because I identified a kind of fear that they are 27 subjected to. In the end, they were all testified, and they 28 all left relatively happy.

1 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: And what happened
2 subsequent to that meeting?

3 MR. KENNY CHIU: Pictures started to 4 circulate to myself that this same group of seniors have 5 shown up at my opponent's campaign office and take picture 6 with him, and also started campaigning for him.

7 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: And that was how long 8 after you noticed that you had this meeting with the seniors?

9 MR. KENNY CHIU: One or two days.

10 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: We've seen the social 11 media posts throughout the government productions and the 12 documents that are available to the parties and will be 13 entered into evidence as well. There's the social media 14 post, the media articles that take issues with you as a 15 candidate and your bill and your party. What do you respond 16 to people that claim that, sure, there may have been some 17 false and spurious claims about you and your bill, but wasn't 18 it just legitimate debate among Chinese Canadians?

19 MR. KENNY CHIU: When I am not aware of that 20 disinformation, when I am not given a chance to dispute, when 21 there is no counterinformation being provided, when no offer 22 is for the audience to actually look at the bill themselves, 23 the link, it is not a debate at all. It's just one-sided 24 propaganda.

25 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: And, obviously, wisdom 26 and great ideas come easy after a storm, but in light of the 27 information you have today and the information that you see 28 that was available to the government agencies at the time, is

1 there anything that you would have done or could have done 2 differently knowing -- could have done differently?

3 MR. KENNY CHIU: I may not have run for 4 office because as an immigrant, it's already very challenging 5 to build a life here in Canada. To go into public service, 6 it's even more challenging. I -- you know, when I became a 7 school board trustee, I intentionally severed my ties with my 8 relatives in China, with the understanding that I will put 9 them in danger. And, you know, in 2021, unfortunately, it 10 seems like my worry has come true. But then I thought I 11 would be protected by my country, and I was deeply troubled, 12 disappointed that I was exposed, and the government doesn't 13 seem to care. And now that through the Commission I've 14 learned that they've known all about it, it's almost like I 15 was drowning, and they are watching, and the best they could 16 do, by the way, is to let me know that I'm drowning. I don't 17 need their notification. I need their help. And so that's 18 the overall disappointment mixing with a emotion of anger 19 that I have. And, yes, I do not believe the way the Chinese 20 Communist Party treating people in Hong Kong or even just 21 general Chinese, let alone Uyghur Muslims are right and 22 justifiable. But I -- by and large, I have focussed on how I 23 can propose, my party can propose a view, a way of how Canada 24 can be governed better. And for that, I've been betrayed.
25 That's how I see it.

26 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. Just a final 27 topic that I'd like to cover before ---

28 MR. KENNY CHIU: Just ---

1 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: --- giving you the 2 last word.

3 MR. KENNY CHIU: --- just one more ---

4 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Sure.

5 MR. KENNY CHIU: --- one more minor point.

6 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Yeah.

7 MR, KENNY CHIU: And as a visible minority, 8 as a racialized Chinese Canadians, for somebody who would 9 voice up to -- for the benefit of Canada in the House of 10 Commons when I heard hurtful remarks, not just from any MP, 11 but from the Prime Minister of Canada when we asked about the 12 Wuhan rioters, when we asked why are we not shutting down 13 flights from Wuhan in early 2020, because of our constituents 14 who are from China asking us why are we exposing Canada to 15 that, so we asked that question in House of Commons, the 16 answer has always been, you know, mindful of racism, you 17 know, don't be an anti-Asian. To me, as an Asian Canadian, 18 it's very insulting, and for that to come from the top leader 19 of our country, it's doubling insult with injury -- doubling 20 injury with insults.

21 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. And you
22 mentioned -- I think it was mentioned in your witness 23 statement that that's -- without attributing any intent, that 24 that sort of played into the CCP playbook.

25 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yes. That's what I said, 26 and I still believe in it. There is some coincidental 27 situations between the two.

28 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: M'hm.

1 MR. KENNY CHIU: The Prime Minister said, you
2 know, don't be anti-Asian. If you inquire about what 3 happened in, you know, Wuhan, what happened in Winnipeg
4 Microbiology Lab, don't be anti, you know, Chinese. I don't 5 know if the Chinese Communist government had learned of this 6 line of attack and copied it, or maybe it's the Prime 7 Minister who actually -- and the Liberal Party had actually 8 copied that attack, but the matter of fact is, this anti-9 Asian, you know, Chinese hate and racism line has been 10 continuous and used in collab by the CCP in my riding against 11 me, but also as you have provided me with information, even 12 in Toronto against myself, against my party, against Erin
13 O'Toole.

14 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: And I understand that 15 you reported the -- you reported these -- this campaign, 16 these false allegations circulating on -- in media and social 17 media. Did you report it to any -- so you reported that to 18 the party central. Did you report it to -- I understand you 19 also reported it to CSIS at the time?

20 MR. KENNY CHIU: I have instructed my staff
21 to provide the information to party central, the Conservative 22 party central, but, yes, because before the election, CSIS 23 had come to me and warned me about, you know, situations that 24 I am not at the liberty to disclose. But at the same time, 25 when -- during the election when I start seeing these -- this 26 information, I remember the contact that I have at CSIS, so I 27 pick up the phone and asked to meet him.

28 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. And what time -

1 - when was that about? Just ---

2 MR. KENNY CHIU: It would be the -- you know, 3 maybe first -- after first week. It will be in second week
4 of September.

5 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. So it was 6 during the campaign.

7 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yes, it was during the writ 8 period for sure.

9 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay. Mr. Chiu, my 10 time is up, but I promised you a last word, so if you have 11 anything that we did not cover today that you'd like to 12 mention, I'd like to give you that opportunity.

13 MR. KENNY CHIU: Well, thank you. Thank you.
14 Madam Commissioner, I thank you for giving me 15 the opportunity and also, a few days ago, we have heard from 16 diaspora communities the deep hurt and danger situations that 17 we have put in many Canadians in Canada by inaction. And I 18 implore you to look, you know, deep into the situations and 19 consider suggestions and ways that would protect these 20 communities.

21 Like Mr. O'Toole had testified in front of 22 you, there are many communities around Canada that are in 23 relative isolation and we must, as a great country, endeavour 24 to reach out to them. The current situation, the current 25 system is not working.

26 As I said, as a drowning person, I don't need 27 to be notified that I am drowning even if it meets the 28 threshold. What we need, perhaps, as a country is a

1 mechanism that would clear the air using Government of Canada
2 brand, you know, for these diaspora community. That's what I 3 would table as a suggestion to you, Your Honour, and I would 4 appreciate if you can consider that.

5 Thank you.

6 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Thank you.

7 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Thank you very much.

8 We'll break for lunch. We'll come back at 9 2:40.

10 THE REGISTRAR: Order please.

11 The hearing is in recess until 2:40.

12 --- Upon recessing at 1:29 p.m./

13 --- Upon resuming at 2:44 p.m./

14 THE REGISTRAR: Order please.

15 This sitting of the Foreign Interference
16 Commission is back in session.

17 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: So we'll start with the 18 cross-examination.

19 The first one, you're already there, so 20 acting for the Conservative Party, Me De Luca.

21 --- MR. KENNY CHIU, Resumed/Sous le même serment:

22 --- CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. NANDO de LUCA:

23 MR. NANDO de LUCA: Thank you, 24 Commissioner.

25 Good afternoon, Mr. Chiu.

26 MR. KENNY CHIU: Good afternoon.

27 MR. NANDO de LUCA: Mr. Chiu, towards the 28 end of your testimony this morning in reflecting upon your

1 experiences of foreign interference in connection with the 2 2021 federal election, you expressed the sentiment that 3 particularly as an immigrant Canadian, you felt betrayed. Do 4 you recall that?

5 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yes.

6 MR. NANDO de LUCA: Betrayed by whom?

7 MR. KENNY CHIU: By those who are in power of 8 this country representing the best interests of the country.

9 MR. NANDO de LUCA: Can you be more 10 specific?

11 MR. KENNY CHIU: In my view, not wanting to 12 be over partisan, it's the Prime Minister. The buck stops 13 there. He let me down.

14 MR. NANDO de LUCA: Can I please get you 15 CANDO 000024 called up, please?

16 Do you have that before you, Mr. Chiu?

17 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yes. Yes.

18 MR. NANDO de LUCA: We heard earlier that 19 this is a summary prepared by the Government of Canada of a 20 briefing that CSIS gave to you on September 18, 2023 21 regarding foreign interference in the 2021 General Election; 22 correct?

23 MR. KENNY CHIU: That is correct.

24 MR. NANDO de LUCA: And that election took 25 place on September 20, 2021; correct?

26 MR. KENNY CHIU: That is correct.

27 MR. NANDO de LUCA: Did you get an 28 understanding on September 18, 2023 why CSIS was only giving

1 you a briefing then about foreign interference that took 2 place for an election two years earlier?

3 MR. KENNY CHIU: It wasn't explained to me, 4 no.

5 MR. NANDO de LUCA: Mr. Chiu, in connection 6 with the 2019 and 2021 General Election, can you please 7 comment on the usefulness or lack of usefulness of CSIS, the 8 RCMP and any other Canadian security apparatus efforts to 9 track and combat foreign interference?

10 MR. KENNY CHIU: In 2019, perhaps, it was 11 still at the time of being established and also running 12 through teething problems, et cetera, et cetera, but I 13 participated in the 43rd election, 2019 election, without 14 much anticipation of mechanisms that would counter foreign 15 interference. And then throughout my two years at the House 16 of Commons, I've learned about these what I've termed the 17 alphabet soup: GAC, that's Global Affairs Canada; CSIS of 18 course everybody knows; the SIWTE Taskforce; Security and 19 Intelligence Threats to Elections Taskforce; and then so on 20 and so forth. There's RM, P5, NSICOP, CSE, CCE, EFCC, and 21 then CIEPP. All these.

22 So the impression I have is it's a well-23 resourced net of protective mechanisms. And so I gradually 24 developed what is now to me, it's a false sense of security.
25 And that was -- that's why I was deeply disappointed after 26 the 2021 election.

27 MR. NANDO de LUCA: Okay. When you say false 28 sense of security, did you have higher expectations for all

1 of those groups or bodies?

2 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yes, I have expectations.
3 Perhaps it's undue. Perhaps it's, you know, unrealistic
4 expectations perhaps. But, you know, I've collected 15
5 acronyms that are involved with elections security and I 6 don't think it's expecting too much to get a call from one of 7 these organizations and offer their advice how to counter 8 interference such as the ones that I've encountered.

9 MR. NANDO de LUCA: So back to my question, 10 would you -- am I correct in assuming that you would 11 characterise the utility or usefulness of all of these 12 organizations in relation to foreign election interference, 13 especially for the 2021 election, as not being terribly 14 useful?

15 MR. KENNY CHIU: As of this moment, I would 16 have to agree with that.

17 MR. NANDO de LUCA: Okay.

18 MR. KENNY CHIU: After the election, in fact 19 the CSIS briefing that you cited in 2023, September, was the 20 very first one that any government agency had approached me 21 and contacted me. I was hoping that Special Rapporteur Mr.
22 Johnston would actually have been in touch with me, but he 23 did not.

24 MR. NANDO de LUCA: Mr. Chiu, based on your 25 experiences with the elections that you participated in, 26 2015, 2019, and 2021, the federal campaigns, can you please 27 tell the Commission how Chinese Canadians can be influenced 28 and coerced to support the PRC regime, including via the 1 Canadian election process?

2 MR. KENNY CHIU: Once the immigrants who have 3 settled in big cities, like Greater Toronto or Greater 4 Vancouver, they have a choice of relying more on ethnic media 5 from -- for their updates, and their news, and their 6 viewpoints. And that exactly is why for over 15 years I've 7 been involved with Chinese news media, because I want to 8 develop or provide different angles for our listeners, our 9 audience, our citizens to consider in terms of Canadian 10 politics.

11 And so imagine if for years they developed a 12 reliance and dependency on media sources that are somehow 13 somewhat controlled or influenced by a foreign power, 14 willingly or unwillingly. You pretty much will have control 15 of how these people get their source of information, how they 16 perceive an issue.

17 In a previous hearing, I believe how Ukraine 18 -- the war -- the invasion of Russia into Ukraine, that could 19 have been portrayed, in fact indeed it has, in some of the 20 Chinese media to align more with the Chinese Communist 21 Party's positions than the Canadian general public ones.

22 MR. NANDO de LUCA: Okay. And from your 23 answer, it sounds like there's at least a potential for 24 influence or control by the PRC, how prevalent a problem or 25 pervasive a problem do you think it is with the current 26 sources?

27 MR. KENNY CHIU: It's definitely a
28 vulnerability. It's an exposure. All we have power to look

1 at is what happens in Canada. Who is to say, for example, if 2 somehow they do business in mainland China, and all of a 3 sudden, certain owners of a radio station in Canada, the 4 relative gets a huge contract. What happens overseas, we 5 have no jurisdictions. We have no information about. And 6 that is the exposure, that is the vulnerability of ownership 7 and directing and influencing the media positioning and also 8 as well as the direction that they are going.

9 MR. NANDO de LUCA: Thank you. Those are my 10 questions.

11 MR. KENNY CHIU: Thank you.

12 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Thank you.
13 Counsel for Michael Chong?

14 MR. GIB van ERT: Thank you, Commissioner.
15 No questions.

16 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: No questions?
17 Counsel for the Human Rights Coalition?

18 --- CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MS. HANNAH TAYLOR:

19 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: Good morning, Mr. Chiu.

20 MR. KENNY CHIU: Good morning. Good 21 afternoon.

22 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: Oh, good afternoon.

23 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yes.

24 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: Good afternoon, Mr. Chiu.
25 So you mentioned this morning that now that you've learned 26 that intelligence agencies knew what was happening to you and 27 what you were experiencing, it's as if you were drowning 28 while they watched and the best they could do is to let you

1 know you were drowning. And you can let me know if I've 2 misquoted you. You noted that you did not need their 3 notification, you needed their help.

4 What support and protections did you need as 5 you were drowning?

6 MR. KENNY CHIU: As the Prime Minister was 7 giving me all the alphabets, through my mind, I was replaying 8 September 20th during the election, or at the end of the 9 election, or during the election, what would I do if I were 10 told officially by SITE Taskforce, or through the 11 Conservatives, whatever, that my riding has been under 12 foreign interference? I would have no answer to that because 13 we started detecting irregularities starting, like, early 14 September ourselves. And we have taken steps to protect 15 ourselves. We have taken steps to clear the air, but to no 16 effect that we found all the work that we've done.

17 So one big question I have in mind would be 18 instead of just notifying me, that's why I was suggesting to 19 Madam Commissioner that if we could develop an effective way 20 of communicating to the diaspora communities that are the 21 target of foreign powers exploitation, I think that would 22 help tremendously. And that's what I came up with when I 23 sort of go back in time and think about.

24 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: Okay. Thank you, Mr.
25 Chiu.

26 With your leave, Commissioner, I hope to put 27 a document to Mr. Chiu today. We didn't include it in our 28 cross-examination request, but at the evening of April 1st,

1 we let Commission counsel know that we intended to ask for 2 your leave to put the document to the witness. It's the 3 interview summary of Benjamin Fung. It's at WIT 5.EN. If 4 granted leave, I would ask that it be entered as an exhibit.

5 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Can you put the document 6 on the screen?

7 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: For the Court Reporter,
8 it's -- or Court Operator, it's WIT 5.EN.

9 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: It's fine. You can ask 10 your question.

11 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: Thank you, Commissioner.
12 And Mr. Chiu, my focus with this document 13 will just be ---

14 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Excuse me, Madam
15 Commissioner. We didn't advise -- excuse me for 16 interrupting. We didn't advise the parties of the document 17 that's being put to the witness, so maybe if we just give the 18 parties five or 10 minutes to review the document? It's the 19 witness summary of Benjamin Fung, which is WIT 5.

20 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Surely. But what I
21 suggest is we'll just wait for the question, ---

22 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Okay.

23 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: --- and then we'll break 24 to let everyone take a look at the document.

25 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: Sure.

26 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Do you have more than 27 one question ---

28 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: For my ---

1 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: --- from this document, 2 or?

3 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: It would be a couple
4 questions. I would -- the easiest might be to, like, go 5 through -- well, I can make it one, if it's easiest, I can 6 make it one.

7 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Okay.

8 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: Yeah, okay. Sure, I'll 9 make it one.

10 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Is it going to be along 11 one?

12 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: No, no.

13 So Mr. Chiu, again, the question that I'll 14 have for you having to do with the summary, really what I'll 15 do is I'm just going to point to a couple of the social media 16 platforms Mr. Fung mentions in this summary, and then ask you 17 questions about those.

18 MR. KENNY CHIU: Okay.

19 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: So if it's easiest, I can 20 just point them out and then we can take a break, perhaps?

21 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Yes.

22 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: It's up to you, of 23 course.

24 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Yes.

25 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: Okay.

26 So Mr. Fung's interview summary notes that 27 beginning in the September 2021, this information about you 28 and criticism of the Conservative party began being shared on

1 several social media platforms, including WeChat, which we 2 see at paragraph 6, if we could just scroll down. And then 3 you'll notice WeChat's mentioned in there, and then also 4 WhatsApp, which we see at paragraph 7 on the next page.

5 And you see that, Mr. Chiu?

6 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yes.

7 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: And so from your 8 perspective, are these primary social media platforms and 9 messaging apps for Chinese-Canadians, including those who 10 were your constituents?

11 MR. KENNY CHIU: Am I to answer right now, 12 or...?

13 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: No. I think, then, 14 we'll break.

15 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: Okay.

16 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Because everyone will 17 review the document, or at least the paragraphs that are 18 useful. So I don't think -- is the document very long, 19 or...? No? So we'll take just five minutes.

20 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: Okay, thank you.

21 THE REGISTRAR: Order, please

22 This hearing is now in recess for five 23 minutes.

24 --- Upon recessing at 2:58 p.m./

25 --- Upon resuming at 3:03 p.m./

26 THE REGISTRAR: This hearing of the 27 Commission on Foreign Interference is back in session. Cette 28 séance de la Commission sur l'Ingérence Étrangère a repris.

1 --- MR. KENNY CHIU, Resumed/Sous le même serment:

2 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: May I ask you just to 3 warn the witness that the document has not been filed yet?
4 The document that you're using, the summary, is not part of 5 the evidence yet.

6 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: Yeah, yes.

7 Mister...

8 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Just for the witness to 9 know.

10 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: Yeah.

11 --- CROSS-EXAMINATION BY/CONTRE-INTERROGATOIRE PAR

12 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR, (Cont'd/Suite):

13 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: Mr. Chui, the document is 14 not part of the evidence yet, as the person whose witness 15 statement it is isn't...

16 MR. KENNY CHIU: Thank you. Appreciate that.

17 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: So going back to my 18 actual question, we were looking at WeChat and WhatsApp.

19 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yeah.

20 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: From your perspective,
21 are these primary social media platforms and messaging apps 22 for Chinese-Canadians, including those who are your 23 constituents?

24 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yes.

25 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: Okay.

26 MR. KENNY CHIU: But it's not an exclusive 27 list because in China technology is developing very rapidly.
28 Every couple of years you will start seeing new apps. For

1 example, one of them, it's Xiaohongshu, and this is becoming 2 more popular, even in Taiwan, and it's now coming to other -- 3 to the rest of the world, such as Canada.

4 And so, yes, TikTok, Douyin, WeChat, QQ, but 5 also the up and coming ones.

6 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: Thank you, Mr. Chiu.

7 And you mentioned QQ. Mr. Fung's interview
8 summary, and perhaps in the interest of time I won't bring 9 you to the paragraphs, but he also mentions that 10 disinformation about you and/or criticism about the 11 Conservative Party and Erin O'Toole was published by Chinese 12 language media outlets and news websites like Today
13 Commercial News, QQ, Chinesecanadianvoice.ca, the Global 14 Times, and Rise Magazine.

15 From your perspective, are these primary news 16 sources for Chinese-Canadians, including those who are your 17 constituents?

18 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yes.

19 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: And from your 20 perspective, was the spread of disinformation about you and 21 criticism of the Conservative Party through these particular 22 social media platforms and news outlets, as well as what you 23 have described as your effective shunning from ethnic news 24 media in the Greater Vancouver Area, in particular, 25 significant?

26 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yes. Although the list of 27 media is not exclusive, so there are other medias that are 28 engaging more into self-censorship, for example, that also

1 play into the whole game as well.

2 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: And these are Chinese 3 language ---

4 MR. KENNY CHIU: Correct.

5 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: --- outlets?

6 MR. KENNY CHIU: Correct.

7 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: Okay.

8 If we could turn to -- scroll down to 9 paragraph 10 in the witness summary?

10 At paragraph 10, Mr. Fung says:

11 "Reproducing the same text nearly 12 verbatim is very typical of CCP
13 propaganda. A small deviation from a 14 source text might prompt 15 repercussions against the author if 16 it's thought to convey the wrong
17 meaning. As a result, authors will 18 often hesitate to make even small 19 changes and will hew closely to the 20 original text." (As read)

21 In your review of the disinformation shared 22 about you, did you notice a pattern in similar messaging, 23 almost verbatim texts among a number of indirect ---

24 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yes.

25 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: Yes?

26 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yes, I have. And they share 27 similar attack arguments, and also even the insults are 28 identical.

1 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: Thank you.

2 Based on your understanding of the Chinese 3 government's treatment of those who oppose its actions, would 4 you agree that your public stance on China issues and your 5 support, or perceived support of Hong Kongers and Uyghurs, 6 was likely one of the reasons that you became a target of the 7 Chinese government?

8 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yes.

9 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: Those are all my 10 questions.

11 Thank you, Commissioner. Thank you, Mr.
12 Chiu.

13 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Thank you.

14 Attorney General.

15 --- CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS:

16 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: Good afternoon, sir.
17 My name is Gregory Tzemenakis; I'm counsel for the Attorney 18 General.

19 MR. KENNY CHIU: Good afternoon.

20 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: I have four quick 21 areas I would like to touch upon to just clarify the 22 evidence. I'm going to ask the Court Reporter to pull up 23 your witness statement, which is 000014.

24 In your evidence this morning, sir, you said 25 -- and please correct me if I'm wrong at any point -- that 26 foreign interference activities was a factor in the loss of 27 -- in your riding in general election 2021; correct?

28 MR. KENNY CHIU: Correct. More specifically,

1 foreign interference from China from the PRC.

2 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: And did I also 3 understand you to say that foreign interference was not the 4 only factor that -----

5 MR. KENNY CHIU: That is correct.

6 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: --- might have 7 contributed to the loss?

8 MR. KENNY CHIU: That is correct. Just like 9 any other elections, there are multiple actors at play.

10 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: Thank you.

11 I'm going to ask if we can turn to paragraph 12 41 of your witness summary, and I just want to clarify, sir, 13 that in addition to the evidence that you gave this morning, 14 does this paragraph -- is this paragraph still consistent 15 with your view? And the paragraph reads -- I'm not going to 16 read the whole paragraph -- or I will for the record:

17 "Although foreign interference by 18 China was a significant factor in his 19 election loss, Mr. Chiu acknowledges 20 it was not the only factor. Other 21 factors likely contributed to the 22 outcome. The election took place in 23 a very politically polarized climate 24 after..."

25 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Excuse me.

26 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Yes.

27 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: It's just -- sorry,

28 ---

1 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: You're going too fast.

2 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Yes.

3 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: Okay.

4 I'm not going to read it, sir. Can you just 5 confirm for us that the context of this paragraph still 6 remains true, given your evidence this morning?

7 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yes.

8 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: Now, sir, I want to 9 talk a little bit on another topic about information flow, 10 and I heard you say this morning that some of the concerns 11 about misinformation you raised with the national campaign, 12 so with the campaign of the Conservative Party of Canada that 13 was managing the national campaign. Is that right?

14 MR. KENNY CHIU: The Conservative Party of 15 Canada has provided a lot of leeway for local campaigns to 16 conduct itself. But we do have -- maintained a conduit to 17 provide information to communicate with the central campaign.
18 So my staff, for example, my campaign manager, he has 19 participated in that mechanism; he's the point man.

20 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: Okay. Did you 21 understand -- do you know if the campaign asked any of the 22 concerns that your staff expressed to the SITE Task Force?

23 MR. KENNY CHIU: Not directly for sure.

24 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: Do you expect ---

25 MR. KENNY CHIU: However, we -- I have 26 instructed my staff to talk to the central campaign about our 27 situation that we're facing.

28 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: Okay, I get that

1 part. I'm just asking if you understood -- did the campaign 2 ever tell you that they passed your concerns along ---

3 MR. KENNY CHIU: Oh.

4 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: --- to the SITE Task 5 Force?

6 MR. KENNY CHIU: The Conservative 7 headquarters, whether they have?

8 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: Yes.

9 MR. KENNY CHIU: No, I don't think I have 10 heard from the central campaign whether they have or not.

11 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: Thank you.

12 I want to talk a little bit about -- and 13 appreciating that I do not want you to get into any 14 classified information whatsoever, am I correct that you met 15 with the Canadian Security Intelligence Service for a 16 security awareness briefing prior to GE 2021?

17 MR. KENNY CHIU: That is correct.

18 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: And did you also 19 meet with them during the writ period to discuss other 20 matters?

21 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yes, per my request.

22 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: Per your request.

23 MR. KENNY CHIU: I called them and I have 24 them come to my campaign office to talk to them.

25 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: Did you have any other 26 meetings with the service during the writ period, other than 27 that one occasion?

28 MR. KENNY CHIU: No. I feel like I need to 1 clarify ---

2 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: Please.

3 MR. KENNY CHIU: --- that the meeting that 4 CSIS contacted me while I was still an MP, prior to the 5 election, of course. They would not explain to me why they 6 want to talk to me. They sat down, they only asked me 7 questions and I provided answer, and that was it.

8 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: Okay.

9 I'm not going to get into the specifics of it 10 ---

11 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yeah, yeah.

12 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: --- but I don't want 13 you to lie.

14 MR. KENNY CHIU: I would not be able to 15 answer you.

16 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: That's fine.

17 My last or second-last topic is we were 18 talking a little bit about the misinformation campaign on 19 WeChat and other Chinese language media. Do you recall that 20 discussion?

21 And my friend just took you to excerpts from 22 the testimony and identified certain media organizations and 23 social media platforms.

24 MR. KENNY CHIU: SITE Task Force, yeah.

25 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: No, no, the platform
26 where there was misinformation.

27 MR. KENNY CHIU: Okay.

28 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: So ---

1 MR. KENNY CHIU: As observed by our end.

2 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: As observed by your 3 campaign.

4 MR. KENNY CHIU: By my campaign, yes. Yes.
5 The screenshots.

6 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: And I understood you 7 to say that you could not -- well, let me ask a different 8 question.

9 As a candidate, do you agree that voters may 10 not understand a Party's position or a Party's platform and 11 that efforts need to be made to explain and clarify positions 12 and platforms?

13 MR. KENNY CHIU: I think so, yeah. It would 14 be -- it would be the job of a candidate, for example, to 15 articulate that. Sure.

16 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: And it's -- I'm 17 going to suggest to you, and I think it's not contested, that 18 it's not only the job of the candidate, it's the job of the 19 candidate, it's the job of the Party, it's the job of the 20 national and local candidates. Is that fair?

21 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yeah, I think so. Just like 22 the Government of Canada is responsible for clarifying 23 untruth about legislative matter that in the House of 24 Commons, for example ---

25 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: Right.

26 MR. KENNY CHIU: --- Bill C288.

27 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: And isn't it also 28 true that people and individuals can express opinions that

1 you may not agree with or that others may not agree with, but 2 that's part of the electoral process?

3 MR. KENNY CHIU: Oh, definitely. Sure.

4 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: And it's part of the 5 democratic process.

6 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yeah.

7 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: You just have to say 8 "yes" or "no" for the record.

9 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yes.

10 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: Yes.

11 And my question to you is, you become aware 12 of these communications that are taking place on WeChat and I 13 heard you say you didn't have an ability to engage in the 14 debate because you weren't a user. Is that fair?

15 MR. KENNY CHIU: That's right. I don't use 16 WeChat.

17 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: So how did you 18 become aware and could those who made you aware have ---

19 MR. KENNY CHIU: Through my volunteers and my 20 supporters. They used WeChat and they have seen all these 21 disinformation being circulated.

22 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: And could your 23 volunteers -- and we'll talk about volunteers in particular.

24 Could the volunteers on your campaign have 25 engaged or have put forward your correct position or 26 clarified your position or explained your position on these 27 platforms?

28 MR. KENNY CHIU: I believe you are searching

1 a rational discussion in the heat of a very emotionally-2 charged disinformation campaign. That would be nearly 3 impossible. The very fact that the group of seniors who came 4 to me -- came to us, myself and MP -- former MP Alice Wong, 5 we explained to them we thought we have, quote unquote, 6 disarmed them and we clearly articulated what exactly my 7 proposal, Bill C282, it's supposed to do. That did not help.

8 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: My last question is 9 this. You made a very conscious effort to do that with the 10 seniors in a very emotional meeting, but no similar effort 11 was made on the WeChat platforms. Am I right on -- if I have 12 it wrong, please tell me I'm wrong.

13 MR. KENNY CHIU: No, that -- you are correct.

14 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: Okay.

15 MR. KENNY CHIU: You are correct.

16 MR. GREGORY TZEMENAKIS: Thank you very much, 17 sir.

18 MR. KENNY CHIU: Yeah.

19 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Thank you.

20 Re-examination, Mr. Ferguson?

21 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: If you'd just allow me 22 a moment, Madam Commissioner.

23 MR. KENNY CHIU: Madam Commissioner, I was 24 wondering if I could add just one sentence to that very last 25 answer.

26 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Yes, you can.

27 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: It may save the re-28 examination.

1 MR. KENNY CHIU: The Member of Parliament, 2 the House of Commons has prohibited us from using WeChat when 3 I was a Member of Parliament because of security concern. It 4 was just weeks ago I was an MP and then during the election, 5 I'm not. And knowing the danger that I'm submitting myself
6 to, we have made a conscious decision not to get a WeChat 7 account nor engage with people on WeChat.

8 Thank you.

9 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Thank you.

10 MR. MATTHEW FERGUSON: No further questions.

11 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Thank you.

12 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: I think we just need 13 -- sorry, Madam Commissioner. It's -- we just need five 14 minutes to switch to the next witness.

15 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: To switch to the next 16 witness?

17 Thank you very much, Mr. Chiu, and good luck.

18 MR. KENNY CHIU: Thank you.

19 THE REGISTRAR: Order please.

20 The hearing is in recess until five minutes.

21 --- Upon recessing at 3:16 p.m./

22 --- Upon resuming at 3:21 p.m./

23 THE REGISTRAR: Order please.

24 This sitting of the Foreign Interference
25 Commission is back in session.

26 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Good afternoon,
27 Ms. Kwan.

28 HON. JENNY KWAN: Good afternoon.

1 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: So Me Rodriguez, it's 2 your turn.

3 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Thank you very much.
4 If we can have the witness affirmed, please.

5 THE REGISTRAR: Could you please state your 6 name for the record, and spell your last name, please.

7 HON. JENNY KWAN: Jenny Kwan, K-W-A-N.

8 --- HON. JENNY KWAN, Affirmed:

9 --- EXAMINATION IN-CHIEF BY MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ:

10 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Good afternoon,
11 Ms. Kwan.

12 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: I just want to make sure 13 that ---

14 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Yes.

15 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: --- it's fine if they 16 are not ---

17 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Oh.

18 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: --- present ---

19 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: I did not ---

20 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: --- your colleagues?

21 It's okay? I see that your two friends ---

22 MR. ADDISON LEIGH: Yes, I think they're just 23 on their way back, Madam Commissioner.

24 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Pardon me?

25 MR. ADDISON LEIGH: I think they're just on 26 their way back, Madam Commissioner. I can go take a look.

27 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Okay, but I think we'll 28 wait just to make sure that ---

1 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Yes.

2 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: --- they are with us
3 before we start. Sorry. Is there anybody else missing or 4 it's fine? Because I see many empty seats. It's okay? I 5 haven't noticed if all the seats were -- no, okay. There 6 is....

7 Okay. So you can go on.

8 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. Thank you very 9 much.

10 Good afternoon, Ms. Kwan. Good to see you 11 again. As you know, my name is Natalia Rodriguez. I'm 12 Commission Counsel.

13 On February 15, 2024, you had an interview
14 with Commission Counsel; is that right?

15 HON. JENNY KWAN: That is correct.

16 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And an interview
17 summary was generated from that interview.

18 HON. JENNY KWAN: That's correct.

19 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And I'm now going to 20 call up WIT 12.EN.

21 --- EXHIBIT No. WIT 12.EN:

22 Interview Summary: Jenny Kwan

23 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And Ms. Kwan, is this 24 the interview summary that was generated from your interview 25 with Commission Counsel?

26 HON. JENNY KWAN: Yes, it is.

27 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And you've had a 28 chance to review that summary for accuracy?

1 HON. JENNY KWAN: Yes.

2 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And do you have any 3 corrections, additions, or deletions to make to that summary 4 at this time?

5 HON. JENNY KWAN: I do not.

6 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And do you adopt the 7 contents of this summary as part of your evidence before the 8 Commission today?

9 HON. JENNY KWAN: I do.

10 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Great. So we'll have 11 that entered as the next exhibit. And for the record, the 12 French translation is at WIT 12.FR.

13 --- EXHIBIT No. WIT 12.FR:

14 Résumé d'entrevue : Jenny Kwan

15 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And also for the 16 record, you have a copy of your witness summary, of your 17 interview summary, rather, with you today as you give 18 testimony. Is that right?

19 HON. JENNY KWAN: That is correct. I have a 20 copy here.

21 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And that's just as an 22 memory aid?

23 HON. JENNY KWAN: Just in case if I need to 24 refer to it.

25 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. Thank you.
26 So I understand that you are a Member of 27 Parliament for the NDP for the riding of Vancouver East. Is 28 that correct?

1 HON. JENNY KWAN: That's correct.

2 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And you were first
3 elected to parliament in 2015. Is that correct?

4 HON. JENNY KWAN: That's right.

5 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And you were 6 re-elected in 2019.

7 HON. JENNY KWAN: Yes.

8 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And you were elected 9 again in 2021?

10 HON. JENNY KWAN: Yes.

11 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And you were 12 previously member of the British Columbia Legislative 13 Assembly from 1996 until 2015 when you ran for your current 14 position. Is that right?

15 HON. JENNY KWAN: That's right. I was the 16 member of the Legislative Assembly for Vancouver Mount 17 Pleasant.

18 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And that was with the 19 provincial NDP.

20 HON. JENNY KWAN: That is right. That's 21 correct.

22 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And from 1998 until 23 2001, you were a provincial member of cabinet. Is that 24 right?

25 HON. JENNY KWAN: That is correct.

26 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And I understand you 27 entered politics in 1993 when you were elected to the 28 Vancouver City Council.

1 HON. JENNY KWAN: That's correct.

2 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And you immigrated to 3 Canada with your family from Hong Kong at the age of 9. Is 4 that right?

5 HON. JENNY KWAN: That's right.

6 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And I understand that 7 before politics you were a community legal advocate working 8 primarily in Vancouver's Downtown East side.

9 HON. JENNY KWAN: That's right.

10 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Now, you received a 11 briefing by CSIS concerning foreign interference in May of 12 2023. Is that right?

13 HON. JENNY KWAN: That's correct. In fact, I 14 got two briefings if you will. One was just prior to the 15 2021 election. It was kind of like a general briefing. And 16 then in May of 2023, I received a more specific briefing from 17 CSIS.

18 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. And so I'll 19 take you now to CAN.DOC.23. Now, it's a document entitled 20 Commission Request for Summary Information On Briefing To 21 Jenny Kwan.

22 --- EXHIBIT No. CAN.DOC 23:

23 Summary information on briefing to 24 Jenny Kwan

25 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: At the request of the 26 Commission, the government has produced a summary of the 27 briefing that you received in May of 2023 in a format that is 28 suitable for public disclosure. Now, you may be asked

1 questions about this summary today. In accordance with the 2 Commission's obligations to prevent the disclosure of 3 information protected by national security confidentiality, I 4 will not be asking you any questions intended to elicit any 5 information that remains classified.

6 Now, I understand you may not be able to 7 answer aspects of my question as a result, so simply you can 8 indicate, where you cannot provide some information in the 9 answer, you can just say that you cannot answer for this 10 reason, and I will move on to something else.

11 And you've had a chance, I understand, to 12 review this summary. Is that right?

13 HON. JENNY KWAN: That's correct.

14 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And you've agreed 15 that the summary could be made public and your name attached 16 to it. Is that right?

17 HON. JENNY KWAN: Yes.

18 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And -- now, speaking 19 in general terms, without getting into specifics, does the 20 summary generally accord with your recollection of the type 21 of information that you were provided with in that briefing?

22 HON. JENNY KWAN: Yes.

23 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And again, without 24 getting into the details of the content of the briefing or 25 any specifics, did you find that briefing, and again we're 26 speaking about the May 2023 briefing, did you find it to be 27 helpful?

28 HON. JENNY KWAN: Yes, it was helpful, and

1 particularly, I thought it was important for me to know and 2 to be informed that I am a target by the CCP, and that I 3 would likely be a what was termed as a "evergreen target".

4 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Thank you. And did 5 the briefing provide you with any tools that you could 6 implement to better protect yourself against foreign 7 interference or attempts of foreign interference?

8 HON. JENNY KWAN: The briefing explained to 9 me the structure of what foreign interference would look like 10 coming from China and how the United Front work department 11 would be set up, and how possibly that work would be 12 undertaken. There were no -- I'm not at liberty to disclose 13 details around some of that work. So from that perspective 14 it was good to know.

15 The other piece that would be really good to 16 know, of course, is just to know that you're being a target.
17 It brings to the forefront, I think, the reality of what is 18 and potentially could be out there. And so from that 19 perspective I thought it was useful and helpful.

20 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Thank you. Now, you 21 would agree that you follow events in Hong Kong and Mainland 22 China fairly closely?

23 HON. JENNY KWAN: Yes.

24 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And why is that?

25 HON. JENNY KWAN: Well, Hong Kong is my 26 birthplace, so I have obviously a special connection to it, 27 and my ancestors, they come from China. My parents were born 28 in China, my grandparents were born in China, and so there is

1 that connection from that perspective. So with news that 2 emerged in the international community is something that I do 3 follow and to watch and see what is going on.

4 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And do you have 5 family ties currently to Hong Kong?

6 HON. JENNY KWAN: I do not, and especially in 7 light of the fact to know that I am being targeted, and I'm 8 particularly grateful for that, I don't have to worry about 9 family members or relatives that are there, unlike some of 10 the other people who might as a result of being targeted.

11 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Is that because you
12 don't have family in Hong Kong or Mainland China or is it 13 because you don't have -- you haven't maintained any 14 connection with them?

15 HON. JENNY KWAN: It's because we don't have 16 any family members that are left in Hong Kong or China. We - 17 - when we immigrated to Canada, my family unit, we were the 18 last group to leave Hong Kong, and so consequently we don't 19 have any close relatives. We may have some loose relatives, 20 if you will, or distant relatives in China that I don't 21 really know.

22 Some years ago, when I travelled back to 23 China on my own, as somebody who was trying to find my roots, 24 I met people there living in my mom's house or my mom's 25 family's home that I have no idea who they are, but they're 26 all there in that village living in the home, taking care of 27 the home, but they are not -- I wouldn't classify it as 28 family members.

1 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay, thank you. And 2 some -- what are some of the issues related to Hong Kong and 3 the PRC that you have spoken up about and been vocal on.

4 HON. JENNY KWAN: Well, on the issue around
5 Hong Kong and, of course, the national security law is a 6 critical issue for the people of Hong Kong. I watch Hong 7 Kong very closely, and one of the reasons why my family
8 immigrated to Canada was because of the handover. My family 9 were particularly worried about what is the aftermath of 10 that. And, of course, in addition to that, they wanted to 11 give opportunities to the children. There are six of us, 12 together a family of eight, and my mom only has a Grade six 13 level of education. My dad has a Grade 10 level of 14 education, and they wanted their children to have 15 opportunities. So we immigrated here, and I'm watching very 16 carefully in terms of what's developing.

17 So with the national security law and what 18 was clear to me is that the policy on one country, two system 19 has been completely dismantled. I also watch on the news the 20 devastating police brutality against the protesters and the 21 peaceful protesters. So many of them are young people. So 22 that's something that is close and near and dear to my heart.

23 And, of course, prior to that, I was also 24 made aware, I wasn't involved in the electoral system at that 25 time, but, of course, was made aware and watch on the news
26 like many people the Tiananmen massacre, and that whole news 27 was just -- and again, another devastating piece of news 28 that's surfacing in the community. The issue around the

1 Uyghur, Uyghur genocide is another issue that I follow very 2 closely as well and advocate for. The situation with Taiwan, 3 for example, as well, so there are a number of different 4 issues to which I watch very closely to see what is evolving 5 in the community.

6 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And, Ms. Kwan, I
7 would just ask that for the sake of the translators, and I 8 also have to remind myself at times, just to be aware that 9 they are translating in real time and to try and slow down a 10 little bit for them.

11 HON. JENNY KWAN: Apologies.

12 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. No, no need to 13 apologize.

14 Was there a time when you started to become 15 more vocal about these issues, and if so, when would that 16 have been?

17 HON. JENNY KWAN: Yes, particularly at the 18 time when, you know, the news was surfacing about Hong 19 Kongers taking to the streets and peaceful protests, and, 20 literally, we're talking about, you know, millions of people 21 taking to the streets and to raise the issues worried about 22 the extradition law and so on, I started to sort of tune in 23 even more so. And then you started to hear the news of the 24 police brutality emerge. And then that's really at a point 25 where I felt like I have to speak up and you have to stand 26 with Hong Kongers as someone who was born in Hong Kong. So 27 those were the issues that really brought it to the 28 forefront, but, you know, all throughout my political career,

1 I've always spoken up for human rights, and raised the issues 2 around human rights concerns related to China. So such as,
3 for example, with the Tiananmen massacre on certain 4 anniversaries of those days, I would issue statements, for 5 example, to highlight that situation and to remember the 6 victims and their families, as an example.

7 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And so when you said 8 around the national security law, around that time and the 9 protests in Hong Kong, I take it that would be around 2019;
10 is that right?

11 HON. JENNY KWAN: That's correct. That's 12 when this first emerged.

13 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. So is it fair
14 to say that for the last five years you have been more vocal 15 about some of these China related issues that you've 16 mentioned?

17 HON. JENNY KWAN: Yes.

18 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. And I 19 understand that you've also spoken at and attended rallies in 20 relation to PRC issues. Can you maybe tell us a little bit 21 about those?

22 HON. JENNY KWAN: Yeah, there were a number 23 of different community rallies held. One was held actually 24 just outside of the Vancouver Public Library, and it was the 25 earlier on period with respect to the national security law, 26 and so I spoke at that rally there. There were other rallies 27 to which I spoke in front of the consulates building, or 28 residence, if you will, and ---

1 Consulate

2 HON. JENNY KWAN: That's correct.

3 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. So we can 4 appreciate a little bit the distance, where you are relative 5 to the consulate. And so this would be the same event as the 6 last photo that we saw; is that right?

7 HON. JENNY KWAN: That's right.

8 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. And can you
9 tell us a bit more about the experience of protesting -- 10 well, speaking at an event in front of the Chinese Consulate?

11 HON. JENNY KWAN: So at this event, the 12 organizers brought us there. We sort of began, I think, with 13 a walk, and then sort of ended up at this location, and 14 speakers were invited up. I was -- I believe I was the only 15 elected official to appear and speak at this event. And at 16 this event, as I was speaking, I was noticing as well that 17 there is a camera, actually, right by the tree there.
18 Anyway, just right by the fence there. And you can see the 19 camera kind of turn, and then it alerted me to the fact that 20 what was happening was they were actually recording images 21 possibly, or at least being able to see who was out there and 22 participating. And I know that for some of the community 23 members they're particularly concerned about being 24 identified. So as a result, some people wore masks. Some 25 people wore hoodies and the like to sort of try and sort of 26 protect their identity, or at least not to be so easily 27 identifiable in this event. And so we were speaking this -- 28 and I think I had a megaphone of some sort or a mic of some

1 sort to speak. There were people also across the street, by 2 the way, so that they're not right within the vicinity of 3 this area, perhaps to evade the cameras possibly, but that's 4 sort of the nature of the event.

5 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And I noticed that 6 you did not seem to have your face covered or you're not 7 wearing a hoodie or not -- you're not hiding your identity in 8 any way. Was that a concern for you or what was the reason 9 for not wanting to conceal yourself?

10 HON. JENNY KWAN: I was not masking. I was 11 not trying to hide my identity. I speak publicly about these 12 issues. I am an elected official. I support human rights 13 everywhere. Not just here in Canada, but abroad as well, and 14 I fight for these things. And so as an elected official, I 15 feel very much that I have this privilege, this honour, this 16 platform that's before me, and I have to use it. I feel like 17 that's part of my job. And so in this instance, when we're 18 talking about, you know, the Tiananmen massacre that 19 occurred, the situation with Hong Kong, where people are 20 losing their basic human rights, where the rule of law that 21 once supplied to them is no more, I feel like that it is my 22 job to speak up and I have a platform to do so. It would be 23 a disservice if I were to hide my identity to the position
24 that I hold to which I honour, I think, in my role as a 25 Member of Parliament. And I'm also cognizant as well that 26 there are many members of the diaspora community who are not 27 at liberty to do that because they are afraid because they 28 have family members that are there, that are in Hong Kong or

1 in China that might have repercussions for them. And in some 2 ways, I also feel like it's my responsibility to speak up and 3 to be that voice.

4 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Thank you. Now, I
5 want to move on -- we can take the document down. I want to 6 speak a little bit about your experience with Chinese 7 community associations. And in your witness summary, you
8 refer to some of these as "The Big Five". And I wanted you 9 to explain what you meant by that. Who are The Big Five and 10 why are they considered important?

11 HON. JENNY KWAN: So in our community, there 12 are a number of community events that would be hosted by 13 various organizations. The biggest ones would be, for 14 example, the Lunar New Year celebration, the big parade that 15 takes place in Chinatown. The organizations that come 16 together to organize this would be what I call "The Big 17 Five". Sometimes it's six, but generally, it's this frame.
18 The Chinese Benevolent Association is one of them. The 19 Chinese Freemasons is also another one. The Chinese Cultural 20 Centre is the third one. The Vancouver Chinatown Merchants 21 Association is another organization. And finally, an 22 organization called S.U.C.C.E.S.S., which in full, the name 23 is the United Chinese Community Enhancement Services Society.

24 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And I understand 25 while these five may have some, or potentially six, have some 26 significance, there are many, many, many different community 27 associations within the Canadian Chinese community. Can you 28 tell us briefly about that?

1 HON. JENNY KWAN: Yes, there are many 2 community organizations within the Chinese community to be 3 sure. Some of them are service oriented, non-profit 4 orientated, but there are also many what we call clan
5 associations. These associations were really established 6 long ago, back in the day when Chinese people came to Canada, 7 they were really being discriminated against in many ways, 8 and they clan associations are grouped together usually by 9 people's last names or districts, or region, if you will, and 10 it really became an association for people to network, to 11 find support and kinship with each other, and back in the day 12 with all the discrimination that took place, some of them
13 even created this space to house people, because Chinese 14 people were not allowed to -- anyways, there was a lot of 15 restrictions and discriminatory practices towards Chinese 16 people.

17 So these clan associations exist in my 18 riding. A lot of them were first established in -- around 19 Chinatown. And so there are literally hundreds of those in 20 my riding.

21 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And in terms of The 22 Big Five that you mentioned, are they headquartered within 23 your riding?

24 HON. JENNY KWAN: Yes, they are.

25 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And can you describe 26 your relationship with these five organizations historically 27 and how it is now? And if there's been any change, to note 28 that as well.

1 HON. JENNY KWAN: Yeah, I will say that 2 historically, I've had a good relationship with all these 3 organizations. We would work together, collaborate on 4 different issues at different times, and to support the 5 community and to advocate for policy change or whatever the 6 case may be.

7 But I will say that over time, as I became 8 more and more vocal on the issues that profile China's human 9 rights violations, as an example, especially for sure during 10 the Hong Kong -- with the Hong Kong National Security Law 11 situation, I sensed that there was a shift in attitude from 12 these organizations towards me.

13 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And what do you mean 14 by a shift in attitude. Can you give us an example?

15 HON. JENNY KWAN: So for example, I was 16 noticing -- in my office, we were noticing that, you know, 17 the invitations that would, for example, would come to my 18 office, and we would not receive some invitations to our 19 office, as an example. Some of the community leaders would 20 shy away from engaging with me, as an example. And so you 21 sort of just see those kinds of changes. It became -- in the 22 beginning it was a little more subtle, and then it became 23 more and more obvious over time.

24 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And when did you 25 begin to perceive that change?

26 HON. JENNY KWAN: I would say in and around 27 2019 I started to notice there's some shift and some change.
28 But for sure as you sort of move towards 2020, 2021, you

1 know, you really noticed a significant departure from that 2 behaviour.

3 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And so I'll take you
4 now to JKW 65_R.

5 --- EXHIBIT No. JKW 65 R:

6 Press release February 18, 2022

7 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And this is a press
8 release dated February 18, 2022. It's titled CCP suspected
9 of manipulating the political ecology of Chinese Canadians
10 through Lunar New Year celebration events. And my 11 understanding is that this is a press release by the Chinese 12 Concerned Group, who is an intervenor in this Commission, and 13 it's about your exclusion from a Lunar New Year celebration 14 in 2022.

15 I assume you have seen this press release
16 before? Is that right?

17 HON. JENNY KWAN: Yes, I have.

18 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. And can you 19 tell us about that particular event and how you were excluded 20 from that event?

21 HON. JENNY KWAN: Yeah, so this was an event 22 that was coming in to celebrate the Lunar New Year. So we 23 were just kind of coming out of covid. And so over the covid 24 period, the big celebration that took place in my riding did 25 not happen. There was no big parade and so on because of 26 covid. So this would have been the first time since that 27 period where a Lunar New Year event celebration is being held 28 in the community. While it's not a parade, but still it's 1 deemed to be a significant celebratory moment.

2 At this event, it was -- there were two 3 organizations that organized this event, and one of them is 4 the Chinese Benevolent Association.

5 But for this event, we saw in the newspaper 6 afterwards -- not only did my office not receive an invite 7 for it, but we saw in the newspaper coverage of the event 8 that there were people invited, elected officials invited, 9 from outside of Vancouver. There were definitely Members of 10 Parliament from Vancouver too from outside of the district 11 where the event was being hosted at, like people from 12 Richmond, for example, were invited to it, the Mayor of 13 Richmond, for example, was invited to it, provincial elected 14 officials were invited to Richmond -- or invited to it. And 15 there was, I think, councillors from Burnaby invited to it.

16 What's glaringly obvious is that I, myself,
17 as a Chinese Canadian who is in that riding, in that area
18 there, was not invited. The Mayor of Vancouver at the time 19 was also not invited as well. So that became quite obvious, 20 at least from my perspective, that there's a distinction on 21 who they've chosen to be invited to this event.

22 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And if we can go to 23 the bottom of that page? And the press release says, in the 24 last paragraph:

25 "As Chinatown falls under the 26 electoral district of Jenny Kwan and 27 she is the longest serving Chinese-28 Canadian politician, a celebration of

1 Lunar New Year in Vancouver's
2 Chinatown excluding Jenny Kwan and 3 Vancouver's current mayor Kennedy
4 Stewart makes no sense."

5 And if we keep going:

6 "The Concerned Group feels that the 7 only plausible reason is that Jenny
8 Kwan had, in Parliament, brought up 9 the Hong Kong situation as well as 10 voting in support of the motion
11 naming China's Uyghur persecution as 12 genocide..."

13 And it goes on from there. Do you agree with 14 that assessment?

15 HON. JENNY KWAN: Yes, I do.

16 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: I want to take you 17 now to JKW 70_R. And this is a letter from you, and it is 18 addressed to the Canadian Security Intelligence Service.
19 That's CSIS.

20 --- EXHIBIT No. JKW 70 R:

21 Letter to CSIS

22 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And if we go down 23 just a little bit? Okay. Thank you.

24 It is a letter speaking to CSIS about your 25 exclusion from that Lunar New Years celebration. You recall 26 sending this letter?

27 HON. JENNY KWAN: Yes, I do.

28 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And why did you write

1 to CSIS about this?

2 HON. JENNY KWAN: Well from the briefings, 3 from the first briefing from CSIS, one of the things that 4 they said to me was that, please, keep us informed. Stay
5 alert. These are some of the -- you know, certain things 6 that you might be suspicious about, or you wondered about, 7 please, keep us informed. So, to that end, I thought it was 8 important for CSIS to know that this has occurred, and so I 9 wrote that letter and brought it to their attention.

10 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: So if we go to the 11 last paragraph of the letter, and then it says,

12 "I hope CSIS could look into this to 13 determine whether or not, or to what 14 extent foreign influence or agents of 15 a foreign government is or are 16 affecting how community events are 17 organized and reports its findings to 18 various authorities including the 19 federal government." (As read)

20 Did you receive a response to this letter?

21 HON. JENNY KWAN: I did not.

22 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: If I can turn now to 23 JKW-66_R?

24 --- EXHIBIT No. JKW 66 R:

25 Press release July 10, 2023

26 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And this one is dated 27 July 10, 2023, and it looks to also be a press release. And 28 this one's entitled "Canadian Chinese Concern Group on CCP's

1 Human Rights Violations, Expresses Concerns Over Possible
2 Infiltration of Chinese Communist Party in Chinese Canadian 3 Museum". And it is a press release that speaks about your 4 exclusion from a Chinese museum event. Can you -- I assume 5 you saw this press release at the time since it is about you?

6 HON. JENNY KWAN: Yes, I have seen this.

7 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And can you tell us a 8 little bit about that event and what led to this press 9 release?

10 HON. JENNY KWAN: So in Chinatown, we had a 11 very big event, actually, and that is the opening of the 12 Chinese Canadian Museum, the first in Canada. And so this 13 was a big event in terms of the opening, and there were many 14 community members and elected officials there. What happened 15 at this event was, as the local representative where the 16 Canadian Chinese Museum is located, as someone who's 17 represented this riding, and some I say who's broken barriers 18 for Chinese Canadian communities over the last 30 years in my 19 role as an elected official at one level or another, it was a 20 curious thing where at this event I was -- while I was 21 invited to it, I did -- I was not acknowledged of my presence 22 for the event. I did not receive a designated seat where 23 many of the prominent electoral officials were. And even 24 when -- during the program, elected officials, federal 25 representatives were invited up on stage to unveil a plaque 26 from the federal government. I was not invited to 27 participate in that. It was just a very curious thing and I
28 suppose in some ways, on a personal level, a little bit of a

1 hurtful thing that occurred. But in the face of that, and I
2 think the community groups and people who attended events saw 3 it as well, some came up to me afterwards and said, "Why 4 didn't they acknowledge you? Why didn't you go up on stage?
5 Why didn't you speak?" And said these things to me. And I 6 said, "Well, you know, I don't know. I'm not the organizer, 7 but here you are."

8 And so the concerned group, of course, who's 9 an active group in our community watching all of these things 10 all the time, and they also picked it up, and, consequently, 11 I think they wrote this press release.

12 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And was that event 13 held in your riding?

14 HON. JENNY KWAN: Yes, it was. And the 15 Chinese Canadian Museum is in my riding, the first of its 16 kind in Canada.

17 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And I want to take 18 you now to CAN.SUM.3.

19 --- EXHIBIT No. CAN.SUM.3:

20 Topical Summary: PRC Officials - 21 Foreign Interference Activities in 22 Greater Vancouver in the 2019 General
23 Election

24 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: This is a topical
25 summary that was just recently made available. So I 26 understand, Ms. Kwan, you have not seen this before. It's 27 entitled "People's Republic of China Officials, Foreign 28 Interference Activities in Greater Vancouver in the 2019

1 General Election". And it comes with a page of caveats, 2 which my co-Commissioner counsel, Ms. Dann, read into the 3 record yesterday. Taking those caveats into account, I want 4 to take you to paragraph 3 of that summary, which is on the 5 second page. And it says,

6 "Intelligence reports indicate that 7 these officials coordinated the 8 exclusion..." (As read)

9 And by "these officials", they're speaking 10 about officials for the People's Republic of China.

11 "...coordinate the exclusion of 12 particular political candidates 13 perceived as anti-China from 14 attending local community events
15 related to the election." (As read)

16 So this is, again, the 2019 election.

17 "This was accomplished via PRC proxy
18 agents hiding the direct involvement
19 of these PRC officials." (As read)

20 Now, taking into account that this is 21 referring to events leading up to the 2019 election and you, 22 having given your evidence that you started noticing these 23 exclusions from events starting in and around 2019, does this 24 paragraph generally accord with your understanding of why and 25 how you may have been excluded from local community events 26 such as the ones that you described for us today?

27 HON. JENNY KWAN: Yes.

28 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: So is it fair to say

1 that, in your view, there is a relationship between your 2 advocacy around China-related issues and your exclusion from 3 local community events?

4 HON. JENNY KWAN: I think it is quite 5 plausible that is the case. What we also know is that a 6 former colleague of mine, Richard Lee, a former MLA, who was 7 shunted, I guess, from the community, and the word is that if 8 community groups invited him to events, then representatives 9 from the consulate would not attend, as an example. So 10 consequently, Richard did not get a lot of invitations. So 11 this kind of practice is something that we know does occur in 12 the community.

13 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Now I want to move on 14 to your experience with your constituents. What has your 15 experience with your constituents been like in the last 5 16 years, so since 2019, and have you noticed a change in your 17 constituents' demeanour, or in their interactions with you, 18 and what can you tell us about that?

19 HON. JENNY KWAN: My constituents, many of 20 them, of course, have watched me grow up, as they say, over 21 all these years. But in the latter part, in the last five 22 years or so particularly, with my outspokenness around human 23 rights violations from China and particularly with the Hong 24 Kong situation and so on, I'm noticing nervousness and fear 25 from some of my constituents, and particularly, the elderly 26 Chinese Canadian members. I've had people come up to me, to 27 whisper to me, worried about their support for me and that it 28 might be found out by the CCP, and that there might be

1 repercussions for themselves or that of their family members.
2 They have this fear in their heart, as an example. They 3 would often just come up to me, hold onto me, grab my arm, 4 and sort of whisper these things to me. I would reassure 5 them to say that no one will know who you voted for because 6 our ballots are secret. Nobody can tell. Only you know, as 7 you mark the ballot, as an example. There are instances 8 where people would come up and ask me to say, "Did you really 9 protest the consulate and stood in front of the consulate to 10 speak out against them", as an example. Others would ask me 11 to pay attention and focus on domestic issues, as an example.
12 And then in that reference, I think to mean not to speak out 13 against China. There are others who have outright said to me 14 that they weren't going to be donating to me or supporting me 15 because of that. So there is definitely some change in 16 behaviour.

17 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And so with respect 18 to the 2021 election, did you experience any of that -- those 19 concerns conveyed to you as you went door knocking and 20 canvassing for votes in 2021?

21 HON. JENNY KWAN: There were some people that 22 I door knocked on where they asked me "What is your position 23 on certain policies?", for example, on the Uyghur issue, as 24 an example. And you know, so those kinds of things would 25 surface. What is my position on Hong Kong? Those kinds of 26 things. But you can never know for sure was that a 27 determining factor for them in terms of that behaviour. But 28 from time to time, yes, those issues did come up.

1 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And did they express 2 concern about supporting you in 2021 for fear of reprisal?

3 HON. JENNY KWAN: A lot of these 4 conversations, when people say these things to me, they -- so 5 when I am talking about the seniors who raised those concerns 6 to me, some of them during the campaign would say that 7 they're worried, but a lot of them after the campaign would 8 continue to raise these issues up with me.

9 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. So it wasn't 10 limited to the 2021 campaign is what you're saying.

11 HON. JENNY KWAN: No. I think these kinds of 12 sentiments sometimes it precedes the campaign, sometimes it's 13 after the campaign. It kind of just continues, and it kind 14 of just doesn't stop.

15 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And so with respect 16 to the 2021 election, I understand there was an incident in 17 2021, in August, that led to the NDP filing a complaint with 18 the Commissioner of Canada Elections. Can you tell us a 19 little bit about that?

20 HON. JENNY KWAN: Yes. During the campaign, 21 we were alerted by someone that there was a WeChat post from 22 Fred Kwok inviting members of the Chinese community to attend
23 a free lunch. And when we looked at this post, a few things 24 jumped out at me. One was, is this even legal? Because 25 they're offering a free lunch in the middle of a campaign in 26 support of my opponent. Could that be construed as vote 27 buying, a bribe if you will? So that was my first thought.

28 And second, of course, is who's hosting this?

1 You know, who's the host of this event? Is it Fred Kwok as 2 an individual? If he was doing that, is he a third-party?
3 Is he a registered third-party? Because we have rules and 4 regulations related to that. If not, is it the Liberal Party 5 he's doing that? And so that question around the host and 6 potential violations of the Election Act also came up.

7 Then, of course, because it's a free lunch,
8 and the way in which the language was posed in this WeChat 9 message basically said, "Come and bring your friends.
10 Doesn't matter about the number. No need to pay." Then 11 you're imagining lots of people will go to this event, so 12 then the cost issue also becomes a factor. And in an 13 election, election financing, contribution limits, and all of 14 those matter a lot. So then my thought was would they be in 15 violation of that as well?

16 So our -- the lawyer for the NDP, we 17 contacted central and advised them of the situation. So the 18 lawyer for the NDP filed a complaint with the OCCE.

19 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And just for the 20 record, that document is at JKW 76.

21 --- EXHIBIT No. JKW 76:

22 Letter to OCCE: Complaint re
23 collusion and vote-buying in 24 Vancouver East

25 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And in the interest 26 of time, I will move to a different area. Well, actually, 27 staying in this topic for one second, if I can take you to 28 CAN 1075.

1 So this is a SITE Task Force SITREP. It's 2 dated September 7, 2021. And my understanding is the lunch
3 took place at the end of August. Is that right?

4 HON. JENNY KWAN: That is correct. I believe 5 it was the 29th.

6 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. So this would 7 have been about almost 10 days after. And if we go down, the 8 report says on the last bullet point:

9 "The Facebook page for the Vancouver
10 Hong Kong Forum Society...published 11 screengrabs from a WeChat group with 12 what they claim are members of the 13 Chinese Benevolent Association...of 14 Vancouver, a group that many open 15 source reports claim are linked to 16 China's United Front Work Department.
17 The chat that shows what is purported 18 to be an offer of a free lunch to 19 support the LPC Vancouver East
20 candidate as someone who 'cares about 21 the issues of the Chinese people.'"

22 And this Hong Kong Foreign Society:

23 "...further claims that the message
24 encourages solidarity among Chinese
25 voters in a manner similar to South
26 Asian voter solidarity."

27 Can I take it that as a candidate you were 28 aware of the SITE Task Force in 2021?

1 HON. JENNY KWAN: I was not.

2 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. Did you know
3 that there was a SITE Task Force and it was -- and that it 4 was called that?

5 HON. JENNY KWAN: No.

6 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay.

7 HON. JENNY KWAN: I only learned of this from 8 this hearing.

9 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. So is it fair
10 to say, then, that SITE did not inform you that they had 11 flagged this issue with the lunch shortly after it took 12 place?

13 HON. JENNY KWAN: That is correct.

14 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. Did any 15 official from any government department or agency tell you at 16 the time that this had been picked up by the SITE Task Force?

17 HON. JENNY KWAN: No.

18 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay.

19 HON. JENNY KWAN: In fact, it was our 20 campaign -- after the election, we contacted CSIS to let them 21 know that this had occurred.

22 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. And to be 23 fair, it's RRM Canada and GAC that picked this up, and it's 24 in a SITE Task Force report, but the sourcing is from the 25 Rapid Response Mechanism. Just wanted to make that clear.

26 So in terms of sources of information related 27 to foreign interference in the 2019 and 2021 elections, it 28 sounds like it wasn't SITE. That wasn't your go-to for 1 information on foreign interference in the elections. Is 2 that right?

3 HON. JENNY KWAN: That's correct.

4 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. And so who did 5 you understand you were to report any suspicious activities 6 to during those two elections?

7 HON. JENNY KWAN: Well, the first place, of 8 course, is to the OCCE, and then, of course, related to 9 matters on foreign interference it would be CSIS.

10 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. So you 11 understood that if there was -- if you had any concerns about 12 suspected or possible foreign interference during those 13 elections, you were to go -- to contact CSIS directly. Is 14 that right?

15 HON. JENNY KWAN: Well, CSIS had asked me to 16 keep them informed, and so that's what we did, to keep them
17 informed after the election. At the time when this free 18 lunch event was being promoted from Fred Kwok, our first 19 thought was Elections Canada, the OCCE, and those violations 20 within it, that's why we lodged our complaint to them 21 directly.

22 It wasn't until after when other items
23 surfaced, for example, the Vancouver Sun wrote an article 24 about it, and in that article they talked a lot about foreign 25 interference, and then it started to make me think, "Hmm, is 26 it this foreign interference related?" And then of course, 27 after I was briefed by CSIS in May of 2023, it became even 28 more apparent to me that this might be a foreign interference

1 activity. And so to that end, I did follow up with CSIS, as 2 well as OCCE on it.

3 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And did you have a 4 sense for what constituted suspicious activity that should be 5 reported? Did you understand what that threshold was for you 6 to report something to CSIS?

7 HON. JENNY KWAN: No. No, I -- no. They 8 never advised exactly what would be the threshold and what 9 are the clear signs, it's just to alert you to be more aware.
10 And so then, you know, you're being more aware. And during 11 the election campaign period, the things that jumped out at 12 us with respect to this event were the potential violations 13 of the Election Act. And then after the fact, when you put 14 all the different pieces together, all the different 15 information that's surfacing, then you start to wonder, "Is 16 this a foreign interference activity that took place?"

17 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And unfortunately, I 18 am out of time, but I would like to ask you one final 19 question, and that is, is there anything else you would like 20 to tell us about any of the issues within Stage 1 of our 21 mandate, which is the 2019 and 2021 elections that we have 22 not had a chance to discuss?

23 HON. JENNY KWAN: I think that's really -- 24 it's really important to actually look at the WeChat post 25 that Fred Kwok put up because there's some very specific 26 language within it that in the context of foreign 27 interference that we should be paying attention to. So I 28 wonder if we can actually pull up that post ---

1 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Sure.

2 HON. JENNY KWAN: --- so that we can go
3 through it.

4 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Absolutely.

5 So we can see it at CCC 186.

6 --- EXHIBIT No. CCC 186:

7 Press release from Chinese-Canadian 8 Concerned Group on the Chinese
9 Communist Party's Human Rights
10 Violation

11 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And I pull this one 12 up because it has the original post and it has the -- if you 13 can go down, please. And it has the translation as well.

14 So that's -- if we can zoom in on the side-15 by-side there.

16 And maybe just briefly tell us who Fred Kwok 17 is or who he was at that time.

18 HON. JENNY KWAN: Yeah. Fred Kwok at the 19 time was the chair of the Chinese Benevolent Association.
20 He's also the chairperson for the Chinese Cultural Centre.
21 He is very involved with the Chinese Freemasons and I believe 22 he holds the title of being an honorary leader, national 23 leader, of the Chinese Freemasons.

24 So that's the background a little bit about 25 Fred.

26 But if you look at the post and even the 27 translation here did not pick it up and reflected it. But in 28 three places, the post reference Chinese people using the

1 word "Chinese people" in three different places, talking 2 about, if I can put it on the record here, the post says:

3 "Just over two weeks left in the 4 federal election. Throughout these 5 years, the Chinese community and the 6 Chinese people have long been 7 neglected." (As read)

8 So here they use "Chinese people".

9 "The Chinese people must show their 10 voting power in this election [again
11 they use Chinese people]. Now that 12 this Liberal candidate is running for 13 the first time in Vancouver East, we,
14 the Chinese people must show their 15 voting power to the politicians." (As 16 read)

17 So the third time they're saying "Chinese 18 people". Then it goes on to say, "The South Asian people 19 already have a huge influence."

20 Then here it says, "The Chinese should also 21 show solidarity."

22 So here I'm going to sort of pause for a 23 minute and just go to the Chinese version of the post. Where 24 they use the word "the Chinese", they actually -- the literal
25 translation in Chinese is (other language) meaning China 26 person or China people, so that's one distinction there.

27 And when you say and use the word China
28 person or China people, I take that to mean a Chinese

1 national, not a Chinese person or Chinese people.

2 They again use this term (other language), 3 Chinese nationals, later on in the message where they go on 4 to say:

5 "Tomorrow morning at 11:30 a.m. lunch
6 at Flota restaurant. No matter how 7 many we'll need to pay. You all may 8 bring some friends here to show that 9 you care. When the future victory
10 comes, at least there will be a few 11 more MPs who will care about the 12 issues of the Chinese people." (As 13 read)

14 That should actually say, "at least there 15 will be a few more MPs who will care about the issues of 16 Chinese nationals" because in the Chinese version of the 17 post, it once again says (other language) meaning China
18 person or China people, and that in reference to Chinese 19 nationals.

20 So this is -- to me, is deliberate. The -- 21 using that term, they're talking about wanting to elect 22 someone who will prioritize the issues that are of concern to 23 Chinese nationals, to the Chinese government or to China, if 24 you will.

25 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Thank you for that 26 clarification.

27 Those are all of my questions. The 28 participants may have some other questions for you.

1 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Thank you.

2 But before that, we will take a short break,
3 15 minutes. So we'll be back at 4:30.

4 THE REGISTRAR: Order please.

5 The hearing is in recess until 4:30.

6 --- Upon recessing at 4:16 p.m./

7 --- Upon resuming at 4:34 p.m./

8 THE REGISTRAR: Order please.

9 This sitting of the Foreign Interference
10 Commission is back in session.

11 --- HON. JENNY KWAN, Resumed

12 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: The first one this time 13 is counsel for Human Rights Coalition.

14 --- CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MS. HANNAH TAYLOR:

15 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: Good afternoon, Ms. Kwan.

16 HON. JENNY KWAN: Good afternoon.

17 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: You spoke a bit about 18 this with Commission counsel this morning. You mentioned in 19 your interview summary that you noticed more fear and 20 apprehension from your constituents beginning in 2019, and 21 it's also mentioned in your interview summary that during the 22 2021 election, constituents, donors, and supporters told you 23 that because you protested in front of the Consulate, they 24 were fearful about voting for you.

25 Your summary mentioned that they were worried 26 that the Chinese Government would find out that they had 27 voted for you or supported you, and that this would 28 compromise the safety of their families in China.

1 Do you know why they were afraid for the 2 safety of their families in China?

3 HON. JENNY KWAN: I would suspect that if 4 they were supporting someone who would be critical of China's 5 human rights record, that they fear that there could be 6 repercussions for them, and part of those repercussions 7 potentially could be the safety of their family members in 8 China.

9 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: And without providing any 10 identifying information, would you be able to share who 11 expressed these kinds of fears to you during the 2021 12 election? You mentioned Chinese Canadian seniors in 13 particular expressed these fears, but were there other groups 14 in particular that came to you with apprehension?

15 HON. JENNY KWAN: Well they're just mostly 16 individuals. They don't tend to come to me as a group. It 17 will be individuals who will see me, you know, in the 18 community somewhere, and they'll come up and whisper these 19 things at me. The age, of course, ranged.

20 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: Okay.

21 HON. JENNY KWAN: It's not necessarily just 22 seniors. But seniors, for me, are particularly vulnerable, - 23 --

24 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: Okay.

25 HON. JENNY KWAN: --- just because they're 26 elderly and many of them, you know, may not have a lot of the 27 resources to even figure out where to get help. And many of 28 them are alone. And it just breaks my heart that they would

1 have this fear, you know, with them.

2 I also remember when I first entered into the 3 political arena, and first as sort of, like, a volunteer, I 4 worked really hard to get people who have never registered 5 before to vote, and there were points in time where I said, 6 "I don't even care who you vote for." I mean, I was working 7 on -- you know, volunteering for a campaign. But it didn't 8 matter for me who they ultimately voted for. I just wanted 9 them to vote, to exercise their democratic right.

10 And for these seniors to express fear in 11 voting, you know, to participate full -- participating fully 12 in our Canadian democratic system was something that they're 13 now fearful of, it was just something that struck me to be 14 particularly challenging. And I worry for the seniors.

15 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: Okay. And so what I'm 16 hearing is that particularly among Chinese Canadian seniors, 17 although the folks who came to you, the Chinese Canadian 18 members of your constituency that came to you with these 19 fears ranged when it comes to range, but particularly with 20 seniors, the fear was not only voting for you, although that 21 was a particular fear, but engaging in voting more generally?
22 That was also a fear?

23 HON. JENNY KWAN: Yes, because if they fear 24 that someone would know how they voted, or if they -- someone 25 would know they supported an individual who China was seeing 26 to be -- who deemed that individual to be anti-China, then 27 there might be repercussions for them. That's my insinuation 28 of what that means when they, I think, whisper these things

1 to me, and I did my best to assure them that their vote is 2 private, is secret, no one would know, to reassure them that 3 it is our democratic right as Canadians to exercise that 4 right.

5 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: And did they say 6 specifically what they were afraid might happen to them or 7 their families? Like, what these repercussions were that 8 they were afraid of if they voted for you or if it was found 9 out who they voted for more generally? These more general 10 fears?

11 HON. JENNY KWAN: They weren't specific about 12 exactly what they think might happen or may not happen to 13 their family members, but other than just to express a fear, 14 and then a fear for their safety.

15 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: To the extent that you 16 know, were your constituents afraid because they had received 17 direct threats from the Chinese Government or proxies, or did 18 they understand there to be an implicit threat to their 19 safety and the safety of their families?

20 HON. JENNY KWAN: No one has expressed to me 21 that there was a direct threat. What people just said to me 22 was that they have this fear and they just expressed their 23 thoughts.

24 Some of them actually feared for me. Some of 25 them have said, you know, "You should be careful too." And 26 so some of them had expressed that sentiment for my safety.

27 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: Thank you very much, Ms.
28 Kwan.

1 HON. JENNY KWAN: Thank you.

2 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Counsel for Micheal
3 Chong?

4 MR. GIB van ERT: No questions. Thank you.

5 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: No questions?

6 The AG? Oh, there's -- oh, I don't have -- 7 no, I think there's the OCC ---

8 MR. LUC BOUCHER: Yes.

9 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: --- before. Sorry.

10 MR. LUC BOUCHER: Yes.

11 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: It's not on my list.

12 Sorry. Désolé, Me Boucher.

13 MR. LUC BOUCHER: Je prendrais quelques 14 minutes seulement.

15 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: C'est correct. Mais 16 quelqu'un peut m'indiquer par ailleurs, en principe, le temps 17 alloué est de combien?

18 MR. LUC BOUCHER: C'est 5 minutes.

19 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Ok.

20 --- CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. LUC BOUCHER:

21 MR. LUC BOUCHER: Good afternoon.

22 HON. JENNY KWAN: Good afternoon.

23 MR. LUC BOUCHER: I'll direct you -- we'll go 24 directly to the luncheon for Mr. Vander Vies that was paid by 25 Mr. Kwok. Okay. I understand that you've been elected for - 26 - since 2015 to the Parliament and you were an elected 27 official before that for 10 years? Twelve (12) years?

28 HON. JENNY KWAN: I was elected federally in

1 2015. Prior to that, I was elected provincially from 1996
2 until 2015. And then prior to that, I was elected 3 municipally from 1993 to 1996.

4 MR. LUC BOUCHER: So you understand that 5 every time you have to get elected to continue your 6 positions? You understand that? And you understand that 7 getting elected is about the business of getting votes;
8 right?

9 HON. JENNY KWAN: Well I understand that with 10 each election cycle, I have to earn the trust of the 11 electorate and support from them to get elected. And yes, 12 ultimately it is getting votes into the ballot box.

13 But for me, it's a little bit more than that.
14 It is about standing up for what you believe in and then 15 fighting for those beliefs.

16 MR. LUC BOUCHER: Okay. And to get votes, 17 you need to communicate with the communities? Is that ---

18 HON. JENNY KWAN: Of course. Part of the 19 electoral process is communications and being able to 20 communicate with the electorate would absolutely be paramount 21 in the electoral process.

22 MR. LUC BOUCHER: And using the pillars of 23 the communities to get in contact with them is part of the 24 job?

25 HON. JENNY KWAN: Using communication tools?

26 MR. LUC BOUCHER: No, the --- 27 HON. JENNY KWAN: Is that what you mean?

28 MR. LUC BOUCHER: --- important persons of 1 community. The pillars of the communities.

2 HON. JENNY KWAN: Oh, I see. So getting 3 support from community leaders ---

4 MR. LUC BOUCHER: Yes.

5 HON. JENNY KWAN: --- to show support for 6 your candidacy? Yes. Of course. I think every elected 7 official would aim to try and get that. Or every candidate.

8 MR. LUC BOUCHER: Okay. Being a Member of 9 Parliament since 2015, you must be familiar with the Canada
10 Elections Act?

11 HON. JENNY KWAN: I am.

12 MR. LUC BOUCHER: Okay. And when the lunch
13 occurred, one of your worries was that Mr. Kwok did not 14 register as a third party?

15 HON. JENNY KWAN: Well when the -- when we 16 learned of the event and saw the WeChat post, a number of 17 things jumped out at me. One of course is who is organizing 18 this. And if Mr. Kwok was organizing this, is he a 19 registered third party? Is he doing this as an individual?
20 Is he abiding by the contribution limits as they are set out 21 in the Elections Act?

22 The other element, of course, related to 23 those concerns, is the fact that the post, the WeChat post, 24 spoke about a free lunch, and it seemed unlimited, urging 25 people to bring as many people as they can, and using clear 26 language to say, "Don't worry. No need to pay." Then you 27 start to wonder, is this a violation of the Elections Act 28 pertaining to buying votes? So that's another element in

1 relation to that. And then, of course, contribution limits, 2 because all campaigns have limitations related to that, and 3 would there be violations of contribution limits?

4 MR. LUC BOUCHER: Okay. And have you been 5 following the Commission's testimonies prior to yours?

6 HON. JENNY KWAN: I have, for the most part.
7 There were some moments where I wasn't able to catch elements 8 of it, but for the most part, yes.

9 MR. LUC BOUCHER: Okay. Did you have a 10 chance to listen to the Commissioner Simard, Commissioner 11 Côté, and Mylène Gigou testify?

12 HON. JENNY KWAN: I did, yes.

13 MR. LUC BOUCHER: And in fact, you learned 14 from that testimony that the lunch was at the request of 15 Mr. Vander Vies?

16 HON. JENNY KWAN: Yes, I had heard that 17 testimony. What was of course interesting is that in the 18 WeChat post there was no indication that this is a free lunch 19 at the behest of the candidate.

20 MR. LUC BOUCHER: Okay.

21 HON. JENNY KWAN: As well, in the media
22 reporting that came afterwards, in the Vancouver Sun, there 23 was a prominent article from a reporter, a columnist I should 24 say, and there was no indication in that report that this was 25 a free lunch event organised at the behest of the candidate.

26 Mr. Fred Kwok was interviewed, and in fact he 27 said in that article that he violated the Election Act for he 28 did not register as a third-party and he also said in that

1 article that he paid $1,500 for the lunch.

2 MR. LUC BOUCHER: Okay. But in fact, in that 3 article, and we may disagree, but in that article what 4 Mr. Kwok worries was that he also contributed to the 5 Conservative Party $1,200, and he may have over contributed 6 at that time.

7 HON. JENNY KWAN: In that article, he 8 mentioned that he also contributed to another candidate, but 9 in terms -- I guess in terms of the contribution limit, there 10 are two elements to it, in terms of the personal contribution 11 and those limits and to two different candidates, but there 12 is also a contribution limit for the free lunch to which he 13 was contributing to. So that's the way I read that article.
14 Contribution limits could apply in both instances.

15 MR. LUC BOUCHER: Now, if we come back to the 16 purpose of this Commission, the occurrence of the lunch, the 17 issue might be where the money comes from. Exact? And 18 during your witness statement, at paragraph 41, I won't ask 19 the people, but you stated at paragraph 41 that:

20 "In light of a media report about 21 transfer of funds from the Chinese 22 Consulate in Toronto to campaigns..."

23 You wonder:

24 "...whether the Chinese Consulate in 25 Vancouver may be operating at petty 26 cash slush fund to finance events, 27 such as the lunch hosted by 28 Mr. Kwok."

1 My question is do you have any evidence, any 2 evidence besides that media article targeting the consulate 3 in Toronto, do you have any evidence of that slush fund
4 existing in the Vancouver area?

5 HON. JENNY KWAN: So first off, on the issue 6 around the cost of the lunch, there is a big question in my 7 mind that is still outstanding, and that is whether or not 8 the actual cost of the lunch is the same amount as the 9 reported amount.

10 MR. LUC BOUCHER: But Ms. -- just -- because 11 the Commission is concerned with foreign interference.

12 HON. JENNY KWAN: Yes.

13 MR. LUC BOUCHER: Now, foreign interference 14 in the lunch would be where the money comes from.

15 MR. SUJIT CHOUDHRY: Your Honour, 16 Commissioner, excuse me, I think Ms. Kwan is well aware of 17 the question, and I think she's getting to an answer. So I'd 18 ask my friend to desist from interrupting her so that she can 19 complete her answer.

20 MR. LUC BOUCHER: That's fine.

21 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Complete your answer.

22 HON. JENNY KWAN: Thank you so much. Yes, if 23 you could indulge me, and I apologise if I'm taking time to 24 explain this, so that I can connect the dots with respect to 25 the question.

26 So from the market rate to which my office 27 was able to attain for a event such as this, it seemed to 28 indicate that the cost of the lunch is -- far exceeds the

1 amount that's been reported, at least by a third, maybe even 2 half or more than what was reported. So then the outstanding 3 question is, who paid for that amount? Where did the source 4 of that money come from?

5 And so related to that, then, could it be a 6 foreign interference actor who paid for that amount? We have 7 no information with respect to that. We cannot even verify 8 what is the actual amount of the cost.

9 So when the news media and reports was coming 10 forward to indicate that allegedly that there is a slush fund 11 that was set up for elections, I -- in Toronto, I can't help 12 but wonder whether or not the same thing is happening here in 13 Vancouver as well.

14 So this is how it relates, and that's why 15 chasing that money is so critical. Finding out where that 16 source of funds might have come from is so critical.

17 MR. LUC BOUCHER: Thank you.

18 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Thank you.

19 MR. LUC BOUCHER: C'tait mes questions.

20 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Now, it's your turn.

21 --- CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. BARNEY BRUCKER:

22 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: Good afternoon, 23 Ms. Kwan. My name's Barney Brucker. I'm here for the 24 Attorney General. Thank you for assisting us with the 25 Inquiry by being here today.

26 I'm not going to ask what was on the menu for 27 lunch, so we can at least get that out of the way.

28 HON. JENNY KWAN: I was told it was pretty

1 lavish, but I wasn't invited.

2 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: I just wanted to ask
3 about your riding. Vancouver East, was it?

4 HON. JENNY KWAN: Yes, it is.

5 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: And what is the ethnic 6 makeup of that riding?

7 HON. JENNY KWAN: I'm very proud to be 8 representing Vancouver East. It's one of the most diverse 9 communities or ridings if you will across the country. At 10 one point, reports indicate that we have some 76 different 11 spoken languages in the district. And pertaining to the 12 ethnic diaspora community, we have a wide-ranging cultures 13 and representation in the riding. The Chinese Canadian 14 community, according to census, seem to indicate that our 15 population is about a little under 20 percent or so of the 16 overall population.

17 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: Okay. You had mentioned 18 that prior to the election you had had a briefing by CSIS.
19 And I take it that did not involve any classified 20 information. That it was a, I think you called it, a general 21 briefing?

22 HON. JENNY KWAN: Yes, it was a general 23 briefing. I think that the purpose, at least I was told the 24 purpose of that was to alert members of parliament about 25 foreign interference, and to bring that to our attention.

26 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: And do you know if other 27 MPs of various party stripes were also given a similar type 28 of briefing prior to the election?

1 HON. JENNY KWAN: To my knowledge, some other 2 MPs were, although who exactly, that I don't know.

3 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: And do you know that 4 either before or during or even after the election the NDP
5 National Campaign, or Committee, or whatever their correct 6 terminology is, did they also receive a briefing?

7 HON. JENNY KWAN: You mean during the 8 campaign if they received or ---

9 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: Yes. Before the -- 10 leading into the campaign or during the campaign did the 11 national party receive a briefing, do you know?

12 HON. JENNY KWAN: From CSIS? I was not 13 advised.

14 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: Okay. So let me suggest 15 to you that among the general concepts put forward during 16 this general briefing, CSIS may have explained their mandate, 17 that they were not a law enforcement agency. There may have 18 been the discussion about what is foreign interference and 19 what isn't foreign interference, and also, a discussion about 20 perhaps how would you try -- how could you recognise it or 21 what is the -- what are the methods employed, in a general
22 way. And also, some contact information for you or members 23 of your staff to contact government organisations if you saw 24 something of concern during the elections. Is that fair?

25 HON. JENNY KWAN: That's fair, and CSIS was 26 definitely clear to say that they do not have investigative 27 powers.

28 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: Okay. And you mentioned

1 a follow-up after -- shortly after the election. And I can't 2 recall because my notes aren't very good, but what was that 3 follow up in -- about?

4 HON. JENNY KWAN: Yes. So after the 5 election, and in light of this free lunch that was -- that 6 Fred Kwok had put on the WeChat platform after the election, 7 and my office contacted CSIS to inform them of this event 8 that took place. There was also another -- sorry. I'll just 9 leave it there.

10 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: Okay. I thought we 11 might away from the lunch, but apparently not.

12 Can you tell me, did it occur to you when you 13 contacted CSIS about the free lunch that -- was the reason 14 for that that it was possible foreign interference? Is that 15 why you contacted?

16 HON. JENNY KWAN: That is correct.

17 After the event when we started to think 18 about all the different things that were occurring and 19 putting these different pieces together, you start to wonder, 20 could this be a foreign interference activity. And so CSIS 21 had said to me that to please keep them informed and to let 22 them know that if we think there were any suspicious 23 activities to let them know. And so as you think about these 24 things, I thought it would be best to keep them informed, and 25 that's exactly what I did.

26 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: And did it occur to you 27 when you contacted the Commissioner of Canada Elections about 28 a possible campaign violation that also may be foreign

1 interference?

2 HON. JENNY KWAN: Well, at the time when the 3 matter was happening, the first thing that jumped out at me
4 was, was this legal. They're offering a free lunch to people 5 in the middle of a campaign. And my head space went right to 6 the Elections Act and those kinds of violations, so that's 7 why the lawyer for the NDP, after we contacted them, filed 8 that letter as such.

9 Subsequent to that, there was a media
10 reporting also in the Vancouver Sun that talked about that 11 event and then also raised a whole number of other foreign 12 interference related issues.

13 And so when you sort of start to think about 14 that -- and this really came to hit me hard, I guess, was 15 when -- after my briefing in May of 2023. And I started to 16 think maybe that really was potentially a foreign 17 interference activity.

18 And when you started to hear all the 19 different news that were surfacing about the slush fund and 20 all of those kinds of things, and so that's why I followed up 21 in writing a letter to the OCCE raising these issues again 22 and also bringing that up to the attention of CSIS.

23 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: I think I just have one 24 more question.

25 Back to the briefing that you had prior to 26 the 2021 election, did you adjust your campaign strategy or 27 your campaign approach in any way as a result of that 28 briefing?

1 HON. JENNY KWAN: No. What they were telling 2 us was to sensitize us to this possibility, and so I hadn't 3 thought much of it other than to say, okay, I will be alert 4 and pay attention. But I wasn't thinking that necessarily 5 this would be happening or may happen, so we did not really 6 adjust our strategy in that way. But as the campaign sort of 7 evolved, as things happened and then later on, as I said, in 8 May of 2023 when all these other pieces of information were 9 coming forward, I started to wonder about it and perhaps 10 connect the dots.

11 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: Right. Was your 12 campaign monitoring WeChat?

13 HON. JENNY KWAN: No, we didn't. And the 14 reason why is that some years ago, we did -- my office, we 15 did use WeChat as a platform to get information out, putting 16 forward statements and government announcements and different 17 things like that through that platform. And then partway 18 through, we had discovered that I was being censored.

19 What happened was one of the statements, and 20 I believe it was a statement about the anniversary of the 21 Tiananmen massacre that we had put up, and it was censored 22 and was taken down. And someone alerted us to that.

23 And I thought, wow, I'm being censored by 24 Chinese authorities as a Canadian elected official. That 25 cannot be allowed to happen.

26 So I decided that I would not use the WeChat 27 platform.

28 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: And when you discovered

1 that, did you report that to Commissioner of Canada Elections
2 or CSIS or to anybody?

3 HON. JENNY KWAN: No, that happened way
4 before with all of this, and this is before I even thought 5 about potential foreign interference issues.

6 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: Okay. Thank you, Ms.
7 Kwan.

8 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Thank you.
9 Mr. Choudhry?

10 --- CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. SUJIT CHOUDHRY:

11 MR. SUJIT CHOUDHRY: Ms. Kwan, so I just 12 would like to begin with a couple of kind of background 13 issues about your political career just for the record.

14 So is it true that you're the only Chinese
15 Canadian to have been elected to all three levels of office - 16 - all three levels of government?

17 HON. JENNY KWAN: I believe so.

18 MR. SUJIT CHOUDHRY: Yes. And you were the 19 first Chinese Canadian to serve in the B.C. Cabinet.

20 HON. JENNY KWAN: That's correct.

21 MR. SUJIT CHOUDHRY: Okay. So as you know, 22 the focus of this phase of the public inquiry is on the 43rd 23 and 44th General Elections and foreign interference and the 24 related issue of information flow. And so I'd like to kind 25 of use your experience as a window into that issue because 26 that's really what's of most interest to the Commissioner.

27 And so what I'd like to first take you to, if 28 I may, is the WeChat message because I think getting the 1 language right is important. So I'd like to take you to the 2 version of the WeChat message translation that you provided, 3 and that is in your witness statement. It's Witness

4 Statement 12, paragraph 41.

5 And I know there have been a couple of 6 different versions of this witness statement, so forgive me 7 if I've not got the right paragraph.

8 Okay. So this is the different version.

9 Could we -- if I could ask for assistance 10 from Commission counsel. This -- I had it at paragraph 41 of 11 my version.

12 Actually, if you just scroll up, please.

13 Yes, there you go, 38.

14 And so just to clarify for the record, here 15 in your translation, is it true that you've drawn the 16 distinction between the references to the terms "Chinese 17 community" and "Chinese people" and Chinese nationals"?

18 HON. JENNY KWAN: Yes, that's correct.

19 MR. SUJIT CHOUDHRY: Right. And the term -- 20 by the term "Chinese national", your evidence is that that 21 term refers to persons whose main political concern or 22 allegiance is China.

23 HON. JENNY KWAN: That is correct.

24 MR. SUJIT CHOUDHRY: As opposed to Chinese 25 people of an ethnicity or Chinese community.

26 HON. JENNY KWAN: That is correct.

27 So for example, I'm a Chinese person, Chinese 28 Canadian individual born in Hong Kong, so some people would

1 say I'm a Hong Konger and a Chinese person. Others, for 2 example, might be born in Malaysia and whose heritage is 3 Chinese as well. And so that's also another Chinese person.

4 But when we say "Chinese nationals", then 5 that is a very specific language which affiliates you to 6 China, and so in this context I believe the language refers 7 to someone whose allegiance is first and foremost to China.

8 MR. SUJIT CHOUDHRY: And so Commission 9 counsel took you to the SITREP reports that are 10 contemporaneous with the 2021 elections. And it's true that 11 those SITREP reports flagged this event, and they flagged -- 12 and they linked this event to groups that were allied with 13 China. They even linked that event to the United Front.

14 HON. JENNY KWAN: That's correct.

15 MR. SUJIT CHOUDHRY: So certainly to the 16 federal government or entities within the federal government, 17 at the time the event took place, in the intelligence 18 community this event raised red flags.

19 HON. JENNY KWAN: Yes, that's correct.

20 In looking at that document, the SITE report
21 that came out, I believe the knowledge of that information 22 was in and around September the 7th, I believe. And as it 23 happens, that was also the date in which the NDP lawyer filed 24 a complaint to OCCE.

25 MR. SUJIT CHOUDHRY: but of course, they 26 haven't been told about -- that the intelligence community 27 had flagged the very same event that you were raising a 28 complaint about.

1 HON. JENNY KWAN: No. In -- from the 2 hearing, they had advised the Commission that they were not 3 informed of this and, of course, neither was I as the 4 candidate.

5 MR. SUJIT CHOUDHRY: So could we call up
6 CAN.DOC 23? This is the summary of the CSIS briefing.

7 And I'd like you to scroll down. There's a
8 phrase that begins, "With a better understanding".

9 Yes. Could we just stop there?

10 So I'd like to read this phase to you, Ms.
11 Kwan. So this is again the public document that summarizes, 12 on a non-confidential basis, the CSIS briefing you received 13 in May 2023, and it says the following:

14 "With a better understanding of PRC 15 foreign interference methodology and 16 tradecraft, Ms. Kwan would be better 17 able to reduce the effectiveness of 18 such threats in the future, enabling 19 her to respond and resist foreign 20 interference efforts by reporting
21 them to CSIS and other authorities."

22 So reporting them to CSIS. So would you -- 23 would a person reading this reasonably conclude that you were 24 advised to report foreign interference -- potential foreign 25 interference to CSIS or other authorities?

26 HON. JENNY KWAN: That's correct. That's 27 what I understood from the briefing that I was to do, and so 28 that is what we did. We reported the matter to CSIS, and 1 then other authorities as well.

2 And so of course during the election campaign 3 it was to the OCCE, and then also not just during the 4 election campaign but afterwards as well, in August, when the 5 OCC reached out to me and talked to me about another 6 potential foreign interference matter, and I raised with them 7 at that time this incident and I was advised by them that 8 they were of less interest on this matter.

9 Mr. SUJIT CHOUDHRY: Right.

10 HON. JENNY KWAN: The other authorities that 11 we also brought this issue to the attention was the RCMP.
12 And so we had an opportunity where the RCMP had connected 13 with us, and we brought this to their attention and that was 14 in September 2022.

15 MR. SUJIT CHOUDHRY: So just to kind of 16 collect all this, so you brought this event to the event
17 [sic] of OCCE in September 2021 at the very same time that a 18 SITREP report had flagged this event as being a possible
19 incident of foreign interference. You then raised it again 20 with CSIS in October 2021. You raised it with the RCMP in 21 September 2022, and you raised it again with OCCE in July and 22 August of 2023. So you raised it four times with CSIS and 23 other authorities; correct?

24 HON. JENNY KWAN: Correct.

25 MR. SUJIT CHOUDHRY: And then what happened?

26 HON. JENNY KWAN: Nothing happened. I have 27 not received any information about the complaint from OCCE.
28 I learned later on that most recently a decision has been

1 made, and that was communicated to the party lawyer in March.

2 It seemed to me from all these entities to 3 which we brought this information to, there just simply 4 wasn't that much interest in regards to it and nor was there 5 any ability for these government entities to collaborate or 6 to work together to address the issue. They all seemed to me 7 working in isolation of one another.

8 MR. SUJIT CHOUDHRY: And so just a couple 9 more points on this and I'm -- on the issue of the lunch and 10 your complaints about it.

11 So there's -- I just want to put in -- to 12 mark as an exhibit an affidavit from Gabriel Yiu, who was our 13 campaign manager. And that document is Witness 8_AF.

14 --- EXHIBIT No. WIT 8 AF:

15 Affidavit of Gabriel Yiu with 16 Interview Summary

17 MR. SUJIT CHOUDHRY: That, just for the 18 record, Commissioner, just provides some evidence regarding 19 the costing of this event and raises the question -- it's the 20 factual basis for the question as to where the missing funds 21 might have come from. I won't take you to it.

22 And so I'd like to, though, take you to the 23 answer that was given by the OCC witnesses on Thursday 24 regarding their conclusion that the event could not have 25 possibly been an instance of foreign interference because, of 26 course, it was host -- according to them, it was requested by 27 the Liberal candidate.

28 But let's assume that to be true, right? Is 1 it still nonetheless possible that there might have been 2 foreign interference in relation to this campaign event, even 3 if it were requested by your political opponent?

4 HON. JENNY KWAN: Well, yes, I think both 5 could be true. It could very well be that the candidate 6 requested a free lunch to be hosted on his behalf to support 7 him, absolutely. But it also could be true that foreign 8 interference actors might have observed this and seized on 9 that opportunity to -- and used that opportunity as a foreign 10 interference activity. And so both could be true. And 11 especially in light of the fact that the reported cost of the 12 event has not been verified with the actual cost. And based 13 on the commercial market rate that we were able to obtain 14 from the restaurant in and around that time, to host a 15 similar event, the reported amount at best is a third of the 16 actual market cost and quite possibly, you know, the rest of 17 the -- sorry; is two-thirds of the market cost, and quite 18 possibly a third of the cost for the event, or a half or even 19 more of the cost of the event was paid by someone else.

20 MR. SUJIT CHOUDHRY: And it's your job as a 21 -- as someone making complaints is to raise questions.
22 You're not a plaintiff in a lawsuit; it's not your job to 23 provide evidence. It's your job to tell an investigative 24 authority to do their job and to use their investigative 25 tools.

26 HON. JENNY KWAN: Well, that's exactly it.
27 I'm not investigating this matter; I am providing as much 28 information as we can garner to them and for the people whose

1 task to investigate this.

2 So the OCCE in part is tasked to investigate 3 what violations have taken place, and on the question around 4 foreign interference, from my perspective, chase the money 5 and then maybe they would be able to find out whether or not 6 there are other actors involved and whether or not foreign 7 interference is part of that.

8 Of course, in context putting in context of 9 all of this to look at the person who posts the WeChat 10 message out, which was Fred Kwok, whose affiliation is the 11 Chair of the Chinese Benevolent Association, whose 12 affiliation is an honorary national leader of the Chinese 13 Freemasons and so on.

14 So put that in -- on one side. Then you also 15 have to think about all the other activities that are going 16 on as well. The Chinese Benevolent Association, along with 17 the Chinese Freemasons, have also undertaken quite actively 18 in various ad campaigns that they put out in support of the 19 message and narrative of the CCP. And so therefore, putting 20 all these together would be important to -- for it to be 21 considered in an investigation.

22 MR. SUJIT CHOUDHRY: And so should the SITREP 23 report have been provided to OCCE when you lodged your 24 complaint with them about this event?

25 HON. JENNY KWAN: From the testimony, from 26 what we understood, from what I understand is that it had 27 not.

28 MR. SUJIT CHOUDHRY: But should it have been,

1 in your view?

2 HON. JENNY KWAN: Yes, absolutely it should 3 have been.

4 You know, when you collect this information
5 and you have multiple departments collecting this 6 information, wouldn't you want to use that information in 7 real time, and so that you can ensure that the investigation 8 is actually done properly?

9 We had filed a complaint, but that 10 information was not shared with the OCCE, and to which, from 11 my perspective, is really problematic. What is the point of 12 gathering this information if you can't use it in real time?
13 Especially when there's an active complaint.

14 MR. SUJIT CHOUDHRY: And so I guess I have 15 one last question which is about kind of looking forward.

16 And so the Commissioner is going to be making 17 recommendations regarding different institutional mechanisms 18 to detect, deter, and counter foreign interference, and 19 she'll be looking at different institutions as they currently 20 exist; she'll be thinking, perhaps, or proposing new 21 institutions be created. Once such institution is OCCE.

22 So based on your experience of how the OCCE
23 addressed alleged foreign interference in one event, do you 24 have any thoughts to share about the role of the OCC going 25 forward an whether they would be able to detect foreign 26 interference in relation to issues in their mandate?

27 HON. JENNY KWAN: Well, from my perspective, 28 when you look at the investigative process that I'm aware of 1 from the OCCE, it's clear to me that it was a failed process, 2 and not only did they not get the necessary evidence to 3 verify the actual cost of the event, they did not use the 4 authority or the tool that they have to compel the 5 restaurant, who refused to provide a receipt, to get that 6 information. And so consequently, they don't have all the 7 evidence before them to determine whether or not foreign 8 interference had occurred, or some other act -- whoever that 9 other actor might have been, to pay for the difference 10 between the actual reported amount versus the reported 11 amount.

12 And so you know, I kind of look at it like 13 this. You have multiple government agencies who have a bit 14 of the ingredients, let's put an analogy that I can 15 understand, of baking a cake. Everybody has a little bit of 16 the ingredients here and there and multiple agencies, the 17 RCMP, CSIS, OCCE, this Taskforce, for example. And they all 18 have it. And then when you want to bake the cake, you want 19 to make sure all the ingredients are mixed well together in 20 the order in which it should be to produce the product.

21 Well that didn't happen here. Instead, what 22 happened is that you have a half-baked product, because 23 everybody owned their own ingredients and filled it in 24 whenever they felt like it. And that doesn't make any sense 25 at all. And so that's a failure of the system. And then 26 when you have all the tools to follow to try and get the 27 ingredients, or sorry, to get the product, you think that 28 you'd used all the tools, but it seemed to me that OCCE did

1 not use all the tools, because they did not compel the 2 restaurant to produce the receipt and to follow the cost to 3 verify the amount of that free lunch event.

4 So it's a failure of a system to me, and I'm 5 deeply disappointed about it.

6 The worst thing for me about all of this is,
7 aside from my complaint itself, set that aside for a minute, 8 is what message is being sent to public? We look at 9 government agencies and they are supposed to instil 10 confidence, and trust, and faith in the hearts and minds of 11 the public. We rely on them to do the very work to 12 investigate and to verify, and to ensure the law is being 13 followed. But I think that in this instance, the 14 investigation failed in that.

15 And in relation to foreign interference, the 16 message here is that for the -- if in fact there was foreign 17 interference that took place in this free lunch event, the 18 message sent to them is, "You can get away with it." That is 19 the message, and that is not helpful.

20 And so that's what I'm worried about. That's 21 why it's so important to do this work. And so I do hope that 22 the Commission -- you know, I advocated for this Commission, 23 I'm so happy that it is here, and I do look forward to the 24 recommendations from the Commission, and I do hope that the 25 Commission will look at all these elements and make 26 recommendations so that we can effectively combat foreign 27 interference, and yes, in real time as well.

28 MR. SUJIT CHOUDHRY: Thank you, Ms. Kwan.

1 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Thank you.

2 Re-examination, Ms. Rodriguez?

3 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: No. None for this 4 witness. Thank you.

5 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Thank you very much.
6 You're free to go, or you may stay if you prefer.

7 We have another witness. I see that actually 8 he is already in the room, so instead of taking a break, I 9 suggest that we continue right away.

10 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Thank you.

11 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: We are running a bit 12 late.

13 THE REGISTRAR: Mr. Chong, do you wish to be 14 affirmed or sworn?

15 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: I'll swear in, please.

16 THE REGISTRAR: Okay. Thank you. Can you 17 please state your name and spell your last name for the 18 record, please?

19 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: My name is Michael 20 Chong. C-H-O-N-G.

21 --- HON. MICHAEL CHONG, Sworn:

22 THE REGISTRAR: Thank you very much.
23 Counsel, you may proceed.

24 --- EXAMINATION IN-CHIEF BY MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ:

25 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Thank you.

26 Good afternoon, Mr. Chong. As you know, my 27 name is Natalia Rodriguez. I'm Commission counsel.

28 On February 15, 2024, you had an interview

1 with Commission counsel. Is that right?

2 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: That's correct.

3 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And an interview
4 summary was generated from that interview; correct?

5 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: That's correct.

6 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And so I will now
7 turn up WIT 18.EN.

8 --- EXHIBIT No. WIT 18.EN:

9 Stage 1 Interview Summary: Michael
10 Chong

11 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And this is the 12 summary that was generated from your interview? Is that 13 correct?

14 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: That is correct, but I 15 have one clarification in paragraph 20. It's a minor one, 16 but I think it's an important one.

17 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Sure. Let's go there 18 now.

19 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: In paragraph 20, in 20 the second bracketed portion of the paragraph, I just want to 21 clarify that the Conservative Party requires a payment of a 22 minimal membership fee, but the Liberal Party of Canada does 23 not.

24 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. Thank you. So 25 what I understand you to be saying is that while it says 26 there that you observed that both the CPC and the Liberal 27 Party have minimal criteria and you ascribe the payment of 28 the minimal membership fee to both, it is actually only true

1 for the Conservative Party and not for the Liberal Party of 2 Canada? Am I understanding that correctly?

3 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: That is correct.

4 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. Thank you. Do 5 you have any other modifications, additions, or deletions to 6 make to this summary?

7 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: I do not.

8 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And do you otherwise, 9 given the caveats that we just discussed, adopt the contents 10 of this witness summary as you just modified as part of your 11 evidence before this Commission?

12 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: I do.

13 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Thank you. So we'll 14 have that entered in as the next exhibit.

15 And for the record, the French translation of 16 that summary can be found at WIT 18.FR. And that will also 17 go in as an exhibit.

18 --- EXHIBIT No. WIT 18.FR:

19 Résumé d'entrevue de l'étape 1 :

20 Michael Chong

21 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Do you have a copy of 22 your interview summary with you?

23 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: I do not.

24 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. I wasn't sure.
25 Do you wish to have one with you?

26 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: That would be helpful.

27 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. And so you can 28 refer to it if you wish, just to recall parts of your

1 evidence.

2 And just a little bit in terms of your 3 background, I understand you are a Conservative Member of 4 Parliament for Wellington-Halton. Is that right?

5 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Wellington-Halton
6 Hills. That's correct.

7 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And you were first
8 elected as an MP in 2004? Is that right?

9 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: That's correct.

10 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And you entered the 11 Federal Cabinet of Prime Minister Harper in 2006? Is that 12 right?

13 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: That's right.

14 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And currently, you're 15 the Shadow Minister of Foreign Affairs for the Official 16 Opposition? Is that right?

17 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: That's right.

18 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And you received a 19 briefing from CSIS concerning foreign interference in May of 20 2023? Is that right?

21 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: That is correct.

22 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. And so the 23 subject matter of that briefing will be dealt with in Stage 2 24 of the Commission's process, so I won't be asking you any 25 questions about that, but I just wanted to clarify that you 26 did in fact receive a briefing in May of 2023?

27 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Correct.

28 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. And so would

1 you agree that you follow events in Hong Kong and Mainland
2 China fairly closely? Or policy issues that relate to Hong 3 Kong and Mainland China?

4 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Yes, I would agree 5 with that.

6 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And why is that?

7 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Well it's for the 8 reason that I'm the spokesperson for the Conservative Party 9 on foreign policy. And so for that reason, I follow foreign 10 affairs quite closely. And as is known, developments in the 11 People's Republic of China, including in the Special 12 Administrative Region of Hong Kong, in a particular note, 13 inform policy, not just here in Canada, but in other western 14 democracies.

15 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And do you have a 16 personal family connection to Hong Kong as well?

17 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: I do. My father
18 immigrated from Hong Kong to Canada in 1952 as a Chinese 19 immigrant. He came here alone. And so as a result, the rest 20 of his family, my extended family, remained behind in Hong 21 Kong. And so I have a lot of family over there presently in 22 Hong Kong.

23 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And is the family 24 connections part of the reason why you have been and continue 25 to be vocal on issues related to the PRC?

26 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: No, actually. My 27 primary reason for speaking up is that I speak for the 28 Conservative Party of Canada with respect to foreign policy.

1 That's the reason why I have been speaking on matters 2 concerning foreign policy, particularly on matters related to 3 the People's Republic of China and Hong Kong.

4 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. So you speak 5 to matters of foreign -- that have a foreign element, so to 6 speak, foreign affairs element, and that includes issues 7 related to the PRC, but it also includes issues relating to 8 other countries? Is that what you're saying?

9 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Yeah, that's right.
10 And look, I obviously follow things closely in Hong Kong out 11 of personal interest as well, but when I speak, I'm speaking 12 on behalf of the Party and because I've been given this role 13 by the Party Leader, you know, I have an obligation to speak 14 up on the Party's position on foreign policy including with 15 respect to the PRC.

16 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And what are some of 17 the issues that you have spoken up about in relation to the 18 PRC in your role as a shadow minister?

19 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Both domestic and 20 foreign. You know, obviously spoke up frequently about 21 foreign interference threat activities taking place here on 22 Canadian soil that are directed toward Canadian citizens.
23 Spoke up about espionage activities that have been directed 24 toward Canadian universities, private sector companies. Both 25 the espionage and the foreign interference activities are 26 activities that have been at the direction of the People's 27 Republic of China.

28 I've spoken up on international issues as it

1 relates to China's violations of international law as it
2 relates to the Convention of the Law of the Sea in the South
3 China Sea, and its increasing illegal actions as it relates 4 to the Philippines to Malaysia to Vietnam and to other 5 vessels in that area. I've spoken up on its violation of the 6 1997 Joint Declaration, the Sino-British Joint Declaration, 7 which is an international treaty which guarantees Hong Kong's 8 liberties and civil rights for 50 years from 1997.

9 Spoken up on issues concerning its violations
10 of international law as it relates to the Genocide Convention 11 of 1948, as it relates to the Uyghurs in Xinjiang Province, 12 its persecution of other minority groups in the PRC, 13 Christians, Tibetans, and other minorities.

14 So it's -- it is a broad file, as the 15 relationship between our two countries, it's broad, wide, and 16 deep.

17 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And with respect to 18 the 2019 election, I understand that your primary role in 19 2019 was as a candidate. Is that right?

20 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Yes.

21 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Did you have any role 22 in the national campaign informally?

23 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: I did not.

24 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Or informally either?

25 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: No.

26 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And speaking about 27 the 2019 election, I understand that about two months ahead 28 of that election you received an email that you reported as 1 suspicious. Is that right?

2 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: That's correct. I
3 received a -- what was obviously a spoof email, an email 4 purportedly from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the 5 People's Republic of China, that contained a veiled threat 6 that suggested that I was banned, not only from entering the 7 PRC, but that other Asian countries had been notified of such 8 ban, implying that I could be extradited from those other 9 Asian countries to the PRC. I took the step at the time of 10 notifying the Minister of Foreign Affairs, in particular, her 11 staff person, her exempt staff person, her political staff 12 person, and forwarded that communication to that staff 13 person.

14 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: So I'll take you to 15 the email.

16 It's at MMC 4. You can scroll down a little 17 bit. Okay, thank you.

18 --- EXHIBIT No. MMC 4:

19 Threatening correspondence directed 20 at MP Michael Chong

21 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: So is this the email 22 that you received?

23 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: It is.

24 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. And it's dated 25 August 23rd, 2019?

26 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: That's correct.

27 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And it purports to be 28 from someone named Zhong Shan. Do you know this individual?

1 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: I do not.

2 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. And we can see 3 it's coming from an -- a Gmail account.

4 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Yes.

5 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Who did you 6 understand the email to be from?

7 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: From an individual 8 who sent it from a Gmail account, but who put the prefix on 9 the account to suggest that it was from the Ministry of 10 Foreign Affairs of the People's Republic of China.

11 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. And so the 12 language that you were paraphrasing is there. We can read it 13 into the record:

14 "This is to inform you that you've 15 been barred from entering Chinese
16 territory. Including Hong Kong. A
17 note will be sent to other Asian 18 countries and cities. Do not attempt 19 to enter Beijing, Shanghai, or Hong 20 Kong as you will be ejected from 21 entry. Thank you."

22 So what did you understand that to be 23 communicating?

24 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: My understanding was 25 that an individual had decided to email me a veiled threat.
26 What I wasn't certain about was whether or not this was a 27 proxy agent acting on behalf of the Government of the PRC or 28 whether this was simply somebody freelancing.

1 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: I don't know the 2 specifics of this petition, I can't recall, but it would be 3 available to the Commission on the ourcommons.ca website.
4 ourcommons.ca website is a URL of the Parliament of Canada.
5 It's -- several years ago, approximately 10 years ago, 6 Parliament allowed for established e-petitions, electronic 7 petitions, which is a way that individuals can start an 8 online electronic petition. I can't recall the exact nature 9 of this petition, but it probably had something to do with -- 10 -

11 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Okay. It's a reference 12 to ---

13 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: --- the People's 14 Republic of China. Yeah.

15 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Okay. Thank you.

16 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: So if you can go 17 MMC 5. If we go to the last page.

18 Okay, so that's the email that you received.
19 And then it looks like you forward it on to someone, and you 20 say, "As discussed. Regards, Michael." That's you.

21 And if we go up.

22 We can see that the person says:

23 "Got it! Thanks, Michael. We'll be 24 in touch."

25 And that's person's...

26 If we just go down a bit. Sorry.

27 That person's title is Advisor, Planning and 28 Regional Affairs (Ontario), Office of the Minister of Foreign

1 Affairs.

2 So this is the person that you sent this 3 correspondence to; right?

4 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: That's correct.

5 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And the person says:
6 "Got it! Thanks, Michael. We'll be
7 in touch."

8 Did you ever receive a response to this?

9 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: I -- no, I don't 10 believe I did.

11 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. And did you 12 report this to the leadership of the party, the fact that you 13 had received this email and you were forwarding it on?

14 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: No.

15 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And are you aware of 16 any investigation that was done and any outcome as a result 17 based on the fact that this -- that you reported this up?

18 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: I am not aware of any 19 -- well, I -- okay. So I am not aware of any investigation 20 that was done as a result of me forwarding the email to the 21 Minister of Foreign Affairs. The RCMP, as you know, 22 subsequently did do an investigation of this particular 23 email, but that was sometime later.

24 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. And that's 25 because you forwarded it on to the RCMP as well?

26 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: No, that's because the 27 RCMP contacted me in May or June of last year asking me to 28 sit down with them to outline any potential foreign

1 interference threat activities that may have been directed at 2 me ---

3 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Right.

4 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: --- over the last 5 several years, one of which pieces of information I gave them 6 this.

7 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Right. But at this 8 time, then, you reported this to the Minister of Foreign 9 Affairs and nothing came out of it from your perspective?

10 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: No. That's correct, I 11 never heard anything else about it. And the reason why I 12 reported it to the Minister of Foreign Affairs because I 13 thought it's the Minister of Foreign Affairs who would want 14 to let her Chinese counterpart know that somebody is spoofing 15 their Ministry of Foreign Affairs Communications account 16 purporting to act on their behalf.

17 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Right. And so prior 18 to this incident, did you have a sense of who you should be 19 reporting such incidences to?

20 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: No.

21 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. So -- but as 22 you've said, this was reported to the Minister of Foreign 23 Affairs because you thought she could then advise her 24 counterpart?

25 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Yeah. And I think 26 that's -- yes, that's correct. And my thinking was, you 27 know, she is a member of parliament, she is the Minister of 28 Foreign Affairs, that's the appropriate level for me to deal

1 with, rather than trying to figure out some person deep in 2 the bowels of the Canadian bureaucracy.

3 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Right. So this is a 4 few weeks before the writ period that you received this 5 email. At that time, who did you understand or what did you 6 understand to be the process for candidates to report 7 suspicious activities to throughout the campaign?

8 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: I wasn't aware of any 9 process.

10 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. Were you ever 11 briefed in 2019, either prior to during the election, as to 12 who you should be reporting instances of suspected or 13 possible foreign interference as a candidate, either during 14 the campaign or preceding the campaign?

15 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: No.

16 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And were you ever 17 informed as to what type of activity should be reported as 18 suspicious or possible foreign interference?

19 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Sorry, was I?

20 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Were you ever
21 informed as to what kind of activity constituted something 22 that you should report as suspected or possible foreign 23 interference?

24 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: No one ever informed 25 me before or during the 2019 election.

26 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Thank you. And 27 during the 2019 election, were you ever made aware of any 28 concerns regarding irregularities due to foreign

1 interference?

2 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Before the 20 ---

3 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: In the 2019 ---

4 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Yeah.

5 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: --- election, during 6 the election, ---

7 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: M'hm.

8 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: --- either during or 9 after, ---

10 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Yeah.

11 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: --- were you ever
12 told, either by fellow candidates, or by other MPs, or people 13 on the campaign, staffers, about incidences of suspected or 14 possible foreign interference or issues related to that in 15 2019? Was that something that you were ever made aware of?

16 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: No.

17 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. And in 2019,
18 were you aware of the SITE Taskforce?

19 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Yes, I was aware of 20 it.

21 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And what was your 22 understanding of their role?

23 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: It had been stood up 24 to protect the integrity of the General Election. It was an 25 intra-government of -- intragovernmental taskforce within the 26 Government of Canada to ensure protection of the election 27 from foreign threats and foreign interference.

28 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And did you

1 understand that they were an entity that you were to report 2 instances of suspected foreign interference to?

3 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: No.

4 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. So turning now
5 to the 2021 election, I understand that in September of 2021, 6 you participated in an all-candidates meeting in the Township 7 of Puslinch. Can you tell us a little bit about that and 8 what happened?

9 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: So Puslinch Township
10 is a rural township in my riding of Wellington-Halton Hills.
11 It's a small rural township consisting of roughly I think six 12 or 7,000 people. That is the municipality of the corporation 13 of the Township of Puslinch, to give you an idea of its 14 scale. Most everyone knows each other.

15 This all-candidates debate has been run by 16 the local service club there for many decades. They do the 17 same thing during federal and provincial elections.

18 During this particular all candidates debate, 19 which took place entirely over Zoom as a result of the 20 restrictions of the pandemic, there was an individual who 21 appeared in the audience who asked two very loaded questions 22 that suddenly piqued my interest. This individual spoke in 23 Mandarin-accented English and asked me two questions that 24 were really in the form of two accusations. The first was 25 that I was responsible in criticizing the Government of the 26 People's Republic of China for the rise in anti-Chinese 27 racism and discrimination in Canada. In that same question, 28 the individual referenced that Han Dong had made similar

1 statements and that Han Dong had said that those who are 2 criticizing the Government of the People's Republic of China 3 are responsible for the rise in anti-Asian discrimination and 4 hate in Canada.

5 The second question focused on essentially
6 accusing me of aping or mimicking American foreign policy 7 and, you know, the -- made that assertion that in the pre-8 amble to the question and then formed the question along the 9 lines of, you know, shouldn't Canada have an independent 10 foreign policy when it comes to the People's Republic of 11 China?

12 So that took place during the Puslinch all-13 candidates debate. I was taken by surprise when it happened.

14 After the debate, we asked around if anybody 15 had ever seen or heard of this individual, and to this date, 16 no one has a clue who this individual or person is, which is 17 particularly surprising because Puslinch Township is a very 18 small, tight-knit rural community. And so to this day we 19 don't know who this individual is.

20 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And this may be 21 obvious, but is there a large Chinese community, Chinese 22 Canadian community, in Puslinch?

23 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: No, there's not. You 24 know, I -- you know, the riding I represent is largely a 25 rural agricultural riding with smaller towns in it, and you 26 know, frankly, you know, my father and my family are one of 27 the few Chinese Canadians who live in the riding.

28 And you know, I remember when I went to, you

1 know, went to school in the riding, that I often was the only 2 minority in the school or in the classroom.

3 So there is not a significant Chinese
4 community anywhere in the riding, and including Puslinch 5 Township.

6 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: So fair to say that, 7 given what you've just told us, you deemed this incident as 8 suspicious?

9 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: I did. I have not 10 concluded that it's foreign interference threat activities 11 directed at me during an election because I don't have any 12 evidence it was directed by the PRC Consulate in Toronto, but 13 it's consistent with those kinds of activities.

14 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And did you report 15 this incident?

16 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: I did, several months
17 later, to CSIS.

18 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: To CSIS. Okay. And 19 so I want to pull up MMC 8. And just go down a little bit.

20 --- EXHIBIT No. MMC 8:

21 Email : RCMP conclusion to FAI
22 investigation

23 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: So this is dated 24 December 14, 2023 and it's from the RCMP to you. And it 25 says:

26 "This email is to provide an update
27 on the RCMP investigation into the 28 potential FAI emails received and an

1 encounter Mr. Chong experienced.”

2 So when they say the encounter that you
3 experienced, is that relating to this all-candidates debate?

4 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: That’s correct.

5 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay.

6 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: And the emails that I 7 had received.

8 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Is that in relation 9 to the spoof email that you received?

10 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: That is correct.

11 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. And in the 12 second paragraph, it says that:

13 “Although the emails are 14 antagonistic, they do not satisfy the 15 elements of an uttering threats 16 offence.”

17 So did you understand that this was kind of 18 the conclusion of that -- of the investigation into the spoof 19 email?

20 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Yes, I concluded that 21 that was the end of the investigation.

22 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And then it says:

23 “The individual from the virtual all-24 candidates meeting cannot be 25 identified as the list of registered 26 participants was not retained by the 27 organizers.”

28 And so you took this to be the end of the 1 investigation into that incident?

2 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: That's correct.

3 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And then it says:

4 "INSET-GTA investigators have 5 determined that the information
6 provided, although compelling, is not 7 actionable. This is to notify you of 8 the conclusion of this file."

9 So this was the response to the reported 10 incidences that you -- the complaints that you made with 11 respect to those incidences?

12 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Well, to be clear, I 13 did not initiate this RCMP investigation.

14 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Right.

15 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: This was initiated by 16 the RCMP as a result of reporting by the Globe and Mail and 17 other publications earlier last year. As a result of that 18 public reporting, the INSET-GTA group of the RCMP contacted 19 my office, asked to sit down with me, and to talk to me about 20 any potential foreign interference threat activities that I 21 may have experienced. And I provided them with the emails 22 that I had received several years ago, I provided them with 23 the details of the Puslinch all-candidates debate that took 24 place in the last election. And they took some time to 25 investigate, and they concluded their investigation with me 26 in this email.

27 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Right. So when I 28 said that they -- that you reported to them, meaning they

1 asked you ---

2 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: That's right.

3 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: --- to report ---

4 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Yeah, I did not

5 initiate ---

6 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: --- to report to 7 them?

8 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Yeah, I did not

9 initiate ---

10 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Right.

11 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: --- the contact with 12 the RCMP.

13 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Right.

14 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: They contacted ---

15 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: But these are the 16 incidences that you felt were responsive to their request for 17 any incidences that you deemed suspicious?

18 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: That's correct. And 19 what I took of note there was that the two emails that I had 20 received from outside of Canada were likely authored by the 21 same person. So I thought that was new information to me 22 that I had not previously realized.

23 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Thank you. We can 24 take that document down.

25 Are you aware of any irregularities in the 26 2021 election as it pertains to foreign interference? Or any 27 possible irregularities?

28 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: I am.

1 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. And can you
2 tell us about that?

3 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Well I'm aware of what 4 happened to former MP Kenny Chiu during that election.

5 He indicated to me in conversation that he 6 had been subject to large volumes of misinformation on online
7 platforms, particularly Chinese language online platforms.
8 Initially, he was uncertain as to the origin of that 9 misinformation. And so that is one incident that I was aware 10 of. The second -- so that's one incident that I was aware 11 of.

12 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And so was he 13 reporting this to you during the election campaign, the writ 14 period, or was this sometime afterwards that he told you 15 about this?

16 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: My recollection is 17 that it was -- if not during the writ period, it was 18 immediately thereafter, in the day or two after the election.

19 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And did you see any 20 examples of this misinformation that he was bringing up with 21 you, or was he just telling you about it, or did you see 22 examples of this yourself?

23 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: He was telling me
24 about it. He was telling me about it. I did not -- I don't 25 -- I'm not on Chinese language social media platforms, so I 26 did not see that, but he was telling me about it. He was 27 telling me that the misinformation was telling voters that 28 all Chinese Canadians would have to register under a bill

1 that he had proposed in the previous parliament. He told me 2 that, you know, many people were afraid to talk to him during 3 the campaign. And after the election was finished, in the 4 days after the election, it was clear in reviewing some of 5 the preliminary data that had come in that there had been a 6 drop in votes, significant drop in votes from the previous 2 7 elections in the 2021 election in certain ridings with 8 significant Chinese communities.

9 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Thank you. And did
10 anybody else speak to you about concerns during the 2021 11 election, or about the 2021 election, any other candidates 12 other than Mr. Chiu?

13 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Just Mr. Chiu, during 14 and just after the election. Many other people spoke to me 15 in the weeks and months after that.

16 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. Like, who?

17 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: I held a number of 18 round tables with the Chinese community in the Greater 19 Toronto Area and in the Greater Vancouver -- in the lower 20 mainland of Vancouver to talk about policy generally, but 21 also, to do a review of what had happened in the previous 22 election. So it was a broad based set of round tables, with 23 the Chinese community in particular, to talk about what had 24 happened.

25 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And so before we get 26 to that, which I have some questions on that, I just wanted 27 to confirm if any other candidates were raising concerns 28 about issues within their riding other than Mr. Chiu.

1 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Yes, there were other 2 candidates who raised concerns.

3 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. Like, who?

4 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: I heard from -- I 5 heard from -- I'm drawing a blank now. I heard from a former 6 colleague from Markham.

7 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Mr.?

8 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: I am drawing a blank
9 now on the name. It's ---

10 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Could it be ---

11 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: --- it's ---

12 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: --- Mr. Saroya?

13 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Yes, Mr. Bob Saroya, 14 yes, sorry. Bob Saroya contacted me during that campaign and 15 before, during the campaign and afterwards as well to talk 16 about what happened to him and suggested that there was some 17 funny business going on in his riding. So that's another 18 person that I did talk to.

19 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. Anybody else?

20 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: I can't recall, but I
21 believe I spoke -- I can't recall exactly, but I believe I 22 also spoke with a number of other people, former colleagues 23 about this as well, but I just ---

24 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay.

25 MR MICHAEL CHONG: --- I can't recall.

26 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. No problem.

27 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: But I did definitely 28 speak to Bob Saroya.

1 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. Thank you.

2 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Sorry, I forgot the 3 name.

4 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: No, that's fine.

5 So you were telling us about a postmortem 6 that happened after the election in which you solicited the 7 views of Chinese Canadians about the Conservative Party and 8 its policies; is that right?

9 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: That's correct.

10 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And who organized 11 these round tables?

12 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: I did, and my office.

13 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Were there other MPs 14 involved?

15 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Yes. I cohosted the 16 round tables with I believe it was former MP Bob Saroya, with 17 former MP Kenny Chiu, former MP Alice Wong. I believe those 18 were the three people that I cohosted the round tables with.

19 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And these took place 20 in the Greater Toronto Area and the Greater Vancouver Area; 21 is that right?

22 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: That's correct.

23 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. And what kind 24 of feedback did you hear from Chinese Canadians?

25 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: I heard a wide range 26 of feedback from these Chinese Canadians. First, I heard 27 that many of them were subject to vast volumes of 28 disinformation. They highlighted how Conservative policies

1 had been misrepresented in Chinese language media, on Chinese 2 language media social platforms. They also talked about how 3 regulated broadcasters in Canada, regulated under the CRTC, 4 in particular, radio broadcasters were getting editorial
5 direction from owners not to speak to or even utter Kenny 6 Chiu's name on air. I heard that one radio station in 7 particular, I believe it was AM 1320 I believe is the call 8 sign, in Vancouver, instructed 2 of their on-air broadcasters 9 not to either interview or say Kenny Chiu's name on air. One 10 of them interviewed Kenny Chiu and was terminated, I was 11 told, from his show, and the other person mentioned Kenny 12 Chiu's name on air and had his hours significantly reduced.
13 We also heard during the round tables about how the PRC often 14 has a stronger presence in many Chinese communities in Canada 15 than does the Government of Canada, and that this is in part 16 why the community is often -- parts of the community are so 17 fearful because they don't see a presence from the Government 18 of Canada, but they do see a large presence from PRC 19 officials, including diplomatic and consular officials from 20 the missions of the PRC here in Canada.

21 We also heard -- that's what I can recall 22 right now.

23 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Sure, and I'll take 24 you to ---

25 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: I don't have the 26 letter in front of me, but it's somewhere ---

27 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Well, I'll take you 28 to the letter.

1 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Okay.

2 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: I probably should 3 have done that first. It's MMC 9.

4 --- EXHIBIT No. MMC 9:

5 Letter from Michael Chong to Erin
6 O'Toole - December 21, 2021

7 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And this is a letter
8 that you wrote addressed to Mr. O'Toole, who was the party 9 leader at that time, and it's dated December 21st, 2021.

10 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: M'hm.

11 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And my understanding 12 is that this letter summarizes some of the feedback you heard 13 from these round tables, and laid out some of the -- what you 14 were hearing from Chinese Canadians in these round tables; is 15 that right?

16 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: That's correct.

17 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. And if we go 18 down a little bit, I would just note that there are some 19 redactions there. Can you explain the basis for those 20 redactions?

21 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Yeah, some of that is 22 information related to staffing in the office of the leader 23 of the opposition, which for those reasons I asked that my 24 staff redact that portion of the document.

25 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: So fair to say it's 26 not relevant to the terms of reference of this Commission; is 27 that correct?

28 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: That's correct.

1 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. Thank you.
2 And does it fairly reflect some of the issues or feedback
3 that you were hearing from Chinese Canadians in these round 4 tables?

5 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Yes, it does.

6 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Okay. Thank you. We 7 can take that down.

8 Is it your understanding that the 9 Conservative Party lost seats in the 2021 election due to 10 foreign interference?

11 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: I would say that the 12 Conservative Party was affected in about half a dozen ridings 13 by the foreign interference threat activities directed by the 14 Government of the People's Republic of China.

15 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And what do you base 16 that understanding on?

17 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: I base that on a 18 number of analyses that have been done subsequent to the 2021
19 election, 3 analyses in particular. An -- the analysis done 20 by the Rapid Response Mechanism of Global Affairs Canada
21 during the writ period that indicated that the Chinese 22 Communist Party was likely behind the disinformation 23 operations conducted against MP Kenny Chiu during that 24 campaign. I based it on the digital lab forensic analysis 25 done by the Atlantic Council in November of 2021 that went 26 through the various social media posts that had been posted 27 during the election, and came to a similar conclusion. And 28 thirdly, I based it on the analysis of the research done by

1 Canada Research Chair at McGill University, Dr. Benjamin 2 Fung, and his associate.

3 I also based it on my own analysis of the 4 drop in turnout for Conservative candidates in these half a 5 dozen ridings during the 2021 period, which was a marked 6 change from previous elections.

7 I based it on the firsthand accounts of 8 former colleagues, like MP Kenny Chiu, MP Bob Saroya, 9 MP Alice Wong, and others, and I based it on some of the 10 accounts of what happened in the roundtables that I hosted 11 subsequent to the 2021 election. So that's what I based it 12 on.

13 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And would you have 14 done anything different as a candidate, either in 2019 or in 15 2021, had the information that is now come out, or that you 16 now know, had you known that then?

17 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Absolutely.

18 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: What would you have 19 done different?

20 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Well, when I became 21 known -- when I became aware last May that the PRC was 22 directly targeting me, the first thing that crossed my mind
23 is had I known that in the previous election I would have hit 24 record on the Zoom all candidates debate and press lunch.
25 You know, I had been aware of foreign interference threat
26 activities for years now. CSIS provided me with a briefing 27 on foreign interference threat activities in the summer of 28 2021, but it was a briefing of general application. And a

1 lot of what I had been briefed on was -- I had already known 2 and was widely known in the public realm.

3 I never knew at that juncture, nor did I 4 during the last election, that I was actually being 5 clandestinely, coercively, and corruptly targeted by the 6 Government of the PRC here on Canadian soil. And had I known 7 that, I would have gone on high alert during that election, 8 and when that -- you know, things like that loaded question 9 was asked of me during the press lunch all candidates debate 10 I most certainly would have pressed record on that all 11 candidates debate.

12 I slowly came to the realisation many months 13 afterwards that it may have -- that that event may have been 14 a foreign interference threat activity, but you know, it 15 wasn't really until I became aware last year that I was 16 directly being targeted that, you know, I realised that, you 17 know, I should have hit record.

18 And so yes, I would have done things 19 differently had I known that.

20 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And so I understand 21 that there is probably other things you would like to tell us 22 that relate to Stage 2 of our mandate, but my question is, is 23 there anything else that we haven't covered related to 24 Stage 1, which specifically involves the 2019 and the 2021 25 federal elections, that you have not had a chance to tell us?

26 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Yeah, I think -- I'll 27 finish by saying this. I think the government's -- the 28 Government of Canada's lack of transmission of information to 1 individuals who are being directly targeted by foreign 2 interference threat activities is actually leading to an 3 increase in racial profiling in Canada.

4 You know, when I became aware of the 5 allegations just over a year ago, in the fall of 2022, that 6 the PRC had been -- reports that the PRC had been assisting 7 candidates and -- candidates for nomination and candidates 8 for election with funds for their -- and with other 9 assistance for their election, I asked my campaign manager to 10 pull the lists of all the people with Chinese last names who 11 had donated to my 2021 campaign and my 2019 campaign, to 12 ensure that -- just to check whether or not, you know, they 13 may be people under suspicion. We concluded that they 14 weren't because we knew each and every one of them, but the 15 fact that I did that is an example of racial profiling or 16 ethnic profiling that is a result of the Government of 17 Canada's lack of transparency about the intelligence they 18 have concerning agents and proxy agents here in Canada that 19 may be targeting our democratic institutions.

20 And this is what elected officials, like 21 myself, and candidates in an election have had to resort to 22 because we are not given the sort of intelligence.

23 And so you know, the infuriating thing about 24 what has happened over the last couple of years is the 25 intimation that people raising legitimate concerns about 26 threats to the security of Canada, threats to the security of 27 Canadian citizens, threats to the rules based international 28 order are responsible for fomenting anti Asian racism and

1 discrimination, when in fact, you know, it's the Government
2 of Canada and its lack of transparency that is actually 3 creating a lot of distrust and a lot of innuendo in the 4 Chinese community because they haven't been forthright about 5 the intelligence that they have.

6 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Thank you, Mr. Chong.
7 Those are my questions.

8 Thank you, Commissioner.

9 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Thank you.

10 So there is going to be some cross-11 examination. The first one on the list was the Conservative 12 Party.

13 MS. ERIN DANN: Commissioner? Sorry, I -- 14 Mr. De Luca unfortunately had to leave, but he let me know 15 that the Conservative Party does not have any questions.

16 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Perfect. Thank you.

17 Then, counsel for the Human Rights Coalition.

18 --- CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MS. HANNAH TAYLOR:

19 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: Hello, Mr. Chong. Based 20 on your understanding of how the Chinese Government engages 21 in foreign interference and transnational oppression against 22 those who oppose their policies abroad, do you think you were 23 targeted because of your public advocacy regarding the 24 Chinese Government and its policies, including as they relate 25 to Hong Kong and targeted groups, like Uyghurs and Tibetans, 26 for example?

27 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Absolutely. You know, 28 the bizarre situation that I found myself in was that I had

1 introduced two motions in the House of Commons, one in the 2 fall of 2020, and the second in early 2021. The first 3 related to the threat that Huawei presented to Canada's 4 national telecommunications network, and called on the 5 government to ban Huawei from our national telecommunications 6 network and to bring forward a plan to combat foreign 7 interference threat activities here on Canadian soil. That 8 first motion was adopted by Parliament in late 2020.

9 The second motion concerned the evidence that 10 had accumulated by that point in early 2021, that the 11 Government of the PRC was committing a genocide against the 12 Uyghur Muslim minority population in Xinjiang Province. That 13 motion too was adopted by Parliament.

14 What was so -- you know, what resulted from 15 that second motion being adopted was the Government of 16 Canada, even though it had abstained from voting on the 17 motion, took action based on the motion in concert with 18 western democratic governments, in countries like the United 19 Kingdom, to impose sanctions on officials and entities in 20 Xinjiang for their gross human rights abuses against the 21 Uyghur Muslim minority.

22 I subsequently was sanctioned for the 23 Government of Canada's sanctions on individuals and an entity 24 in Xinjiang. I'm not the Government of Canada. I am part of 25 the official opposition, and so that's how I ended up being 26 sanctioned by the PRC for the government's actions in respect 27 of human rights abuses in Xinjiang.

28 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: And based on your

1 experience as a target, what information do you think targets 2 or potential targets of foreign interference or transnational 3 oppression, as it relates to elections, need from 4 intelligence agencies in order to take appropriate 5 precautions?

6 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: They need information.
7 And this is advice that CSIS has provided to the ministry.
8 In what little information we have received from heavily 9 redacted documents presented to the Procedure and House 10 Affairs Committee of the House of Commons, it is clear that 11 the Director of CSIS has advised the government that sunlight 12 and transparency is one tool in a suite of tools that are 13 necessary to combat foreign interference threat activities
14 here on Canadian soil.

15 CSIS has advised the government that by going 16 public about details concerning foreign interference threat 17 activities on part of authoritarian states that they are able 18 to inform the public, build resilience in the public, so the 19 public is armed with this information and protect themselves 20 from these foreign interference threat activities, because 21 CSIS has advised many foreign interference threat activities 22 do not rise to the level of a criminal prosecution. And it 23 is often difficult to translate intelligence into evidence.
24 And so using the Criminal Code, using criminal law to 25 prosecute these threat activities isn't always the most 26 effective way to combat them. So one way to combat them that 27 -- in the advice that has been given by experts to the 28 government is to use sunlight and transparency to arm the 1 public with information so that they can protect themselves.

2 And we're seeing that increasingly in the Five Eyes Alliance,
3 but we're -- we've not seen it as much here in Canada.

4 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: It's my understanding 5 that you would have taken preventative actions if you had 6 been warned that you faced specific threats. In addition to 7 recording the all-candidates meeting on Zoom, what other 8 precautions would you have taken?

9 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Well, I'm -- I am an 10 MP who represents a riding that is partly in the Greater 11 Toronto Area. As a result, you know, I'm often in downtown 12 Toronto. You know, I'm often at the University of Toronto, 13 talking to experts in a range of policy areas at the Munk
14 International -- the Munk School of International Affairs, 15 which happens to be located at St. George and Bloor Street.
16 And just up the street, a mere matter of blocks, is the PRC 17 Consulate, where this particular diplomat, Mr. Wade Joe 18 worked. So it would have been nice to know that this 19 individual was targeting me, so that I could have at least 20 been aware of my surroundings and to ensure that nothing 21 nefarious was going on. So those are the kinds of things 22 that I think elected officials and Canadians more broadly 23 need to be made aware of. If we don't -- if we're not aware 24 of these things, we go about our business, you know, not 25 thinking about these things.

26 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: And considering your 27 experience ---

28 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: It's going to be your

1 last question because your time is already exhausted.

2 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: Thank you. Considering 3 your experience, you would agree that in addition to 4 parliamentarians and their families it's important that 5 members of targeted diaspora communities in Canada are 6 provided warnings in a timely manner when they face specific 7 threats of foreign interference and transnational oppression?

8 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Absolutely. And that 9 is currently the case in other western democracies. Back 10 when my case -- when the case of Mr. Wei Zhao, the diplomat - 11 - the consular official who was declared persona non grata 12 last year after a Global Mail report was made public, I had 13 many -- I had a number of foreign missions here in Ottawa 14 express surprise to me privately that I had not been 15 previously informed of this individual targeting me, that the 16 protocol in place in these other western democracies is that 17 elected officials, even elected officials in opposition, 18 elected officials who are not in government are regularly 19 informed of threat activities directed toward them and their 20 families by intelligence agencies.

21 MS. HANNAH TAYLOR: Thank you, Mr. Chong.

22 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Thank you.

23 The AG?

24 --- CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. BARNEY BRUCKER:

25 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: Good afternoon, Mr.
26 Chong. Just a couple of questions. The round tables that 27 you organized, how many of those did you -- approximately how 28 many of those did you hold?

1 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Approximately three.

2 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: And how many people
3 attended?

4 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: It was in the dozens.

5 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: And were these all
6 Chinese Canadians or a mix of people?

7 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: They were all Chinese 8 Canadians.

9 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: Right. You mentioned 10 that you had been aware of foreign interference for some 11 time, and I think you talked about some meetings with CSIS.
12 Now we apparently are going to hear in the next stage of the 13 inquiry about -- or more about a briefing that you had, a 14 classified briefing in or about June of 2023, May, June of 15 2023.

16 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: I did not have a
17 classified briefing.

18 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: You've never had a
19 classified briefing?

20 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: No, in May of 2023 ---

21 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: Yeah.

22 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: --- Director David
23 Vigneault declassified under threat reduction measures a 24 paragraph of the intelligence assessment of July of 2020 on.

25 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: You had -- let me put it 26 another way. You had a briefing in which you had received 27 some information that was formerly classified information?

28 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: That's correct. One

1 paragraph that ---

2 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: Whereas, in the previous 3 briefings, that did not occur?

4 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: That's correct.

5 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: Right. And my 6 understanding is you had maybe four or five of those 7 briefings, those other briefings prior to the May or June of 8 2023 briefings; is that fair?

9 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: No.

10 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: No ---

11 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: I had one briefing
12 from CSIS of general application in the summer of 2021 about 13 foreign interference threat activities here on Canadian soil.
14 That briefing took place in Toronto. That briefing was of 15 general application. My understanding I was the first Member 16 of Parliament to be briefed in this way. And that briefing 17 did not contain any information about any threats directed 18 toward me.

19 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: I just want to be clear 20 ---

21 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Yeah.

22 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: --- because we may hear 23 more about this later, but your evidence is that you had only 24 one briefing prior to the briefing in May or ---

25 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: That's correct.

26 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: --- June of 2023?

27 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Yes.

28 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: All right. Thank you.

1 And you used the word "targeted". What do you mean by that?
2 You said you were targeted. You became aware that you were 3 targeted. What do you ---

4 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Yeah.

5 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: --- mean by "targeted"?

6 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: So what I mean by that 7 is a consular official by the name of Mr. Wei Zhao, who was 8 accredited by the Government of Canada and accorded rights 9 that ordinary Canadian citizens do not have, diplomatic 10 rights under the Vienna Convention, that it shield them from 11 certain types of prosecutions that Canadians are not afforded 12 to, was gathering information about me and my family to pass 13 along to the Ministry of State Security, which is the 14 Ministry in Beijing responsible for Beijing's secret police, 15 an order to potentially further target me and my extended 16 family. That's what I mean by targeting.

17 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: I'm just wondering if I 18 might -- do you understand that you're coming back for the 19 next phase of this inquiry? Because ---

20 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: I do not know I've 21 been called as a witness for the next part of the inquiry, 22 but I understand I'm getting standing for the next part of 23 the inquiry.

24 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: There's some nodding of 25 heads over here, so I think maybe I'll take that as a sign 26 that we may have another opportunity to explore this ---

27 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: Sorry, excuse me, 28 Commissioner. The nodding of heads is to agree with Mr.

1 Chong's assessment that we have not determined witnesses for 2 stage two, but he does indeed have standing for the entire 3 phase one, phase two, stage one, stage two of the Commissions 4 proceedings.

5 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: I'm not sure how helpful 6 that is, but thank you.

7 MS. NATALIA RODRIGUEZ: And, sorry, just to 8 clarify, the issues that are being brought up will be dealt 9 with in stage two of the Commission's fact-finding phase.

10 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: Again, not sure how 11 helpful it is, but thank you for the information.

12 Sorry, just let me check my note. The only 13 direct knowledge you have, at least of what you believe is 14 potential foreign interference in your campaign in 2021 was 15 this incident on Zoom in the Puslinch Township meeting; is 16 that fair?

17 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Yeah, I don't know
18 that that was a foreign interference threat activity. I 19 don't have the evidence to make that conclusion. It's not 20 inconsistent with a foreign interference threat activity of 21 the People's Republic of China, but I don't know, or I 22 haven't concluded, I haven't assessed that it is indeed a 23 foreign interference threat activity.

24 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: Okay. But that's the 25 only thing that I heard with respect to your own campaign.
26 You have talked to others, and you told us who. Is that 27 correct?

28 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: In the 2021 ---

1 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: Yes.

2 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: --- campaign, yes, 3 that's correct.

4 MR. BARNEY BRUCKER: Right. Thank you.

5 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Thank you.

6 It's your colleague. So he's counsel to 7 Michael Chan, for those that do not know.

8 MR. ANDY CHAN: Thank you, Commissioner.

9 --- CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. ANDY CHAN:

10 MR. ANDY CHAN: Mr. Chong, just a couple of 11 questions. At paragraph 20 of your interview summary, we 12 don't need to go there, but you recall that you said that 13 nomination rules are vulnerable to foreign interference; is 14 that right?

15 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: That's correct.

16 MR. ANDY CHAN: And the Commission has heard 17 evidence that rules for nomination contests are similar to 18 those for leadership contests, because if you're a registered 19 member, you can vote in a leadership contest. And I wondered 20 if you -- the concerns that you have about nomination 21 contests would also apply to leadership contests?

22 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Yes. The concerns I
23 have about nomination contests apply to leadership contests.
24 In fact, my concern about leadership contests are even 25 greater than my concern about nomination contests, and here's 26 why. The nomination contest is not the end of the matter.
27 When a person is elected or selected as the candidate for a 28 registered political party, there is then a subsequent very 1 important step, which is the election or byelection to elect

2 that individual to the House of Commons.

3 No such second step exists for the election
4 of a party leader. And so with the vulnerabilities that have 5 been exposed in testimony today and yesterday are in place 6 for the election of a leader of a party, particularly of a 7 party that has the majority of seats or commands the majority 8 of support in the House of Commons, we are effectively 9 opening up the appointment of heads of government in this 10 country, including prime ministers and premiers, to this 11 foreign interference.

12 I think of my late colleague, the Honourable 13 Jim Prentice. When Jim Prentice was appointed Premier of the 14 Province of Alberta, he was a private citizen. He was no 15 different than anyone walking down Wellington Street today.
16 He was appointed by the Lieutenant Governor of the Province 17 of Alberta to be full premier of that province. He did not 18 have a seat in the Legislative Assembly of the Province of 19 Alberta. He had simply been elected as leader of the Alberta 20 PC Party.

21 And what has happened in recent decades, both 22 at the provincial and the federal level, is that party 23 caucuses have deferred the election, the selection, of party 24 leaders to the registered political parties.

25 And so we could have a situation here in 26 Canada where a Prime Minister resigns from office. The 27 registered political party conducts an election for the 28 leader. That election, if subject to the same kind of rules

1 that some of the parties have outlined here today and 2 yesterday at the Commission, would result in the appointment 3 of a Prime Minister who does not have a seat in the House of 4 Commons and who was elected through a process that was 5 significantly compromised by non-citizens and by foreign 6 state actors.

7 And so that's why I think -- that's why I'm 8 very concerned not just about some of the evidence that we've 9 heard here in front of the Commission with respect to party 10 nominations, but also how it relates to the appointment of 11 heads of government, particularly the appointment of a Prime 12 Minister by the Governor General.

13 MR. ANDY CHAN: Thank you, Mr. Chong. In 14 your testimony to Commission counsel, Ms. Rodriguez, you 15 discussed disinformation campaigns in Kenny Chiu's campaign.
16 Do you recall that?

17 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Yes, I do.

18 MR. ANDY CHAN: And at times in these 19 hearings today, there have been some suggestions that 20 opinions, views, and articles in these campaigns or in these 21 disinformation campaigns may just form part of legitimate 22 debate in a free election. And I wanted to provide you an 23 opportunity to comment on that.

24 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Yeah, free debates, 25 misinformed debates, even misinformed opinions are the right 26 of any Canadian citizen during an election, and in between 27 elections. People are right to express their points of view, 28 however informed or misinformed they are. So there's nothing

1 wrong about doing that.

2 What is wrong is if a foreign state actor, 3 directly or indirectly, clandestinely, corruptly, or 4 coercively, is spreading disinformation and misinformation
5 during or even before elections in this country. That is not 6 acceptable. That -- you know, using clandestine, coercive, 7 and corrupt methods is foreign interference and any state 8 actor that participates in the dissemination of that kind of 9 information in those -- in that way is committing foreign 10 interference, a violation of foreign interference law in 11 Canada, and needs to be held accountable. And if that 12 violation of our laws here in Canada doesn't rise to the 13 level of criminal prosecution, then the Government of Canada 14 has a range of other tools in the tool kit to go after that 15 foreign interference.

16 MR. ANDY CHAN: Thank you, Mr. Chong. That's 17 very helpful.

18 Those are my questions, Commissioner.

19 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: Thank you.

20 Thank you very much. You're free to go.

21 HON. MICHAEL CHONG: Merci, Madam.

22 COMMISSIONER HOGUE: And to come back 23 whenever you want.

24 So thank you all. We'll be in the same room 25 tomorrow morning at 9:30.

26 THE REGISTRAR: Order, please. À l'ordre, 27 s'il vous plaît.

28 This sitting of the Foreign Interference

1 Commission has adjourned until tomorrow at 9:30.

2 --- Upon adjourning at 6:19 p.m./
